HALTED ALL BROADWAY.

Touching Incident During the Spanish-American War.

Several years ago, when singing with Denman Thompson in "The Old Homestead" in New York, Jose brought all Broadway to a halt. One morning during the Spanish war while our soldier boys were marching down that thoroughfare to the transports to be conveyed to Cuba, Jose was espied on the sidewalk and there were loud cries for a parting song.

Jose jumped on a dry-goods box, the procession halted; and soon the words:

"Good-bye, Dolly, I must leave you Though it breaks my heart to go."

sounded high above the hum of the street and were carried along by the echoing wall of the skyscrapers until the entire line heard them.

"Hark, I hear the bugle calling"—
"Good-bye, Dolly Gray!"

rose the words from Jose's lips and they found response in many tear-dimmed eye, in many a mother's and sweetheart's sob. As Jose charmed the multitude on New York's principal street he has charmed thousands in the public halls since. He may be heard at the Grand opera house tonight, when a new farce-comedy entitled, "Don't Tell My Wife," by James Foster Mulliken, is presented.

RUSSIAN PRINCESS EXILED TO SIBERIA

St. Petersburg, Sept. 5.—Convicted of being a member of a revolutionary group organized for the purpose of changing the existing forms of Russian social life, Princess Alexandrovna Tchernisky, a beautiful and accomplished descendant of an ancient royal family and said to be distantly related to Czar Nicholas was sentenced with 45 followers to spend a long period of exile and penal servitude in the wastes of Siberia.

The princess and five of her disciples will serve sentences of 15 years each. Then of the others were sentenced to 12 years; ten to 10 years; fiveto 8 years; five to 6 years; one to 5 years and nine to 3 years.

The sect of which Princess Tchernisky was leader did not teach violent revolutionary policies and made no effort to excite the people to armed uprisings against the czar's autocratic rule, but they urged a gradual campaign to undermine the strength of the throne and prepare Russia for a future national emancipation. Their idea was to make the people supreme by a system of universal education.

For a long time the imperial commissioners could not secure sufficient evidence against the reformers to convict them, but the princess was finally thrown into prison and hastily tried. Following her trial, the little group of disciples she had gathered around her were also taken into custody and yesterday were sentenced to go with their leader into exile.

One hundred thousand phonographic records of the old-fashioned ballad, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," were sold in California in one year. The original record was made from the voice of Richard J. Jose, who will be heard here tonight between the acts of the new comedy, "Don't Tell My Wife," which will be produced by a company of capable players at the Grand opera house.

ALL-BENTON COUNTY SCHOOL FAIR

County Superintendent Smith returned from the All-Benton County School fair at Corvallis yesterday, and was much pleased with what he saw. The fair was held in a pavilion about the size of the pavilion at the recent Cherry fair in this city. All the exhibits of fruit and vegetables were grown by the Benton county school children, and the large pavilion was completely filled with produce.

One of the exhibits consisted of three cucumbers each one six inches in length, which were grown from the blossom in three days. Another freak exhibit was a cucumber three feet long.

Spasms

St. Vitus' Dance

Many persons who suffered untold agonies from epilepsy, fits, spasms, and St. Vitus' Dance are today well. The strengthening influence of Dr. Miles' Nervine upon the shattered nerves having restored them to perfect health.

"I endured agony that words cannot express from St. Vitus' dance, which followed a very severe spell of rheumatism. I doctored with a physician; but the more I took of his medicine the worse I got. My mother's devotion saved me. After she had become almost heart-broken, as well as physically exhausted from constant care, by the advice of a neighbor she procured a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. From the first dose to the last a continual change for the better was noticable, and when I had taken eleven bottles I was well, and in robust health."

EDWARD D. REAM,
North Manchester, Indiana.

"Our little boy Harry, had spasms for three years, and although we doctored with many physicians, he continued to grow worse until he had ten spasms in one week. About that time our attention was called to Dr. Miles' Nervine. We began giving it to him. His improvement seemed slow, but when he had finished the fourth bottle the spasms had disappeared, and have not been seen now for years. We shall always recommend Dr. Miles' Nervine."

MRS. BELLE M. TINDALL,
Hastings, Neb.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
