

FROM A CIVIL WAR VETERAN

How He Was Cured of Rheumatism After Fifteen Years of Suffering.

Mr. John D. Laughlin, whose address is R. F. D. No. 1 Burns City, Oregon Co., Ind., is known and highly respected throughout that county and has lived on his present farm for 27 years. During the Civil war Mr. Laughlin served in Company B, 27th Indiana Volunteers and his sickness was the direct result of the hardships of the war. After years of suffering he found a cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and his statement should be read by every rheumatic sufferer. "I was discharged from the army in September, 1864, a physical weight only 97 pounds," he says, "and soon after became seriously afflicted with rheumatism. My feet and ankles were swollen and my arms were drawn up stiff and I could not lift them for they were lifeless. There were darting pains that shifted from one part of my body to another and kept me in agony all the time. At night I could not sleep and my heart failed me. I was frequently confined to my bed. "I tried several doctors but got no help and no encouragement from them for they said I could not live for more than a year even with the best of care and I decided not to try and work. I tried many remedies but with no benefit until I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had been sick for about 15 years before I read of these pills and bought two boxes for a trial. These helped me so I kept on taking them until I was well. I always keep them on hand and occasionally if I feel I need them. I gained in weight and was able to do as much work as most of my neighbors. I often recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I can't speak well of them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic for the blood and nerves and have proved especially helpful to women and growing girls. They are used extensively in private medical practice and, proving effective in a wide range of diseases, are absolutely safe in all cases, were used upon general sale with directions for use prepared by the doctor himself. These pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

SMILES ON THE BIG FAIR

The Oregon Reform school boys were at the fair Wednesday, and made a fine appearance in their gray uniforms. Their appearance as cadets was very soldierly and reflected great credit on their disciplinarian and drill master, Capt. Stahl.

That was a very clever act of M. O. Lownsdale, the Lafayette apple grower, giving the Sisters of Sacred Heart Academy a winter's supply of apples. The Journal reporter who said the apples went to the fathers of that institution should be punished by going without apples for a week. The mother Superior and Sisters under her will certainly vote Yamhill the banner apple country.

The threshing machine sirens should furnish a hospital for the wounded caused by runaways when they join in the rooster chorus.

J. W. Gamble, the Salem policeman is 6 foot 6 inches, T. T. Geer is 6 feet 4 inches in his shoes; S. A. Riggs is 6 feet 4 inches with shoes on; E. E. McKinney is the same height. Sheriff Minto is about the next highest man of any political prominence. E. J. Moore, of the Institute for the Blind is 6 feet 3 3/4 inches; Trenton Hibbard of Silverton is 6 feet 6 inches. All these men were at the State Fair.

The Sodality Society of Mt. Angel Academy came over to the State Fair in a special car. The numbered 50 young ladies and girls under the care of Rev. Placidus, who escorted them to all the sights, including the horse and cattle shows, and the girls even saw some of the racing. They had a picnic dinner on the grounds and went back in the evening and had a very fine time. They were a bright and happy lot of young people.

The Ladies of the Macabees, who claim to be the largest woman order on earth, have a rest tent, under the direction of Deputy Supreme Commander Alice Porges at the Fair. With other ladies, she makes it pleasant for all members of that order from different parts of the state who called—and for the reporters and gentlemen as well. If the order is as pleasant to belong to as its official representatives are, no wonder it is popular.

Blowing the sirens of the traction engines has become an intolerable nuisance. The rival threshing outfits try to see which can make the most infernal noise, scaring horses, frightening babies and scaring women. Several runaways and almost fatal accidents have been occasioned by these nuisances.

During the State Fair Geo. Eoff lost a yellow collie with some white on him and one eye. Answers to the name of Rowdy. Mr. Eoff resides on route six, Salem, and thinks the world of Rowdy. It is a hard place to take a dog, although his was lost before he got there. Anyone helping find Rowdy will do a great kindness to the dog and his master, as they are greatly attached to each other.

More people went about the grounds reading the Coos Bay edition of The Capital Journal than all other papers put together. Coos Bay was dinged in to the ears of the tens of thousands by the best newsboys that could be hired, morning, noon and night.

From all parts of the grounds came the cry, the fair has outgrown the people. There must be larger accommodations next year. There should be a fine boulevard built to the grounds out on Capital street, that would be used for autos exclusively. Then they could make time and not risk hurting anyone. There will have to be a larger grand stand and a double-track street railroad.

All premiums will be paid off Saturday at 1 o'clock.

Ex-Constable John Lewis had his pocket picked of $16 yesterday on a Fair Grounds street car.

Capt. Walter Lyon, the Coos Bay promoter, is putting in good licks for his section at the fair.

The Fair Grounds road was in the best shape it was ever in this year—thanks to the persistent efforts of Alderman Stockton and the street committee.

Hon. B. F. Jones, the brilliant Statement No. 1 leader and Polk county criminal lawyer, is attending the fair with one of his sons.

The O. A. C. exhibit was larger than ever before. E. R. Lake, with about ten assistants, interested thousands of people in the work of the school. There were daily talks and demonstrations in the different lines of college work, including stock judging, manual training, metal working, and fruit growing.

From grand stand to toilet facilities, the crowds have outgrown the fair. The legislature will have to get a move on to keep up with the growth of the state.

The fair was too big. It made peo- tured to see it all. Oh, Gee, we've got to have something to kick at.

J. S. Dellinger, editor of the Astorian and president of the State Press association, was at the state fair and saw many of the newspaper men of the state. He says the newspapers of Washington downed the machine up there, and nominated the new men for governor and senator. He says they were tired of the old machine and thinks the Oregon newspaper men should do the same thing. He says the old machine has no use for the newspaper men of this state and should be cleaned up. He says the papers of the state are apathetic about supporting Taft. They have nothing against Taft but the Republican leaders are fighting over personal matters to control the spoils and get away with the campaign funds and the newspapers will get nothing out of it. He says when the party has honors to pass out they go to some second-class politician the papers have to bolster up for his ignorance and shortcomings, and the sooner the press rebels against the way it has been treated the sooner it will command respect. The state convention at Portland put up a Taft delegation, he says, composed of old political sores in whom the people have no confidence and yet if he is elected they will get all the patronage. He is not enthusiastic himself for the program and says many of the state party papers are sawing wood.

Jonathan Bourne, Jr., is expected to be at the State Fair today. He is not a man who has cultivated the people very much by personal contact, and was elected senator without ever leaving Portland.

Students of the Institute for the Blind gave daily exhibits of their skill in music, in basket weaving, chair-caning, typewriting and sight reading. They also had several cases of individual exhibits. Their work attracted a crowd continually and the greatest interest was manifested. Supt. Moores was in charge, assisted by one of the teachers, Miss Harding.

The big three-car trailer of the Portland General Electric Co. does the business—500 people at a bout, assisted by one of the teachers, (Miss Sprinkling Winter street was discontinued by order of the street

COMMON SENSE AND A TABLET

Do Away With Dyspepsia, Stomach Trouble and Make Meals A Pleasure.

When your stomach goes on a strike and mass meetings of indignation are held all over your body, then it is that you should sit up and take notice.

It is clearly and only a question of common sense—is this thing called Dyspepsia. Take away, by abuse, over eating, excesses and high living, the things which the stomach needs and you have dyspepsia and indigestion; then other maladies follow these—this is common sense.

The stomach is willing enough but you won't let it do its work. You take away the materials which are so necessary for it to use.

Give back these materials and dyspepsia and indigestion fee and the whole machinery of man begins slowly to move and do its work.

What the stomach needs is nerve force, fluids for its digestive glands, nourishment and power. All these necessities it takes from the blood. If dyspepsia gives nothing to the blood, the blood gives nothing to the stomach.

This is common sense also, pure, simple and unalloyed.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are common sense pressed by high power into tablets. In these tablets are powerful essences which go into the stomach, digest food, stop gas making, prevent decaying of food, enrich the gastric juices, are absorbed by the blood and thus give it strength to furnish a better fluid for digesting the next meal. Every physician knows what comprises these tablets; every druggist has the same knowledge also. They are natural common sense digesters which do the work for the stomach quickly and well. Every drug store carries them, 50c per package. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich. committee, the water-wagon man says.

Ben Worsley, one of the county central committeemen of Clatsop county was at the State Fair. He says Fulton will be elected senator; the way they started in to do it was to put in a Republican legislature but gave the popular vote to Chamberlain. He says he saw to it personally that as many as possible of the loggers and sawmill men in his county voted for Chamberlain as possible, and carried that county by a big majority for the Democratic candidate. It was done with no intention of electing Chamberlain to the U. S. senate, but for the sole purpose of defeating the Republican nominee, Mr. Cake, and ensuring the election of Fulton. Worsley is a keen politician and the plan outlined by him may work if the Statement No. 1 men can be got to dodge their pledges, which Worsley thinks some of them will do in order to get a chance to send Fulton back.

Mrs. R. C. Ramsay of Silverton, wife of a former sheriff of this county who now resides in Portland, celebrated her eightieth birthday on the fair grounds yesterday. She walked about ten miles seeing the stock exhibits and clean tired out her granddaughter, a stalwart young woman who had to be taken into the Spa and refreshed with soft drinks and an electric fan, while her grandmother visited with old friends and was ready to go and see the races. Those old folks that crossed the plains were the right stuff.
