ROOSEVELT RETURNS TO WASHINGTON

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 22.—President Roosevelt today abandoned his "summer capital" and returned to Washington for the work of the winter, much to the regret of the townspeople.
The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were accompanied to the depot by a large crowd of people, and the President made a little speech to the people of Oyster Bay from the rear platform of the train. This is probably the last time that Roosevelt will ever reside at Oyster Bay as President of the United States.
With the President was W. Emlen Roosevelt, a cousin, Secretary Loeb and his staff. The party left in a special train of three cars at 10:30 for Jersey City.
At Jersey City they went aboard the President's yacht at 11:50 and left for Washington.

SOCIETY WOMAN IS QUARANTINED ON TRANSPORT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Sept. 22.—Word was received here from Manila today that Mrs. Inez Shorb-White-Buck, formerly San Francisco's society leader, is being held in quarantine on board the United States transport Sheridan at Manila, and may not be able to communicate with her friends for some time.
Mrs. Buck left Manila on the Sheridan September 15, but a case of cholera developed on the transport, and the vessel put back to port to go into quarantine.

SAYS STANDARD IS NOT IN POLITICS

New York, Sept. 22.—John D. Archbold, vice-president and active head of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, today gave out a statement in which he denied that the Standard Oil Company is participating in any way in the presidential campaign. He also refers bitterly to business men being "held up by alleged lawmakers."
Archbold, usually reticent and unwilling to talk on any subject for the press, was moved to give out the statement made public last night, in which the Standard was clearly referred to as endeavoring to defeat the policies of the Roosevelt administration.

BURGLAR FINISHES JOB HOLD MARSHAL AT BAY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 22.—The boldest burglar that ever operated in this part of the country is being sought today by a posse of citizens and the city marshal, who made it possible for the criminal to make a display of his nerve.
In broad daylight yesterday afternoon the officer caught the burglar in the act of rifling a store in Sumner. The latter drew a revolver and held the marshal in one spot until he had finished his job. When the burglar ran out one door the officer scooted through another and organized a posse.

Bryan at Ann Arbor

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 22.—William J. Bryan addressed a large crowd of students at Ann Arbor University at noon today, explaining his attitude on trusts, the labor question and the bank guarantee plan.
He arrived here early this morning and went immediately to Ann Arbor, where he was given a rousing reception.
Tonight he will speak here, and then leave for Columbus, Ohio.
When Mr. Bryan returned here from Ann Arbor, he was imperturbed to reply to the accusation of President Roosevelt that illegal combinations are supporting the Democratic ticket. He stated that he would give out a statement on that later. He also refused absolutely to discuss the Haskell matter.

NOT AS WELL-TO-DO AS OREGONIANS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Olympia, Sept. 22.—Not a citizen of Douglas, Ferry, Okanogan, Skamania or Wahklakum county owns an automobile, or, at least, admits it, according to the schedule of the state board of equalization on that class of personal property. The state assessors this year found 1384 motor cars as against 1727 in 1907.

An Old Time Breakfast

The diary of Manasse Cutler, the founder of Ohio and the author of the ordinance of 1787, gives an account of a visit he made to Mount Vernon two years after General Washington's death. We say "General" Washington, for that was what Mr. Cutler was pleased to call him—a cony for all those good women whose husbands have won them honor on the field of war.
Mr. Cutler says it was the desire of their party to arrive at Mount Vernon in time for breakfast (7 o'clock) with Mrs. Washington, but the bad roads and worse horses delayed them, so they did not reach there until about 10, which Mrs. Washington regretted, but she said, "Breakfast would be ready in a few minutes." The diary goes on to say: "In a short time she arose and desired us to walk into another room, where a table was elegantly spread with ham, cold corned beef, cold fowl, red herring and cold mutton, the dishes ornamented with sprigs of parsley and other vegetables from the garden. At the head of the table was the tea and coffee equipage, where she seated herself and sent the tea and coffee to the company."
The point of interest is that breakfast menu—five kinds of meat decorated with sprigs of parsley and accompanied with divers vegetables. Isn't there an appetizing array and doesn't the heart long for just such a repast? Of course the mere feeders, the fellows that hanker for hot things, may not think so, but the very mention of cold ham, cold chicken, cold mutton and cold corned beef all in the same appetizing array is a conscientious appetizer that is unresisting. And that was a breakfast of the long ago.
Most generous providers these well to do people in the early days! How good everything must have tasted! That roast chicken and roast mutton and that great tender chicken of it, that he would not dare say which was best, for each was best. Compare it with our latter day breakfasts—a roll and an egg and a sup of coffee! Of course we like our way, but that is possibly because these are degenerate days.—Ohio State Journal.

LIQUOR OF RENT

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—Alleging that another woman is holding her 4-year-old son because she is unable to pay a debt due for back rent, Mrs. Jennie Copeland is today preparing to make a legal fight to regain possession of her child. She accuses Mrs. Frank L. Dodge of refusing to give her baby up, and there is a suit to be a scene in court tomorrow, when both women have been told to appear in court with the boy.
Mrs. Copeland says she left her baby with Mrs. Dodge last June, because she was unable to care for the child, while she was at work, and that when she went to get the boy back the other woman refused, saying that Mrs. Copeland owed her money for back rent, and should give her the boy in payment.
The mother tried yesterday to get a warrant for the arrest of the woman, but it was refused, and the court decided to look into the peculiar case.
The women will both appear tomorrow, and the court will imitate King Solomon.

Five thousand Odd Fellows are in attendance at the convention in Denver.

PASTIMES OF MADMEN

Cunning and Ingenuity Displayed The Insane.
Some of the inventions of the sane are of scientific value. A patient at Villejuif invented a "caution machine" by combining a table, a plank and small metallic balls to which he had fitted faucets. Having set up his machine, he proceeded to leave of bread the size of a man's head. The bread was good—so good that it was decided to make the machine known. One day when he was in action the doctor suggested getting a photograph of it. The inventor watched him as if petrified for a moment; then he fell upon the machine, wrenched it apart and completed it underneath. The inventor, exceedingly useful one, was because no one had seen him do it, and no one dares speak of it to him. To allude to it is to bring a furious attack.
Most lunatics, no matter how tented they may be, generally cherish a futile longing to escape. To collect wax from the polluted fingers, take the impressions of locked spoon handles, or anything to be found, Dr. Marie's museum includes a collection of knives, brasses and unheated of shapes. Some of these have blades made from a piece of the or state and set in handles of steel. Objects harmless in themselves become dangerous weapons through the ingenuity of madmen.
Insane sculptors are all over the insane painters. The insane carvers on horse, course statues, taste ahimsa, ferocious little birds and spinning devils. An eccentric mechanic carves all his own toys. That his old trade is still in his memory is shown by the little screw that he makes out of the smaller pieces of bone. He works all day at his useless and ridiculous task. Another lunatic, who believes he is the incarnation of the soul of Beethoven, passes his time carving toy men of wood. Each pair of his creations are joined together, now at the neck now at the shoulders.—Helen Meyer in Harper's Weekly.

One View of the Kiss.

The oratory kiss is Mongolian. The nutritive kiss is European. The Mongolian kiss is with the nose. The European kiss is with the mouth. The Mongolian kiss indicates that the party sniffed would be an agreeable prey. The European variety indicates that the party embraced would make a delectable meal. They are but the different forms of the same instinct of preservation—the give and take of wild beasts—Exchange.

"Chic" Perkins, in the "Little Prosecutor," played to one of the best-sized audiences of the season thus far. The play, as can be deduced from the title of the actress and piece, is quite a little like a dime novel, except that it was enlivened with some real good humor and comedy. There was a man or so killed, a mill blown up and a few other such minor incidents—there you have the play. The heroine had her make during "leaves for life" across channels on a swinging rope, and the air acts as her own lawyer, clears herself of murder and reveals the "real culprit." Finit.

Interior of Home of Scott Ferguson, 67 South Winter street, was practically destroyed by fire this morning at 11 o'clock, which was caused by a defective stove. The fire department did good service, although they were notified somewhat late, as the blaze was not discovered until it had been going on for some time. The burner part of the furniture was taken from the building untouched by the fire, but several boxes of bric-a-brac were badly scorched. Ordered Out of Town—
R. L. Camp, a cook, was arrested yesterday for using obscene language in the Horse Shoe restaurant, on State street, and was given the shortest time possible to leave the city by Acting Police Judge Charles Elgin this morning. Camp's argument, which was cut very short, was that he hired to the proprietor of the restaurant to cook for $4 per day, and upon resigning the position, he was only allowed $2, which was the result of his anger getting the best of his finer vocabulary powers.

Drunken Boys Arrested—
Two youngsters, who were desirous of going out for a time last evening, and who were unable to procure more liquor than they already had, showed from the saloonman, solicited the help of another friend, who was forthcoming in years to accompany them in their search for spirits, thinking he would be instrumental in inducing backbones to accede to their wishes. But the new recruit, finding things a little complicated, as the saloonman refused to sell them any liquor, attempted to get away from them, and upon entering A. G. Mackay's saloon on Commercial street, called the "Sammy Rooms," the boys doing a rock at him, resulting in a hole being smashed in the big plate glass window, and the arrest of the crazed youths. Their hearing will come up this afternoon.

One of his partners was $305 in money and a diamond ring, which was afterwards identified as the property of Sylvian Newman, a local saloonman.
