OREGON METHODIST

He put all in good humor by telling a good story. He delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the ministers of the city of Salem and of Willamette University. He welcomed them to this beautiful and splendid Capital City. (Applause.) Here were found the best people of the state—those who lived here and those who were sent here. (Laughter.) They were welcomed for what they stood for. The powers of evil would not be happier for the stay of this conference. They would make a higher tone felt in this community, an influence for better things. They would leave behind them the blessed influence of the Saviour. In the name of the Master, as a minister of the gospel, and as president of Willamette University, he welcomed them to the glorious hospitality of Salem.

L. H. Van Winkle welcomed the conference on behalf of the laity of the church. He also proved a good story teller and put his hearers in good feeling. He knew this great church would ring with masterly addresses for the coming sessions. Bishop Hughes had not arrived, and Clarence True Wilson was introduced. He responded to the address of welcome in the absence of the bishop. He had some needed and serious remarks and advice to give the bishop. (Laughter.) All they asked was to be let alone. (Laughter.) They were glad to come after last year's conference to the city of peace. (Laughter.) They were glad to come to the city of churches and schools. (Applause.) They hope to leave a good impression upon this community. They appreciated the hearty addresses of welcome. The pastor's work meant the building up of Christian character of the youth of our country. This conference was more important in relation to public policies than the work of the legislature.

The pastor and evangelist were two things. The latter had a dozen addresses that he learned by heart. The pastor had to make a half dozen addresses and then show up with something brilliant at night or lose his evening audiences. (Laughter.) Rev. Clarence True Wilson rung great volume of applause from the vast audience by eulogizing Oregon as the most glorious state in the union. The nation would copy the Oregon primary law and the Oregon plan of electing U. S. senators. The people had the right to nominate all their own officers and elect them afterwards. The people had voted on 28 measures and they were delicate and difficult questions and they had never made a mistake. They had rejected all specious and iniquitous amendments. If the "vox populi" was not the "vox dei" then was not the voice of God heard in this world. When the selfishness of the upper river and the selfishness of the lower river both asked for bills restraining the other fellow, the people had enacted both and given the fish a rest.

THOSE who hold money in trust, such as Trustees, Executors, Administrators, Guardians and Treasurers, will find our Savings Department a convenient, safe and profitable place to keep funds. All such deposits will draw interest, and are available on demand. It is good business to make trust funds earn something, instead of allowing them to remain idle.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT CAPITAL NATIONAL BANK

The commonwealth founded by the missionaries had become the home of purer government by the people themselves and that government would never be lowered in its moral tone by the action of the people represented by this conference.

Rev. Gordon read a poem on the conference written in Father Huckleberry style. He eulogized Salem as the mecca of western Methodism, and an informal reception was given to the visiting ministers.

THE GRAFT ISSUE IN 'FRISCO

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—The so-called "graft prosecution" is again an issue in the campaign today in San Francisco, as the result of the action of the Democrats and Good Government League, who endorsed Superior Judge Frank H. Dunne for re-election last night amid scenes of wild enthusiasm. The convention was in striking contrast to the conventions of the Republican and Union Labor party, where Dunne's name was received with hisses and groans.

Last night the mention of the name of the judge who had sentenced Ruef and Schmitz, and who has presided at most of the graft trials here, brought forth a storm of applause, and the speaker who placed Dunne in nomination was interrupted time and again with applause.

The Good Government League will secure a place on the ballot by petition, and the names of the nominees at the Democratic convention will be duplicated on the ballot. The ticket nominated follows:

For long term, Frank H. Dunne, Frank S. Brittain, Joseph E. O'Donnell and Edward C. Morrison; for short term, George H. Cabanias, O'Donnell and Cabanias have been nominated by the Union labor party.

COTTON KING NOW WORKS ON SALARY (United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Sept. 23.—Daniel J. Sully, the former cotton king, who has twice cornered the market and been in absolute control of the cotton situation, is today working on a salary. The speculator, whose failure to bear the market several months ago cost him over a million dollars, is employed as a salesman for a firm of Broad street brokers.

ACCEPTS PRESIDENCY OF SAN JOSE COLLEGE Boston, Mass., Sept. 23.—Dr. Wm. Guth, of Cambridge, today stated that he would accept the call to the presidency of the University of the Pacific, at San Jose, Cal., avoiding the formal call of the trustees of that institution does not contain any conditions that he has not hitherto understood.

The pastor said that he is only awaiting the receipts of the formal offer from the trustees by mail. "I want my friends to know that I fully appreciate what the offer means, and to know my attitude on the matter," said Dr. Guth.

The pastor has not yet informed his parishioners of his resignation, but has told them of his Western offer, and that he would probably accept it.

Do not refuse to do what you are told, nor do it grudgingly, simply because you do not understand the reason for it. If the one who tells you makes a mistake, he is the one who will suffer for it, not you.—Roy-crafters.

Do not talk during working hours except on business, and then only to the head of your division or the head of the department.—Hubbard.

The trusts are more solidly set than ever.

An Eye on the Future. Tommy's maiden aunt had called attention to some of that young man's misdemeanors, thereby causing him to be punished. Tommy pondered awhile, then asked, "Papa, will little sister Gladys be an aunt to—chickadee when I am a man?"

"Yes, Tommy," answered his father, much interested. "Why do you ask?"

"Cause she might just as well get married and have a home for her own, for I don't intend to 'low any aunts to stay around my house making trouble for my children."—Woman's Home Companion.
