

COL. STEWART ORDERED TO GO BACK INTO EXILE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Hachuca, Ariz., Sept. 14.—Ordered today back into exile at Fort Grant, William F. Stewart, the Dreyfus of the American army, will not be allowed to make the 90-mile test ride, recently prescribed for him by the war department. No reason has been assigned for the change in plans.
An order, mailed from General Thomas' headquarters at Denver, September 12, was received today, commanding the colonel to immediately report for duty at Fort Grant, the lonely post to which he was exiled a year ago, when he first fell under the ban of the department disapproval.

When seen today Colonel Stewart said he would take the train from here Wednesday morning and go to Wilcox, Ariz., where he will be met by his companions in exile, a colored cook and William Nell an ex-soldier. Officers here believe the colonel was ordered back to Fort Grant without taking the government test because of the report of the army surgeon that he was suffering from heart trouble, and that the sight was gone from one of his eyes. They believe his retirement will be ordered soon.
Colonel Stewart will resist retirement before he reaches the age limit. He declares that he can prove himself fit for service if given a court-martial, and that he will never surrender until he is given a hearing. He has applied for court-martial three times, and his wife has made an appeal to the department, but to no purpose. The colonel is anxious that the court-martial be ordered soon as the men he wishes to call as witnesses in his behalf are growing old, and death may interfere with his plans.

Acting under the advice of friends, Colonel Stewart today declared that he would not accept a furlough of four months, to which he is entitled. He said he would serve continuously until he reached the age limit, unless forced by illness in his family to ask for a leave of absence.

RUSSIAN MURDERERS SOCIETY HAD GOOD STANDING IN COURT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
St. Petersburg, Sept. 14.—So shocked is the Russian public over the exposure of the revolting crimes of the "Black Hundreds," organized to punish Jews and political offenders, that there is not a man of prominence who can be found who will admit of any connection with the organization.
As the society, until recently, confined its outrages to assassinating political liberals and massacring Jews, it had considerable standing in the country, even in court circles.

Aristocrats, and even priests, were affiliated with the order, giving it a semblance of respectability.
When it became known that several local branches of the organization had been committing robbery, and even murder, for their own benefit, the police interfered. Several of the leaders have been convicted and sentenced to Siberia. "Black Hundred" banners were ordered removed from the churches, and the society denounced from the pulpit. Since that time defections from the order have become epidemic.

CITY OPPOSES INJUNCTION SUIT

Mayor Rodgers this afternoon, through City Attorney Keys, filed a motion in the circuit court asking that the city be made an intervenor and a defendant in the injunction suit brought by the Salem Flouring Mills against the Oregon Electric Company. The motion is supported by an affidavit in which are stated eight reasons why the city is vitally interested in the case, and why the North Mill ditch should be declared a public nuisance and be put out of commission. The principal reasons, as stated, are that the company has not nor never had a right to maintain the ditch, that it occupies the public thoroughfares, and that it is an obstruction to the proposed improvement on High street.

ALCOHOL IN SICKNESS

At one of the London public hospitals a special point is made of giving alcohol to the patients as rarely and sparingly as possible, and each time that one of the physicians does so he submits a special entry of the reasons for so doing. In the thirty-two years of the existence of the hospital alcohol has only been given seventy-one times. The cases received are exactly like those resolved by all the other hospitals. For 1901 they numbered 1237 in-patients only. The death-rate among these was 7.3 per cent. For the same year the average death-rate among the other London public hospitals was 9.1 per cent. Therefore the use of alcohol in sickness is not to be regarded as a necessity. Although most physicians prescribe alcohol in solution with drugs for their patients—there was one physician of national reputation who did not believe in using alcohol. Many years ago when Dr. R. V. Pierce decided to put up his valuable "Prescription" for the diseases of women in a "ready to use" form—he used as a solvent and preservative chemically pure glycerine of proper strength, which is a better solvent and preservative of the above medicinal principles residing in most of our indigenous or native plants than is alcohol. Dr. Pierce found that the glycerine, besides being entirely harmless, possesses intrinsic medicinal properties, of great value.
No woman who is suffering from inflammation, from the pains and drains incident to womanhood was allowed to be without Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. An honest medicine which has the largest number of cures to its credit and a deserved popularity for two score years all over the United States. Dr. Pierce tells you just what is contained in his "Favorite Prescription."

BRYAN ANSWERS ROOSEVELT'S ATTACK

(By John E. Nevin, Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Baltimore, Md., Sept. 14.—William J. Bryan today answered the letter written by President Roosevelt, supporting Taft for the presidency, which was made public yesterday. Explaining that he had no time to read the letter carefully, Bryan said:
"It was to be expected that President Roosevelt would come to the support of Judge Taft. He could hardly do less, in view of the fact that he selected him as the administration candidate, and supported him with all the influence that the administration could bring to bear.
"The testimony of President Roosevelt might be objected to as irrelevant and incompetent.
"If Taft were dead, it would be interesting to know from Roosevelt what he knew of Taft's opinions, but as Taft is alive and able to speak for himself, it is hardly necessary for Roosevelt to tell us what Taft believes, or what he will do."
Bryan said that Taft is running on a platform which he was compelled to amend in several particulars, and declared that Taft's speeches throw little light on his political views. He then referred to what he calls the incompatible attitude of Taft and labor matters, saying:
"Taft does not agree with the laboring men in regard to the use of injunctions in labor disputes. No words of praise from the President can change Taft's attitude along this line, and make his candidacy more satisfactory to those who toil."

Bryan declared also that Taft's position on the tariff, the trusts and other questions are not changed by the praise given him by the President. He served notice that Taft must make his own position known. Concluding, he said:
"The President's statement is of no value, unless he agrees to remain in Washington, and see that Taft makes good. We ought to have a more definite statement in regard to what the public may expect from Taft. No such information appears in the Republican platform. Up to the present time no definite conclusions can be drawn from Taft's speeches. It does not answer this question for the President to say that he feels that Taft will do what is just, for there is a wide difference of opinion as to what is right.
"A few plain, simple sentences from Taft would be worth very much more than this eulogy that the President pronounces."
Bryan was met by the local reception committee when he arrived here, and was escorted to his hotel, where he rested until noon, when he left for Annapolis to speak this afternoon. He will speak here tonight.
Captain Hains has temporarily given way to Dr. Rustin. It is a cold day when some woman isn't cut up by her husband and shipped, somewhere in a trunk—generally because he is a cut-up himself.
They Take the Kinks Out.
"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsford, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at J. C. Perry's drug store, 25c.

PERSONAL MENTION

And Movements of Salem People.

Jay McCormick, of Eugene, is in the city, visiting friends and taking in the fair.

Carl Hopf, of Corvallis, was visiting friends here yesterday.

Miss Julia Patterson arrived this morning from Portland to visit the big fair.

J. L. Ferry and daughter, Miss Harriet Ferry, of Marshfield are attending the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leland, of Dallas, came over this morning to visit the fair the first day.

John and Michael Walsh, of Spokane, Wash., are visiting at the home of Father Moore, of this city.

Edwin Robertson and brother, Harry, of Clear Lake, Ore., are in the city, attending the state fair.

Henry Woods left this morning for Ashland, to be at the bedside of his brother, Edward, who is seriously ill at that place.

Fred Ward, of Los Angeles, who is interested in the state fair, is visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. A. W. Dennis, 351, South Twenty-first street.

A Sure-enough Knocker.
J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Aromatic Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A had one come on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Judge Parker will not run for governor of New York. That is good judgment.

ITS INGREDIENTS ARE:
Golden Seal root (Hydrastis Canadensis), Lady's Slipper root (Cypripedium Pubescens), Black Cohosh root (Actaea Racemosa), Unicorn root (Helleborus Dioica), Blue Cohosh root (Caulophyllum Thalictrifolium), Chemically Pure Glycerine.

Among the prominent medical men of the country who recommend the above ingredients as superior remedies for nervous conditions depending upon disorders of the womanly system and for the cure of those catarrhal conditions in the affected parts are: Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Professor of Materia Medica, at Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of the American Dispensatory; Woman and her Diseases; Professor John M. Scudder, Doctors Hale, Ives, Wood, Barnhart and others. Address a postal card to Dr. Pierce for a complete treatise on the subject—sent to you without cost.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, constiveness, or constipation of the bowels, loss of appetite, coated tongue, sour stomach, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Persons who are subject to any of these troubles should never be without a vial of the "Pleasant Pellets" at hand. In proof of their superior excellence it can truthfully be said that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial.

One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day. To relieve the distress arising from over-eating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets." They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.
How to live in health and happiness is the general theme of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great work on medicine and hygiene, containing over 1000 pages and more than 700 illustrations, is sent free on request of stamps to express of mailing cost. Send 5¢ postage stamp for the plain-illustrated volume, or 10¢ for the colored-illustrated book in paper covers.

"HARD TIMES" or "GOOD TIMES"

FOR IT HAS COME TO BE A PERSONAL PROBLEM WITH EACH BUSINESS MAN

The "hard times" are over, generally speaking. They are not over for those people who are content to have them continue.

With the advent of Fall activities in business will come to each merchant, to each man who is conducting a business, the opportunity to say a long good-bye to "hard times," or to cling to them a little longer.

It is to be, largely, a test of courage—the making of this choice. A test of adversity on courage—mainly.

The stronger business men will choose good times as a matter of course—and will proceed to make the choice effective by a campaign of real advertising. There will be better, bigger, more effective advertising done this Fall than ever before.

The afraid-merchant will wonder "where the money is coming from to pay the bills." He will, in some cases, decide that he must not "take the risk." That will be HIS DECISION FOR "HARD TIMES" in preference to "good times," so far as he personally is concerned.

PROSPERITY IS NOW A PERSONAL QUESTION. YOURS IS A PERSONAL QUESTION WITH YOU. THIS IS BOTH TRUE AND IMPORTANT.
