SHOWERS FUN MAKERS WITH SILVER DOLLARS
(United Press Lensed Wire.)
Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 27.—A chavari party that intended to surprise George Wingfield and his bride on their return here last night, was in turn surprised by the lavish action of the mining promoter in showering the jester with silver dollars, and instead of beating their tin pans and blowing their horns, the members of the party indulged in a wholesale scramble for the money. Women and children fought for the coins.

Horsemen refused to let races proceed while Governor Hughes was on the track at Saratoga.

Earl Irey, aged 21, may lose his sight and two other lads on the United States training ship Penasola at San Francisco may be court martialed as the result of the hazing of Irey, who was hanged until nearly dead.
