

FIRST PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE COMING

Will Address People of Salem On Prohibition Saturday, September 5, at Marion Square, 2 P. M.

FIRST DATE AT SALEM FOR EUGENE W. CHAFIN FOR PRESIDENT

Preparations are being made by the Prohibitionists to entertain Eugene W. Chafin, their presidential candidate, in Salem, Saturday, September 5th, and a large crowd is expected to hear him. Mr. Chafin is an able orator and will make a strong and interesting talk for prohibition, and all who are interested in the temperance work should hear him.

The Prohibition presidential electors are invited and will probably attend in a body. They are: Rev. A. G. Hunsaker, McMinnville; W. P. Elmore, Brownsville; Rev. Hiram Gould, Forest Grove; F. McKercher, Portland.

Big Crowds Hear Chafin.
Eau Claire, Wis., Aug. 23.—E. W. Chafin, Prohibition candidate for the presidency, today spoke here to 4,000 people. Chafin left for Minne-neapolis this evening, where he will deliver five speeches tomorrow.

Chafin today said that he had spoken in six states already and intended to cover the remaining state before November.

A Strenuous Day.
Minneapolis, Aug. 24.—Eugene W. Chafin, prohibition candidate for president spent a strenuous day today in Minneapolis. He spoke five times at open air meetings in the four-mill district and on Newspaper Row. Still another address was made in the rooms of the East Side Commercial Club.

All the meetings were well attended. "If I am elected president of the United States on the third day of November, and inaugurated on the fourth day of next March, I will call a special session of the Congress of the United States the next day after my inauguration, and ask them to legislate the liquor traffic out of existence."

This declaration of Mr. Chafin, Prohibition candidate for president found hearty approval in the crowd of workmen and others who met to hear the candidate today.

"If every man who believes in prohibition will rally and vote for me this fall," said Mr. Chafin, "I can carry the electoral vote of this state and of almost every state in the union."

will and does as he says. It is probable that the members will assemble in an ugly mood and a remarkable session is certain to result.

Take Politicians Away.

The leaders score the governor on the ground that the legislature will take the members away from their districts when their presence is most needed to carry on the campaign.

Hissed at Convention.

The decision of the governor recalls vividly his threat when he was hissed off the stage at the Republican national convention in Chicago. He was presenting the name of Vice President Fairbanks before the convention in opposition to Taft when the hoots and catcalls of the delegates finally forced him to stop speaking. He shook his fist at the convention and declared:

"You will be glad to hear from me after the election. I will make it burn for Taft and his forces in Indiana this fall. You will regret this action and you'll hear from me before November third!"

It is reported that National Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock has changed his plans and is rushing here from Chicago for a conference with Fairbanks in an effort to effect a reconciliation.

Taft-Foraker Incident.

Middle Bass Island, Sept. 4.—The Taft party here is awaiting with interest some expression from Roosevelt on the Foraker-Taft meeting at Toledo. Some fear that a wrong construction has been placed on the matter and explain that Taft knew nothing about the program of the local committee and did not know that he would meet Senator Foraker.

The announcement of Foraker that he did not make peace with Taft and did not desire to be understood to have done so, has caused some comment here. It is explained that there was no effort on the part of Taft to bring about the meeting with Foraker and that it was the mere incident.

BROUGHT TO PRISON IN HERD

Wallace, Ida., Sept. 4.—Extra guards are today on watch in and outside of the jail in Wallace, where the 46 men accused of dynamiting fish on the north fork of the Coeur d'Alene river are behind the bars after being brought like a herd of cattle by Game Warden Lem Wilson and two assistants heavily armed.

When the party approached Wallace last yesterday the prisoners showed signs of becoming restive and deputies were pressed into service by Wilson. Every precaution is being taken today to prevent a jail delivery. For some time complaints as to the destruction of fish have been received here by the sheriff's office.

How Are Those Old Worn Out Shades Anyhow?

Maybe they only need the attention of an expert on shades and possibly they are past redemption and should be replaced by new ones.

Game Warden Wilson and two assistants watched near the Coeur d'Alene river and caught the men now under arrest in the act of killing fish with dynamite. They were arrested later in a bunkhouse.

GENERAL OTIS TO UNDERGO OPERATION

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 4.—General Harrison Gray Otis, publisher of the Los Angeles Times, and veteran of the civil and Spanish wars, is here today to undergo an operation at Johns Hopkins hospital. The operation will be performed in a day or two by Dr. Hugh H. Young.

INDICTED FOR STEALING $40,000 IN BONDS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Sept. 4.—John J. Lynch and C. E. Rankin were today served with a joint indictment brought against them late yesterday by the grand jury on a charge of embezzlement of $40,000 worth of bonds of the Ocean Shore Railway company.

The alleged felony was in connection with a deal in which Lynch received the bonds as security for a $10,000 loan. It was charged that Lynch hypothecated the securities. Rankin admitted that he had purchased $10,000 worth of the bonds, but declares he was innocent of any felonious intent and did not know the character of the transaction by which they came into Lynch's hands.

The true bills were returned before Presiding Superior Judge Sturtevant today.

J. M. Kelley, a salesman, being questioned in the attempt to secure a jury in the Ruef case in San Francisco, stated he had been offered $2000 to vote against the conviction of Ruef if he should be accepted as a juror.

Germany's emperor last night attempted to personally put on an opera, "Sardanapalus," but his critics are anything but flattering of the result of his efforts.

ATLANTIC FLEET BIDDING FAREWELL TO AUSTRALIA

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Melbourne, Sept. 4.—(By H. Lee Clotworthy, United Press Correspondent on board the U. S. S. Georgia.)—The farewell banquet given to the officers of the Atlantic fleet this evening was a great feast. It was expressive of the strong sentiment of "Hands across the sea," clasped in the warmest grip of friendship and the promise of continued close relations.

Sir Thomas Carmichael, governor of Victoria, in a special address to the departing visitors expressed the pleasure the visit of the fleet had brought to Melbourne and all Australia. He said he considered it more than a mere passing call or formal attention on the part of the government to another and voiced his opinion that the incident is prophetic of the alliance of the white nations of the world.

"This visit of the American fleet to Australia," said Sir Thomas in conclusion, "will lead to more than the supremacy of the white race in the Pacific. It is leading to the formation of a great Anglo-American alliance which will be committed to the establishment of peace throughout the world."

Admiral Sperry responded in a strong speech of appreciation of the welcome and friendliness of the people of Melbourne and assured the hosts that the feeling of mutual interests and good will is equally strong in the United States. There were many exchanges of compliments and toasts, making the banquet an appropriate final feature of the great reception at this port.

The fleet will steam out of the harbor at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning and start on the cruise of 1350 miles across the great Australian Bight to Albany, which is on King George's southwest section of Australia.

The stay here has been marred by three accidents, in which two Americans were killed and one severely hurt by railway trains. Michael Michaelson, a member of the band of the Vermont, was run over and killed instantly last night. Arthur Decker, a seaman from the New Jersey, lost his life in trying to get out of the way of a train, which ran him down. Charles Ballan, a carpenter's apprentice of the Minnesota, fell from the steps of a coach and the wheels passed over his legs crushing them. The accidents were all pronounced unavoidable and no one is held responsible.

The citizens are preparing to arise early and give the ships farewell cheer as they steam out to sea tomorrow morning. There was many a hard parting between Jackies and "the girl I met in Melbourne" tonight. The boys had probably the best time here of the entire cruise. They had grown accustomed to the ways of the Australians at Sydney and they got acquainted quickly here. The fleet is due to arrive at Albany Sept. 11.

RIOTERS WOULD KILL INDICTMENTS

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 4.—Many of the persons indicted by the grand jury, which has been investigating the recent race war in Springfield, intimated today that they will at once take steps to have the indictments against them quashed.

After returning a total of 117 true bills, the grand jurors have completed their work. Among these are four against Springfield policemen of whom the jury says:

"After the most diligent inquiry we condemn in unmeasured terms the cowardly, contemptuous action of these members of the police, who, having taken the oath of office, failed to do their duty."

SCHWAB TO LIVE NEAR STEEL WORKS

(United Press Leased Wire.)

New York, Sept. 4.—It became known today that Charles M. Schwab the steel king, will remove his office from this city and take up quarters near the plant in Bethlehem, Pa., in order to devote all his time to the company's affairs.

For many weeks he has been required to spend at least half of his time there, his private car Loreto making three and four trips a week while at Bethlehem, Schwab has usually lived in the car. Now he is negotiating for a residence in Bethlehem upon which he can secure a year's lease.

The Bethlehem steel company of which he is president, has spent nearly $15,000,000 in enlarging its plant within the last year.

The big fleet's rifle team yesterday defeated the Melbourne market.
