WATER THE ONLY REALLY SAFE LIQUID

Water, according to the London Lancet, is the only really safe liquid drink. All other beverages—alcoholic and non-alcoholic—are drugs. This is what the writer says:

"The thirsty person who can not satisfy his thirst unless the beverage contains what is in reality a drug has acquired an unhealthy habit, or, to put it plainly, a disease. Yet what else is the alcohol of the various alcoholic beverages, the caffeine of tea and coffee, the glucoside or quinine of bitters, or even the ginger of ginger-beer or of ginger-ale, the aromatic oil of the liqueur, the carbonic acid gas in soda water, the citric acid of the lemon, and so on, but a drug."

"All these when consumed clearly convey something into the organism over and above water itself; they cannot quench thirst in the sense that water does. Plain water has become a rare beverage nowadays, and it is a pity that it is so."

"We are inclined to think that the prejudice against the drinking of plain water has arisen from a mistaken idea in the public mind that plain water has disease entities in it, or 'inserts,' and that only when mixed with spirits, hops, malt and other things, or else in the form of tea or beer which necessarily are free from disease organisms because they are boiled, is it rendered safe to drink."

The peril attending the prejudice against water is thus indicated:

"Under stress of great thirst large doses of alcohol, tea, tannin, carbonic acid gas, bitters, and so on may be consumed, and the effects of an unduly prolonged course of drugs, such as in reality these are, sooner or later manifest themselves, frequently indicating a disturbance of function which in the long run do serious harm to the whole organism."

A Sure-enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.
