PACIFIC COAST TO ORGANIZE

UNDER PROMOTION COMMITTEE

Scarcely a week passes that there is not some event that brings home to the people who live on the Pacific coast of the United States the fact that they have a community of interest in both commercial and political affairs of the nation. To many people of the east that section of the country lying west of the great mountain ranges, is a place apart, and it has been only by active exertions of our business men and of our representatives in congress that this section has reached the commercial importance it has, and received from the nation the consideration it has.

There is no doubt that the Pacific states will realize still greater commercial importance, and greater recognition at the hands of the men who control the affairs of the nation; as the people of the world are turning their attention to the Pacific and realize more and more the importance of this vast commercial arena. The desired end may be more rapidly reached, however, by combined effort of all the people of all the Pacific states.

This idea was brought prominently before the people of this state several years ago by the California Promotion committee, and since that time the idea has gained in strength by the continued efforts of our men of affairs.

A splendid example of combined effort is illustrated in California, where that unique organization, the California Promotion committee, flourishes. Through the committee the entire state work as a unit for the development of California. With each of the seven Pacific states organized on similar lines to the one which California is organized, great good will result to the several states, and when such state organization is completed, all of the states may organize for the protection of the general interests, and use the influence of this vast combination in all directions.

The delegations to congress from the various Pacific states have realized all along that such a combination is to the best interests of the whole, but our senator and congressmen must be fortified by the expressed wish of the people from the different parts of the country they represent.

The Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress holds its next meeting in San Francisco on October 6, and a large delegation from this state will attend, when an opportunity will be given to get in closer touch with the different representative men of the Pacific states.

The California Promotion committee headquarters in California building, Union Square, San Francisco, will be visited by the delegates to the congress, as the committee has extended an invitation to all to make use of its headquarters.

Good for Biliousness.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night, and I feel 50 per cent better than I have for weeks," says J. J. Florence of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store. Samples free.

Be careful when it comes to lending money or borrowing trouble.

Getting out into the sunlight of social intercourse and getting your disposition toned is recommended for mental health.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure, apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. Kidney trouble allowed to advance, the kidney-poison of blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves, break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys, and cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake in taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Who call mention reading this general notice in this paper. Don't make a mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OFFICIAL CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

FIRST CHURCH HAS A RECORD

The first day of the Methodist conference was concluded by a rousing missionary sermon by Rev. Hill, and he showed the old aggressive fighting spirit of the church is still alive. He left this morning.

Wednesday Afternoon.

The opening hour was spent in the lecture room in a social gathering with the ladies of the Home Missionary Society.

Former Salem Man.

The missionary sermon on Wednesday afternoon, by Wm. H. Heppie who succeeded Rev. John A. Parsons at Salem, and served a year before he went to Grace church at Portland.

Record of First Church.

Rev. Selbeck reported for First church, Salem, showing contributions to the different funds of $4317, besides all the expenses of the church work.

A Pioneer Preacher.

Rev. T. F. Royal, one of the pioneers of Oregon Methodism, is at the conference. He was for many years pastor at Salem, and preached for the inmates of the state institutions.

Towns Compared.

In the report of district superintendents some innocent fun crept in. It was stated that Jacksonville had always been a very hard place to do religious work, but that of late Medford had presented equally difficult obstacles.

Three Churches Asked For.

In reply to questions by Rev. Hill, it was reported that Glenada had a church, but no pastor; Sauvies Island had neither for some years and Troutdale had both church and pastor.

Program Women's Home Missionary Society.

UNITED BRETHREN IN CONFERENCE

A meeting of the United Brethren ministers of Oregon conference is now in session at the United Brethren church. The purpose of the meeting is to plan for a larger evangelism and deepen the spiritual life.

Tuesday evening Rev. J. S. Rhode, of Howepell, preached on "Tarrying Until," or "Fitness for Service."

The program for yesterday was as follows:

Scripture lesson at 9:30 a. m. was read and commented on by H. C. Schaefer, of Portland, First church. Bishop Wm. M. Bell, of Berkeley, Cal., was then introduced and gave an inspiring address on "Religious Inspiration" or "The Bible as the Source of Individual Inspiration."

F. H. Neff, of Salem, gave a helpful talk on "The Surrendered Life." In the afternoon from 2 to 3 p. m., Rev. J. W. Sprecher, of Eugene, spoke on the church finance, and from 3 to 4 p. m. H. F. White, of The Dalles, gave a book review, "Quiet Talks on Prayer," by S. D. Gordon.

In an open conference, which followed, some very interesting comment were made by most of all the ministers present.

In the evening at 7:30 Bishop Bell preached a great sermon on "Prayer Power." A short prayer service followed this address.

The program for today is as follows:

9 to 10—Address by Bishop Bell 10 to 11—"The Surrendered Life," F. H. Neff. 11 to 12—"The Church the True Institution of Christian Socialism," B. E. Emrick. 2 to 3 p. m.—"Quiet Talks on Power," a book review, H. C. Schaefer.

3 to 4—"Channels of Power." 7:30—Bishop Wm. M. Bell will preach.

These meetings will continue until Friday evening.

BELL TALKS TO LARGE AUDIENCE

The Democrats opened their campaign in this city last night with the address of Theodore A. Bell before a large crowd at the Grand over house. This California speaker is a tall, handsome fellow, with little of the orator about him. In the prelude to his main address, he paid many glowing tributes to the Willamette valley, stating the strongest kind of a union between Oregon, California and Washington, and stated that he, in his travels, had never been more honorably received than in this state.

He praised Oregon for its political and physical condition. He stated that, when he came through this beautiful valley, with the beautiful timber country surrounding it on every side, and learned of its political strides with the direct primary and Proposition No. 1 laws, he realized the needs of this state would be met by man, machine or political organization master.

Bell was so well pleased with the people he treated him in Oregon, and with the remarkable achievement of the state that he said: "Here after when I boast of California, as we Californians do boast, I will include Oregon along with my native state."

Bell, after his well-selected prelude, they launched boldly into the issues of the campaign, taking them one by one, and severely arraigning the administration as in all of his previous speeches, with which the general public is familiar.

Eugene's Wall. (Register.) "I don't hear beer!"

That is the question in accents drear, Whether near beer is too near beer, or the burbeer of near beer career. Oh, dear, just for beer That is not beer! The wall sounds clear 'Tis for beer and near—Nearer to beer, oh, nearer to beer! This queer, we feel a tear appear. And naught to cheer with no near beer. The world seems strangely out of gear. When beer is near and yet not near! OTTO G.
