Lineman Nearly Electrocut—
Frank Flanagan, a lineman, assisting in changing the wires of the Portland General Electric Company, accidentally made a connection with his feet, while holding one of the 2300-volt wires, which was poorly insulated, and for a few seconds was completely down and out. Flanagan was up a pole at the intersection of Commercial and Ferry streets, with two other linemen, and in some way placed his feet so as to form a connection which would have resulted disastrously had it not been that the jolt threw him away from the heavy voltage wire, thus releasing him. He hung by his safety belt for a few seconds, unable to raise himself.

containing state fair exhibits. Last season the yard engine was at work both night and day "spotting" the stock cars and making room for others at the fair grounds, notwithstanding their local freight work.

The Rooms Problem—
Secretary Hofer and his helpers at the Board of Trade are very busy these days taking care of the rooming proposition for the forthcoming state fair. A great many rooms have already been listed, and several hundred more are wanted. When all are in a complete diagram of the city will be made of the city, showing the location of the different rooms, and indexed things will be kept, giving all the particulars. These will be used to accommodate guests seeking quarters during the fair. The Board of Trade rooms will be kept open until midnight every day, with a competent person and messenger boys in attendance to locate all comers. Persons who have not yet listed their rooms should do so at once, by leaving full particulars at the Board of Trade office.

MATRIMONIAL COMEDY

IN FOUR ACTS
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chico, Cal., Sept. 8.—The surprising facts of the rapid fire matrimonial entanglements of Dora Wise, 19, of Wood, Siskiyou county, who broke an engagement, was re-engaged, married and left by her new spouse, without giving any reason, all within the brief space of 24 hours, became known today.

Miss Wise came here a week ago and announced that she would be married to Fred Kingsley, a mill superintendent of Weed, last Saturday. Arrangements were made for the wedding, but on Friday the girl married F. J. Sherman, a traveling man, whom she had met for the first time the night before. On the day of her marriage she left Sherman, giving no reason.

The girl's parents took her to Oregon today. Sherman left Chico Saturday. There is much speculation as to the cause of Miss Wise's remarkable actions.

KETCHEL DESPITE DEFEAT REMAINS A FAVORITE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 8.—Although Billy Papke is the hero of the hour among the fight fans today, Stanley Ketchel has not lost as much prestige as would naturally be expected after his defeat of yesterday, when he was put out in the twelfth round of a scheduled 25-round go for the middleweight championship of the world. The defeated champion's game showing saved him, and, while he received a set-back in his brilliant career, his declaration that he is not "finished" is generally accepted.

Papke declares he beat Ketchel at his own game with a lucky punch early in the fight, and the defeated fighter swears that he was criminally careless. The fans agree with him. There is general satisfaction over the outcome of the fight among the heavy bettors here. Although they made very little noise about it, most of the plungers were down heavy on the short end. One bet of $5000 "real money" was posted less than an hour before the fighters entered the ring. The financial statement given out by the Jeffries club shows the receipts of the fight to have been $18,480, of which $654 went to Papke and $4436 to Ketchel.

AMERICAN JEAN VAL

JEAN JUMP'S BAIL
Kansas City, Sept. 8.—Charles W. Anderson, the Jean Val Jean of America, who was pardoned by President Roosevelt, was missing today when his case was called in the police court on a charge of gambling.

Anderson was convicted of a felony several years ago, and sentenced to the penitentiary. He managed to escape, successfully concealing his identity, and he reformed and became a respected citizen. His old companions found him out and exposed him. His pardon was granted by President Roosevelt, on the ground that his reform had expiated the crime he had committed.

Workman Injured

E. J. Koser, a workman employed by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, while engaged in moving an electric light pole at the corner of Commercial and Ferry streets, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, was struck by the tongue of the cart used in moving the poles, and sustained a severe fracture of the jaw. Koser had hold of the tongue, and was guiding the cart, when some of the workmen accidentally let fall a heavy pole, which struck the cart causing the tongue to fly up and catch Koser under the chin. Dr. Robertson was called, and the wound was dressed. It is probable that the man will recover.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

ATTELL AND MORAN SHOULD FIGHT

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—A census of opinion in prize circles here today is that never be a final settlement between Attell and Moran.
