BIG OVATION TO RETURNING ATHLETES DYNAMITE SAFE AND ROB BANK OF TWELVE THOUSAND DOLLARS

NEW YORK GOES WILD OVER HEROES OF THE STADIUM

ARMY, NAVY, CLUBS AND POPULACE HONOR SMITHSON AND OTHERS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Aug. 29.—America today extended her formal welcome and expressed her unbounded pride in the stalwart athletes who carried the Stars and Stripes to victory in the great Olympic games at London and won the admiration of the world.
All New York was given over to the celebration which was the most remarkable event of the kind ever held. The great parade of soldiers and sailors, with brass bands and decorated automobiles passed down Broadway through a tremendous crowd of cheering people.

Crowd Sky Scrapers.
At Madison Square Garden the crowd filled the whole park and from the high windows of the Flatiron building and the great Metropolitan Life tower, the highest buildings in the world, the national colors waved welcome and honor to the athletes.
Soldiers and Sailors.
At the head of the column was Grand Marshal George W. Wingate and his staff, forming the advance of the first division. Then came the regulars from Governors Island, followed by the marines, and sailors

VENDETTA AGAIN AT ITS WORK

WEALTHY ITALIAN IS SHOT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Aug. 29.—The black hand claimed another victim in Chicago today, when Michael Dispinunto, a wealthy Italian, was shot and killed in his barber shop.
Dispinunto received threatening letters a few days ago, saying that he had been marked for death unless he contributed to the society. He paid little attention to the letters, though they bore the sign of the dreaded order.
Today Dispinunto was standing in his shop, when a stranger opened the door, and without a word shot him. The assassination was so swift and unexpected that the murder had no trouble in making his escape.
There is much uneasiness among the well-to-do Italians as it is reported several recently have received communications from the black hand society.

HARRIMAN STOPS ON WAY NORTH

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Albany, Or., Aug. 29.—So many cities in Oregon have sent him invitations to visit that E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate, who is spending a few weeks at Pelican Bay Lodge, has wired J. H. O'Brien of the Albany Herald, that he will stop off at Willamette valley towns on his way north to Portland.
"We are about to extend the Corvallis & Eastern railroad. Will you drop off and drive a spike? The Albany people will be glad to meet you, were the contents of a telegram sent Harriman by Mr. O'Brien. The latter sent the following message in return.
"Mr. Harriman desires me to reply to your kind telegram stating that when he comes north he will stop off at Albany."

VACATION FOR EXCITED COLONEL

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Aug. 29.—Colonel William F. Stewart, the exiled officer of the artillery corps at Fort Grant, Arizona, is preparing to make application to the war department for a leave of absence. He has not had a vacation for several years and his accumulated leave privilege will give him four months away from his lonely station. It is understood the department will accede to his request and his leave will probably be made effective immediately after he undergoes the physical test at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., territory.

NEWS FROM HERE.
THERE AND EVERYWHERE
Showing a leap toward returning prosperity, 29,000 cars which have been idle are being hurriedly repaired and put in order. This follows a report of the American Railway association showing a decrease in car surplus of 26,662 since their last report.
Eugene Semple, once governor of Washington, died in San Diego, Cal., yesterday.
The jurors who refused to indict the violators of the excise law at Atlantic City, N. J., for selling liquor, were severely rebuked by the judge to whom they reported.

GERMANS ACCUSED OF SPYING

SHIP STOPS BRITISH MANEUVERS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, Aug. 29.—British naval officers in charge of the torpedo boat maneuvers in the Tyne today were thrown into a rage by the sudden appearance in their midst of a German torpedo boat, "D 5" which they suspect of having been sent on a spying expedition. The German boat was hoarded by British officers, who demanded that the commander of the German boat explain his presence in the Tyne. The German said that while cruising off the coast his boat had been disabled suddenly and that he was forced to put into the Tyne for repairs.
The German disclaimed any intention of spying on the British maneuvers and an investigation of the "D 5" showed that the statement that she was disabled was true.

The affair, however, has caused much bitter feeling on the British side. The brother officers were furious when the German boat came up the Tyne unannounced until she was actually within the territory of the maneuvers. The Germans are angry at their reception and at the suspicion of spying. They objected to the manner in which the "D 5" was stopped by the British and protested against the action of the British officers in boarding the German ship.
The appearance of the "D 5" at once put a stop to the maneuvers and they will not be resumed until next Monday by which time the German "D 5" was ordered to leave. The damage to her is slight and can be repaired quickly.
International Affair.
It is expected that the affair will become a matter for international consideration and there is every prospect that England will ask Germany for an official statement in regard to the incident.
The affair is given extraordinary importance in view of the recent talk of war between England and Germany being certain to come sooner or later. The "Jingo" papers here which have been dilating on the situation for months are greatly agitated over the incident and attribute the utmost significance to it.
The maneuvers being conducted in the Tyne were of a secret nature and the navy was trying some of the latest developments of torpedo warfare, which have been guarded closely from observation by foreign governments.

The conservative view of the situation, however, is based on the ground that the German boat could not have hoped to remain unnoticed and if the Germans had desired to spy on the maneuvers, some other method would have been chosen. The suspicion of spying is greatly the outgrowth of the situation.
The feeling displayed, however, by both the Germans and the English has given the matter international significance, and it is destined to become the basis of important official action.

VOTERS ON LAND DECIDE ANNEXATION

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Aug. 29.—The supreme court of the state has handed down a decision that there is no limit to the size of a city provided that the people in the territory affected vote for annexation.
The decision was handed down yesterday in a test case brought by George H. Peck. Los Angeles voted to annex a strip of territory 16 miles long and a mile and a half broad and another strip of territory south of the city.
Peck contended that the annexation was contrary to the spirit of the law and that property effected is agricultural in character and interferes with the territory of other cities about Los Angeles.
The supreme court held that the voters in the effected district are the sole judges of the character of the land and that if they are satisfied with annexation to any city, the law does not interfere.

SHERIFF IS MADE PRISONER

BOLD HOLD-UP NEAR MONTREAL

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Montreal, Que., Aug. 29.—Five masked men held up the Provincial bank of St. Eustache, ten miles from here in broad daylight early today and while two of the men held a posse at bay with revolvers and rifles, the other three robbed the vaults getting $12,000 in gold. The robbers escaped.
The whole country is tremendously excited. Poses are searching the country in all directions looking for the robbers who are the most daring that ever made an attempt at robbery here. The robbers overpowered the night watchman and gained entrance to the bank. In tampering with the vault, they set off the burglar alarm and this called aid from the sheriff's office.
Two of the robbers calmly waited for the officers to arrive and then informed them that the first one that attempted to get into the bank would be killed. They held them off until their companions had had time to get the money and then all rode out of town on horses after warning the sheriff and his men that they would be killed if they followed.

STABS AND TRIES TO KILL WIFE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Jose, Cal., Aug. 29.—The police are today looking for Saleck Robles, who yesterday stabbed his wife in the face with a fork, dragged her about the house by the hair and attempted to cut her throat with a butcher knife.
Mrs. Robles was sitting at the dinner table with her babe in her arms when the brutal assault was made. Her husband was angered because she had been out of the house without his consent and, after a few words to her, he stabbed her in the cheek with a fork. Then he grabbed her by the hair and dragged her into the kitchen where he tried to cut her throat with a butcher knife.
Neighbors rushed in in time to save the woman. Robles fled.

STRANGE CIRCUMSTANCES IN ROBERTS SHOOTING

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 29.—Charles B. Roberts, victim of the mysterious shooting on the boardwalk, is reported today to have suffered a relapse and there is little hope of his recovery.
The police and detectives are doubly anxious to get sufficient evidence to make an arrest in the case, but the strange circumstances have not been explained. Careful investigation is being made of the movements of W. S. G. Williams of Baltimore, whose wife was with Roberts, when a man stepped up and shot him. The detectives say they will produce sensational evidence within 24 hours, though no charge has been made yet against any one.

NEW MEXICO DEATH LIST INCREASES

FIFTY ARE REPORTED DROWNED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Trinidad, Colo., Aug. 29.—The number of persons who perished in the flood that swept Folsom, New Mexico, yesterday will reach more than 50, according to reports brought here today by the first trainload of refugees.
The train had a perilous journey, practically creeping over the twisted track between here and the devastated section. Twenty-four hours were required to cover 100 miles.
The survivors tell appalling stories of the destruction to life and property. Dwellings, business buildings and fields of grain were swept away.
Twenty-three bodies have been found and more are being taken from the wreck every hour. Many others are not accounted for.
Many have fled from the district, while whole families, rendered destitute are without food or clothing. No list of the names of the dead is obtainable here.

East Las Vegas, N. M., Aug. 29.—Huddled up on the hillsides, scantily clad and suffering from hunger, the survivors of the cloudburst at Folsom, New Mexico, are seeking shelter today from a driving hail storm which is sweeping the territory, beating down crops, killing sheep by thousands, devastating cantaloupe fields, and leaving a path of ruin in its wake.
The storm is one of the most terrible ever experienced here and has practically cut off communication with Folsom although the wires are working intermittently.
Latest reports received here via Clayton from the ruined town describe conditions there as horrible. Driven from their homes without sufficient wearing apparel to protect them from the storm and compelled to go without food for nearly 48 hours, the survivors of the cloudburst are in a pitiable state.
It has been impossible to learn the exact number of dead so far discovered. Twenty persons are known to be missing and it is feared their dead bodies will be found in the canyon below the town, when the water subsides sufficiently to allow the searchers to proceed with their work.

Heavy damage is reported from the country surrounding east Las Vegas as a result of the hail storm. Hail stones almost as large as a quarter of a dollar are falling here and in some places they are reported to have been hurled with the wind with such force as to penetrate the roofs of houses.
Floods are reported from all sections of the territory and railroad tracks are submerged or washed away in many places. Eight bridges are down near Des Moines, New Mexico, two houses were washed away at Springer, the wagon roads are destroyed near Raton, scores of creeks and arroyos are overflowing and miles of farm land and pastures are inundated.
The loss of livestock is heavy, in many places hundreds of cattle are being drowned and innumerable sheep being beaten to death by the heavy hail stones.

TRAFFIC MANAGERS IN CONFERENCE
San Francisco, Aug. 29.—Edward Chambers, traffic manager for the Santa Fe railroad in this city, left today for Chicago where he has been suddenly called by his chief to a conference. As the Harriman interests have already ordered H. A. Jones, freight traffic agent of the same destination, the inference is drawn here that a general traffic conference of the trans-continental lines is contemplated.
It is believed the traffic men have been called together to discuss the trans-Pacific rate problem and the recent ruling of the interstate commerce commission with regard to the publication of trans-continental rates on international and trans-Pacific hauls.
