MEMBER OF CROCKER FAMILY IN PRISON

(United Press Leased Wire.) Denver, Colo., Sept. 10.—Once the pride of an aristocratic family, now a social outcast, Cora B. Crocker-Martini, claiming to be of the California family of Crockers, is held in custody here today pending the investigation of a forgery charge against her husband, M. O. Martini. Although a social outcast, Mrs. Martini's soft voice and cultured expression give mute evidence of a better life in the past. Her sister married a local king of finance, who was later found dead in the Denver club. For Mrs. Martini, however, there is none of the luxury which falls to the lot of kinfolk.

At the age of 16 the girl was an inmate of a convent at San Jose. She met and ran away with a wealthy Englishman. He did not marry her, as he was already bound to a woman of high social standing. In Paris a child was born to the luckless girl. At its birth she ceased, in the eyes of the world, to be a member of the family whose name she bore.

C. D. Watson, a friend of the baby girl's father, was named as guardian for the child. Later the young woman went into the courts to secure her child. Spending $60,000 in the fight she failed, and later kidnaped the child.

Martini married her three years ago. He was kind to her until drink spoiled his affection. Now he is in the clutches of the law, a felony charge against him.

Mrs. William H. Crocker, of San Francisco, denies all knowledge of the woman.

corps department will make a thorough investigation of the uses of the auto in warfare.

A school of cookery and baking is to be established also. The first of the regulars are to arrive in camp September 23, and the entire force will be in camp by September 29. On October 5 the militia will join them, and over 5000 troops will then be ready for the joint maneuvers.

The governors of California and Arizona are expected to visit the camp about October 12, when the soldiers will join in a sham battle.

FIRE LIFE LINE

PROJECTILE INTO PORTLAND

(United Press Leased Wire.) Portland, Or., Sept. 10.—Louis Blackman, first mate on the steamship Roanoke, who is under arrest on the odd charge of shooting a life line ashore while the vessel was moored in the river and scaring the wits out of a dozen shopmen a mile away, will try to convince the municipal authorities that the machine used in the operation should not be classed as firearms. He is accused of violating the law governing their use in the city limits. The 16-pound projectile struck in the yards of the O. R. & N. railroad, narrowly missing three men, and causing considerable damage to the roof of the pumping station, 100 yards beyond where they were standing.

A deviation of a couple of feet in its course might have killed one or more of the workmen. A large hole was torn in the roof of the pumping station.

MERRY-MAKERS HAVE FUN WITH BARON

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Rafael, Cal., Sept. 10.—Baron John H. Von Schroeder is today deeply resentful against "King Bum," of the carnival in session here, for the rough treatment he received last night. The baron appeared at the carnival without a mask, and, when ordered arrested for this heinous offense, he resisted. It was not until he had wielded his thin cane for 30 minutes that he was overpowered by a detachment of "Red Devils," and taken into custody.

Baron Von Schroeder declared today that the affair is not ended, and that he will make things interesting for his tormentors. His offense in failing to mask and swear allegiance is a grave one, punishable by a fine of 15 cents and imprisonment.

This woman says that sick women should not fail to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she did.

Mrs. A. Gregory, of 2355 Lawrence St., Denver, Col., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was practically an invalid for six years, on account of female troubles. I underwent an operation by the doctor's advice, but in a few months I was worse than before. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it restored me to perfect health, such as I have not enjoyed in many years. Any woman suffering as I did with backache, bearing-down pains, and periodic pains, should not fail to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

DEBS TO SPEAK IN GREEK THEATER

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Berkeley, Cal., Sept. 10.—It is announced today that Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for President, will speak in the Hearst Greek theater Saturday, instead of the Alliston-Kay skating rink. Permission to use the theater has been granted by President Wheeler, of the University of California, on condition that no collection be taken. As the seating capacity of the skating rink is limited, the offer will be accepted. Debs will arrive tomorrow night.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB ORDERED TO DISBAND

President Smith, of the Roosevelt Republican Club, called a meeting of the club for Thursday evening at the ball, and also had a notice published that the Young Men's Republican Club would meet at the same place, and be merged into one organization, to be called the Salem Club.

dozen Taft clubs in the city." His remarks were enthusiastically received by the young men present.

The W. C. Smith proposition was informally discussed, but was not acted upon. Following delegates were named by President Stringer as delegates to the Portland conference September 15: L. C. Stringer, Carl Abrams, W. C. Smith, A. J. Gille, L. T. Reynolds, H. D. Patton and E. I. Gillingham. It is understood at the Roosevelt Republican Club meeting this evening there will be resolutions adopted merging the two clubs, and there will be no more Young Men's Club meetings this year.

The report of the meeting is headed by the Oregonian this morning: "Shut Out Bourne. Forestall Young in His Work as Taft Club Organizer." Final action will be taken tonight, when the Young Men's Club will be ordered to be disbanded, and not to hold any more meetings this year.

IGNORANCE

published rate, but declares that the supreme court has ruled that the shipper must adhere to the rate published. The answer denies that the case should be reopened to establish the number of alleged offenses.

Answer.
The answer in part follows:
"We may fairly insist that counsel, in their criticism of the court's opinion, be held scrupulous as to the accuracy of their treatment of both the court's ruling and of the record."

"We may require that such criticisms be confined to the substantial ground for the rehearing. We will take up the grounds urged in support of this application in the order in which counsel have presented them. It is urged that the court should give consideration again to the purposes, which congress had in mind in the passage of the act making it criminal for shippers to accept concessions from lawfully published transportation rates, all this having been elaborately presented to this court in a former argument.

"There is nothing of inequality of rates as between different shippers or of favoritism to this defendant averred or proved, in this record—but it is not for the securing of equality of rates as to all that counsel has asked the court to reconsider the purpose of the act.

"They say in that portion of the opinion dealing with the necessity of some showing being made by the government of knowledge on the part of the accused shippers of the lawful rate, in order to justify his conviction, that the court has failed to give due weight to the purpose which congress had in mind in the passage of the law.
"Counsel for the government are mistaken in their contention that the trial court's ruling was that the shipper will not be permitted to avail himself of the defense of ignorance, where ignorance is the result of negligence or willful failure to resort to sources of information which are available."

"The trial court could not secure this rule, and, at the same time, exclude the testimony of Holland, the Alton rate clerk, that he was of the opinion that six cents per hundred pounds was the oil rate. The real point is:

"Did the trial court, in imposing punishment, take into consideration the relation between the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and did it base its fine upon the wealth of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey?"

Wealth Affected Fine.

"That the enormous fine was inflicted on the defendant because of the ownership of its stock by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and because of the financial standing of the latter corporation is beyond dispute, when the entire opinion of the court is read.

"The action of the trial court, in fixing a fine which this court holds to be an abuse of discretion, is defended by counsel. Counsel can find no authority to support that which the court did, and which this court condemns as the fixing of such an unheard of fine.

"This court, having decided the case pending before it, and reversed the decision of the lower court, and remanded the case for new trial, so having made up its mind to determine the question involved, it is submitted that the suggestion of certification in the petition for rehearing, as grounds thereof, is not a proper one to be either made or entertained."

GOVERNOR'S SON TO WED SETTLEMENT WORKER

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Newark, N. J., Sept. 10.—The friends of Franklin Murphy, Jr., son of the former governor of New Jersey, and the millionaire vice-president of the Murphy Varnish Company, were staggered today when he announced his engagement to Miss Harriet Alexander Long, of Chicago. Miss Long was formerly a worker in social settlement work in the Hull House, in Chicago, and it was there that she met Murphy. His family knows nothing of his intended bride, and it is reported that he has defied them to prevent his marriage to the girl of his choice.

Murphy went to Chicago after he graduated from Princeton and became a common employe in his father's varnish works there. He became interested in social settlement work and met Miss Long.

M. D. WISDOM, Vice-President.

McMinnville, Oregon, April 2, 1908.
Oregon Sienna Mineral Paint Co. Salem, Oregon.
Gentlemen:
In reply to your of recent date, will say that the Sienna paint that the state bought from you in the year 1908 (18 barrels) and about the same amount in 1907, to paint the Oregon State Insane Asylum buildings, has given entire satisfaction. Before we put this paint on our brick walls sweat so badly we thought we would try cement on them to keep the moisture out, but our architect from Portland thought best to try some of your Sienna Mineral Paint. Since we put your paint on, it shut out all of the moisture and we have perfectly dry walls now. It is my opinion that there is nothing better than your paint for brick walls, and I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.
Yours very truly,
J. F. CALBREATH.
