GLASGOW UNEMPLOYED IN FIERCE RIOTS

COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

IGNORANCE OF RATES AN EXCUSE

STANDARD OIL COUNSEL

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 10.—The government's contention that ignorance of a published rate is not a valid excuse for a shipper to violate it, is met in its answer to the petition to the government for a rehearing in the twenty-nine million-dollar fine assessed today by the Rockefeller counsel in the federal court of appeals. The answer denies that the government court has ruled that it was the duty of the shipper to ascertain the rate.

BATTLE ALL NIGHT WITH MOB

THOUSANDS CLASH WITH POLICE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Glasgow, Sept. 10.—Following a night of rioting and fighting between a mob of 7000 unemployed and mounted and foot police, this city today presents the spectacle of a town in the throes of a siege. Hundreds of citizens are guarding their property with firearms, fearing a recurrence of the outbreak, and terror-stricken women and children have been compelled to stay indoors all day. Scores of houses were damaged, windows are broken and the streets

MEETING IS FIRST ONE TO BE HELD

SESSION IS BEGUN INFORMALLY

The first annual convention of the county school superintendents opened in the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction Ackerman at 10 o'clock this morning. Nearly all the county superintendents in the state were present, and the convention started off in a business-like fashion. The session today was informal in its nature, assuming the character of a round-table talk. Several of the subjects which were sent out to the superintendents a short time ago were taken up and discussed at length. The county superintendents will spend as much time as they can spare in looking over the Capital City. This evening they will attend a theatre in a body. The following county superintendents are present at the convention:

TREASURY THEFT CASE DISMISSED

FITZGERALD FREED BY ROW

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Sept. 10.—Following the issuing of orders from the treasury department that government officials were to refuse to aid the state in the prosecution of George W. Fitzgerald, former assistant teller at the sub-treasury, accused of the theft of $173,000, the cause was dismissed in court today. The treasury department held that the state had failed to secure enough evidence to warrant the trial of Fitzgerald, and thought it would be wiser to allow him freedom than to try him and fail, thus making the recovery of the missing bank notes more difficult. It was thought today that the state's attorneys and detectives would insist on Fitzgerald being held, and that there would be a clash of authority, but, when the government refused to aid the state, the case fell through. Detectives for the sub-treasurer, Boldenwreck, who were compelled to make good the loss, were responsible for the arrest of Fitzgerald. They claim to have evidence that he tried to arrange for the passing of some of the missing $1000 bills that made up the $173,000 stolen from the sub-treasury over a year ago. The case was dismissed by Judge Chetlain after Sub-Treasurer Boldenwreck had refused to produce the records of his office as evidence. The court declared that the hearing of evidence now would prejudice the investigation, and that the government's interests were paramount to the state's. "The state has no right to push the investigation at this time, when the government desired it stopped," he said.

DREYFUS IN FIGHT IN COURT

FRENCH MARTYR IS INSULTED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Paris, France, Sept. 10.—The adjourned session this afternoon of the trial of Louis Gregori, on the charge of shooting Major Alfred Dreyfus, developed a big sensation, reviving the old issues of the Dreyfus case. Major Dreyfus testified that Gregori shot to kill, and that he only saved himself by throwing up his arm. This was in contradiction of the statement made by Gregori, that he purposely shot to wound Dreyfus in the arm. Maître Menard, counsel for Gregori, declared insinuatingly: "What was true at the time of the first Dreyfus trial is true now." Dreyfus sprang to his feet, exclaiming: "You lie! I was proclaimed innocent by the court." Menard answered: "I throw back to this wretch his silly insult!" An exciting scene followed, and trouble was averted only by the appearance of the gendarmes, who cleared the room of all spectators, and restored order by main force. The crowd, hooting and jeering, remained outside the doors in a state of high excitement. Paris, Sept. 10.—Louis Gregori, the Paris journalist, who shot Major Alfred Dreyfus on June 4, during the ceremonies at the Pantheon, in connection with the placing of the body of Emile Zola in the hall of fame, was placed on trial today in the court of assizes, but the principal witness failed to appear, and his own statement was all that was heard by the court. Dreyfus was present, and was the center of great interest on the part of the crowd that thronged the courtroom. Gregori was calm and showed no signs of emotion. In his statement to the court Gregori said that he went to the Pantheon for the purpose of causing a demonstration. He declared, however, that he had no intention of arousing an attack upon Dreyfus, whom he said he did not hate. "It was against Dreyfusism and the policies which the whole canonization ceremonies stood that I fired the shot," said Gregori. "I did not desire to kill Major Dreyfus, or even want to injure him. I aimed at his arm, knowing that it would be impossible to injure him seriously in that way." The court adjourned when Gregori completed his statement. Unless the other witnesses can be prevailed upon to appear, the case probably will be dropped. The shooting took place in the presence of many of the highest officials of France, including President Fallieres, who was only a few feet away. It is expected there will be much difficulty in inducing any of the officials to appear.

TAFT TO RECEIVE FORAKER

EVENT CAUSE OF SPECULATION

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cincinnati, O., Sept. 10.—Great interest was taken here today in the announcement that Senator Foraker will visit the Taft headquarters this afternoon. Following so closely upon the heels of the "Toledo incident" the visit of Foraker to Taft is believed to be of utmost importance in the political situation in this state. No details of the arrangement for the meeting were given out. The announcement came as a surprise, as Foraker was vigorous in his denial that the Toledo meeting indicated that he had "buried the hatchet." It is well known that Foraker was deeply offended at not being invited to the Youngstown meeting, when the campaign was opened officially. What induced him to agree to call on Taft here this afternoon is puzzling the wisecracks. The meeting is generally taken to mean that peace has been established, but the outcome may prove the assumption false.

SUICIDE OR ACCIDENT? KILLED BY ENGINE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Vancouver, Wash., Sept. 10.—Whether A. Nelson, who was decapitated by a locomotive, committed suicide or was accidentally killed is a question which the coroner will endeavor to settle today. Nelson, who was a laborer, was seen by the engineer while a short distance ahead, walking along the track of the Northern Pacific. He did not turn around when the warning whistle was blown, but his actions indicated that he heard it. His head was completely cut off by the wheels of the locomotive.

OTTAWA PLANS DONATION TOWARD FAIR EXHIBIT

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 10.—The Hon. William Templeman, cabinet minister, met the Victoria board of trade today, to ascertain the views of the board regarding a government appropriation for the Alaskan Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle. The members were strongly in favor of a substantial grant being made. Mr. Templeman said his views coincided with those of the board. He felt strongly in favor of a grant, and assured the meeting that, if nothing was done by the Ottawa government, a substantial amount would be given

UNION SECRETARY MUST PAY MEN TIME LOST

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Paris, Sept. 10.—In one of the most remarkable decisions ever handed down in a French court, the secretary of the Electrical Workers' Union has been sentenced to pay damage to two members of the union because they were thrown out of work on the night of August 6, when Paris was dark. The court held that there had been an abuse of the right to strike. The strike had been called as the result of a sort of military alarm, he said, and must be recognized as malicious intention, since it overthrew the city's economic life and deprived those who wanted to work of the right to work. There is no appeal from the decision of the court.

BADLY BEATEN BY THUGS

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 10.—Thomas K. Sullivan, a laborer, is in a critical condition here today, as the result of an encounter with two thugs near Fifth and Harrison streets last night. Sullivan offered no resistance, when held up by the highwaymen, but one of them struck him, because he had but 45 cents and defended himself. In the melee he was badly cut about the back, arms and abdomen, 11 wounds being inflicted.

CATHOLICS MAY ABANDON PARADE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, Sept. 10.—Fearing a demonstration by the anti-Catholics, the cardinals attending the Eucharistic congress here today are considering the abandonment of the parade, which was to have been a feature of the ceremonies on Sunday—the last day of the meeting. So far the radical Protestants have failed to carry out any of their threats of creating disorder, and the matter of giving up the Sunday parade has not been decided yet. The cardinals and other dignitaries of the church of Rome are being made most welcome by the officials and members of the nobility. The opening of the congress yesterday was successful, and it is hoped that the threats of disturbance will not be carried out. Utmost precautions have been taken by the police to prevent any anti-clerical demonstration.

CARTER SPECULATED WITH OTHER'S MONEY

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 10.—Latimer D. Carter, under arrest here on a charge of embezzling funds from the estate of George L. Douglas, of which he was trustee, in Louisville, Ky., declared that the sum he appropriated was $5000, instead of $50,000, as at first reported. Carter attributes his downfall to wheat. He says he speculated in that cereal, and that when he was caught short on the market his money was wiped out.
