

THAW IS AFTER ONE MORE TRIAL ASKS FOR JURY TO TEST SANITY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Counsel for Harry K. Thaw started his complicated case on a new tangent today by filing briefs before Judge Mills in the supreme court, asking that a jury trial be given Thaw on the question of his sanity. District Attorney Jerome is opposing in every way possible the effort to reopen the case, holding that Thaw's mental condition has been investigated thoroughly on two different occasions, and that there is no excuse for putting the state to the expense of giving the matter another trial, as well as no legal grounds for such action. The motion on which Thaw was brought here was made in an endeavor to have him transferred from the asylum for the criminal insane at Mattewan, where, in the eyes of the law, he is now confined, though, as a matter of fact, he has not been in Mattewan since early last spring. Since he was taken to Poughkeepsie for hearing a habeas corpus action, his lawyers succeeded in having him held in the Poughkeepsie jail, until he was transferred here two weeks ago. With these complications, in addition to his recent bankruptcy proceedings and varied phases of his matrimonial tangle, Thaw has a hard time keeping a line on his affairs.

COMMON SENSE AND A TABLET

Do Away With Dyspepsia, Stomach Trouble and Make Meals A Pleasure.

When your stomach goes on a strike and mass meetings of indignation are held all over your body, then it is that you should sit up and take notice.

It is clearly and only a question of common sense—is this thing called Dyspepsia. Take away, by abuse, over eating, excesses and high living, the things which the stomach needs and you have dyspepsia and indigestion; then other maladies follow there—this is common sense.

The stomach is willing enough but you won't let it do its work. You take away the materials which are so necessary for it to use.

Give back these materials and dyspepsia and indigestion flee and the whole machinery of man begins slowly to move and do its work.

What the stomach needs is nerve force, fluids for its digestive glands, nourishment and power. All these necessities it takes from the blood. If dyspepsia gives nothing to the blood, the blood gives nothing to the stomach.

This is common sense also, pure, simple and unalloyed.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are common sense pressed by high power into tablets. In these tablets are powerful essences which go into the stomach, digest food, stop gas making, prevent decaying of food, enrich the gastric juices, are absorbed by the blood and thus give it strength to furnish a better fluid for digesting the next meal. Every physician knows what comprises these tablets; every druggist has the same knowledge also. They are natural common sense digesters which do the work for the stomach quickly and well. Every drug store carries them, 50c per package. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

CONTROLLER CALLS BANK EXAMINERS TOGETHER
Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—To establish a uniform method for their guidance, bank examiners throughout the East are assembled here today, at the call of Lawrence O. Murray, controller of currency. It is understood that the closing of a solvent Pittsburg bank, a short time ago, by an alleged intoxicated examiner, was responsible for this meeting. Under the existing conditions, the examiners work independently to a large degree, and before the meeting closes a well defined system will be adopted.

TURKEY TO FIGHT RUSSIA PLAN FREEDOM OF PERSIA

Constantinople, Sept. 21.—Young Turkey is preparing to fight the Czar. Reassured by their victory over the Sultan and the troubles in Persia and Russia, the Young Turks have been quietly preparing for some months to liberate Persia, and give that country a government similar to their own. To do this they realize they must fight Russia, and they are today preparing to strike.

The grand vizier was himself quoted, indirectly, but authoritatively, as having assured his ministers that he believes a clash is inevitable.

The struggle will center over Persia. The Young Turks plan to overthrow the Shah, and establish a sort of protectorate over Persia at Teheran, until the Persian people are strong enough to govern themselves. It is agreed that, to do this, Russia must be driven out of the country.

Whether or not the Shah's life will be spared is a matter that has not yet been decided. The Young Turks think that it will be an easy matter to crush the Shah, but they are preparing for a hard fight with Russia.

It was stated here today by one of the leaders of the Young Turk party that within six months the Turkish troops would be in possession of Tabriz, which has declared its independence and offered its allegiance to Turkey. The leader stated that the Turks would at the same time be in possession of the Russian road from Tabriz to Julfa on the Muscovite frontier.

It is considered here that the Turkish occupation of the disputed territory, within what the Shah claims as his boundary at Urumia, was a direct challenge to the Czar, and would have been followed by an immediate introduction of Russian troops in the Caucasus had it happened before the Russian-Japanese war.

There was a show of force by Russia, but it was answered by Turkey by such an increase of her troops on the very shores of Lake Urumia as to completely overshadow the additions to the Muscovite force.

The Young Turkish leaders do not expect any opposition from Nicholas until it becomes clear that they are to sweep the country, but it is not thought possible that the Czar will surrender his absolute rule at Teheran for years without a show of force.

TEN THOUSAND BACK UP HANLY
Indianapolis, Sept. 21.—More than 2000 Methodist ministers, having come directly from the adjourned conference at Shelbyville, assembled in the state house grounds and in the capitol today, and augmented by at least 8000 laymen, joined in the most remarkable demonstration ever seen in this state.

The ministers demanded the passage of the local option bills which Governor Hanly is advocating, and which were the chief basis for assembling the legislature in extraordinary session.

The governor had promised the legislature that a crowd would be on hand to back up his demands, but he stood at the window of his office today and looked on with amazement, as he did not dream of such a demonstration as was made.

After holding their remarkable prayer meeting in the grounds and hallways of the state house, the preachers thronged the galleries of the senate and assembly and jeered at lawyers, alleged to be representing the brewing interests, whom they recognized on the floor.

Members of the legislature were even more amazed than the governor at the demonstration. The preachers announced that they will stay here as long as they deem it is necessary to influence the legislature to pass the temperance bills.

It was said at headquarters that Haskell desires nothing better than an opportunity to meet Hearst face to face, and "make him admit that his statements are false."

Hearst is on his way back to New York to attend the state convention of the Independence party, after which he expects to return at once to the West.

If Hearst and Haskell meet, according to the plans now arranged, the encounter will be one of the most interesting features of the presidential campaign.
