

THE PREVAILING MODE
 is hardwood finish for interiors. For a private residence nothing can equal it, in being at the same time artistic, beautiful and durable. However, those who cannot afford hardwood trim need not have the plain, old-fashioned styles. I make a specialty of the latest designs in interior woodwork in both hard and soft woods and my prices are very low.

SMILES.

Shellac is only useful when mixed with alcohol. This does not apply to a Salem minister of nearly that name.

The Monmouth Herald by W. T. Fogle is the latest aspirant for success in the journalistic field. It is published by an experienced newspaper man, W. T. Fogle, and in many ways he is what his name in German—a bird.

W. J. Cuddy, of the Weekly Oregonian, called on the Smiles man, and left a card "with regards to the Stormy Petrel of Oregon politics." We cannot imagine to whom he refers.

The people were more interested in the races than the politicians at the state fair.

The Hood River Applegrowers' association has just closed a contract for 80,000 boxes of the growing crop, and now have under discussion the sale of 150,000 additional boxes. This will be good news to all the fruit-growing sections of the northwest. As usual, all the best apples around Salem will be bought up and shipped as Hood River apples.

Interest in the Newly-Weds wanes until the first baby arrives, unless she is a very charming woman.

It's a shame to retire such a noble standpat anti-reform Republican as Foraker of Ohio.

Light the streets at night. Open up more business places. Our city is too dark. Light up more houses. Give working people a chance to move about while the weather is fine.

Fall fashions allowing big men to wear bold broad stripes—almost as they wear at one of our state institutions.

Fall styles are to permit men to dress more gay than ever.

Think of staid old Republican Maine adopting our Oregon initiative and referendum.

Eugene is working for 15,000 people by 1910. Of course, Salem will get the same census this city was given in 1900 when we were officially advertised as having 5473 people.

As political problems deepen, the machine puts men of smaller calibre to the front.

The fair was a great big success. Hats off to President Matlock and his associates.

High school athletes are beginning to train all over Oregon.

The general situation in the east is loosening up. The price of cascara bark is advancing.

This state needs more development and less personal politics.

The newspaper men of Oregon know that the old machine has nothing but contempt for the average editor. Hodson, Beach, et al., are it.

To many bridges leading into the city are left in a tumble-down condition.

Make it hard to circulate newspapers but easy for Lawsons to operate—the P. O. D.

Registration books are open for the November election. If you did not register in the spring get your name on now.

Kodol will, without doubt, make your stomach strong and will almost instantly relieve you of all the symptoms of indigestion. Get a bottle of it to day. It is sold here by all druggists.

A person's friends are often afraid to do him a favor, fearing it will displease his enemy.

Hoppity Hop.
 Are you just barely getting around by the aid of crutches or a cane? What in the world is more trivial than the reason people have for disliking you?

A Burglar in Town
 His name is "bad cough." He doesn't care for gold or silver but he will steal your health away. If he appears in your house arrest him at once with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It may mean consumption if you don't. A cure for all coughs, colds and chest troubles. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all dealers.

RESOLUTION.

Be it resolved by the Common Council of the City of Salem, Oregon:

That the city recorder be and he is hereby directed to publish for ten days in a daily newspaper, published in the city of Salem, Oregon, the following notice:

Notice.

The common council of the city of Salem, Oregon, proposes to change the established grade on High street in said city, between the north line of Marion street and a point 350 feet north from the south boundary line of Division streets, in accordance with a report made from the survey of J. B. Perrott, now on file in the office of the city recorder.
