THE OLD WHITE CORNER

Our Great Clothing Sale

progresses with renewed vigor each day. Hundreds are taking advantage of the most remarkable price concessions ever made in Salem.

The People Know Where to Get a Square Deal

We have no apologies to make, we have never in our lives conducted a "Brokers' Sale." We have always conducted our business with remarkable success and remarkable satisfaction to our customers. Some merchants will tell you they are too modest to hang out big signs, when the fact is they have been bit by brokers and have hung out signs for the past twenty years, but now the pace is rapid—price concessions are so great—so they keep out. We are doing just what we claim, regardless of loss. We must and will protect our customers.

to burn the slash instead of leaving it on the ground, a constant danger to the forest for years to come. Nearly all the forest fires start in the slash left by the wasteful methods employed by the lumbermen.

"Another issue in national politics which connects itself directly with the conservation movement is the tariff. I am not one of those who believe that the high tariff on pulp should be maintained, on the ground, that if it is not our forests will be cut off in the most hasty and extravagant manner to compete with the Canadian pulp. I believe that our lumbermen, if they are at present unable to compete with the Canadian market, will allow the forests to grow up, and pursue a policy which, in the long run, will enable our forests to compete with those of Canada. At present the situation certainly demands a reduction of the tariff in this respect."

called for trial, as it was rumored that he intended to leave the state and forfeit his bonds.

The case of the State of Oregon against E. E. Jackson, of Stayton, set for October 14, is looked forward to with interest, especially by Stayton people. Jackson is charged with mayhem, in the form of nearly biting a man's thumb off in a fight.

Other cases set for hearing are: Britten Bettet, charged with rape, Monday, October 12, at 1 p. m.

Mary E. Watson vs. F. G. McLench, action for money, Tuesday, October 15.

State of Oregon vs. Gus Scriber, selling liquor to minor, October 14.

W. D. Claggett vs. C. W. Yanke, action for money, Thursday October 15.

A. M. Henry Lee vs. W. Wright, et al., an appeal from justice court, Friday, October 16.

Byron T. Randall vs. F. W. Haskell, et al., appeal from justice court, Friday, October 16, 9 a. m.

Philippinos Impressed.

Minister Arenata, who held the portfolios of justice and finance in Aguinaldo's cabinet, said today:

"The visit of the fleet shows the hopelessness of independence for the Philippines. It has staggered the native leaders, who had no conception of the real power of the United States."

Governor-General Smith, at a dinner given in honor of the newspaper correspondents, said:

"There should be no independence for the Philippines for generations. The people are not ready for it. When it is granted, it will be necessary for the United States to retain territorial interests, and may maintain a protectorate."

This was the first announcement of the governor's policy, and the statement caused a sensation throughout the islands. The native Philippine press is bitter in its attacks upon the Americans, and resents the attitude taken by Governor Smith.

Reports that war with Japan is imminent have caused much excitement throughout the native provinces.

Commissioner Gilbert today said that the world's map has been modified by the world cruise of the fleet. He said the feeling that the white man must control the Pacific has been aroused to such an extent that its effect will be prominent.

The health of the men is perfect. There is little complaint now regarding the restrictions.

New York, Oct. 5.—Victims of a fire, who started the flames so rapidly that the stairway was destroyed, and all means of escape cut off, ten persons were found to death, several were fatally injured and six seriously hurt to an East Side tenement fire.

The fire was started with oil and paper in several places about the building. When the inmates realized that the place was on fire, they fled in a panic. The fire was so excited that one turned in an alarm un-derstandably too late to save the building.

Some of the dead were killed by jumping into the flames when they found that they were cut off. They jumped down the roaring stair-ways without the least chance of escape.

The fire was so excited that some of the dead were killed by jumping from windows to the police station on the sidewalks. Most of those who escaped got through the roof to other buildings.

Seldom in the hundreds of such fires that take place here, has one been set with such diabolical cunning. When the inmates, most of whom were foreigners, awakened they were hemmed in by the flames. At the rear of the building the fire had been started in such a way that it was impossible to escape there. In front to jump to the street meant death.

Those with the most presence of mind climbed to the top of the building and escaped over the roofs. The firemen were unable to reach those in the building when the department arrived, as all means of entrance, as well as exit, were cut off.

The detectives are making an investigation, and probably will make some arrests today, as they have been on the trail of a band of suspected fire-bugs for several weeks.

When the first detachment of firemen made their way into the building they encountered on the first floor the unconscious body of Anallis Scalino and two others, fatally burned. These three were rushed to the hospital, but there is no hope for them.

On the second floor they found Rosa Schelline and her year-old baby, unconscious and fatally burned. The charred bodies of the entire family of Dominic Forcello were found on the fourth floor.

Petro Magliacis was killed by jumping from the third story window to the roof of a shed below at the rear, every bone in his body being broken. Other members of his family escaped by way of the roof, but it is believed that he stayed behind in an effort to save his valuables, and was cut off by the fire.

Fire Marshal Kelly said that the fire was one of the worst caused by incendiarism on record in the city.

with an insolent smile on his face, which infuriated the friends of his victim. At the conclusion of the hearing, after the court had bound the negro over to the superior court, under $5000 bonds for trial on a charge of criminal assault, Debell quietly walked to a place near the door out of which the officers intended to take the prisoner. With a cry of rage he flung himself upon Martin and attempted to drag him away from the police.

Four burly officers pounced upon Debell and tried to break his hold upon the negro. This was the signal for nearly every man in the court room to arise and rush forward with cries of "Kill the nigger" and "lynch him."

The officers held the crowd at bay, while plain clothes men spirited the prisoner away through a back door, and placed him safely behind the bars of the city jail.

Fearing that another attempt would be made to lynch him, Martin begged that he be taken before the superior court immediately. He appeared before Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, entered a plea of guilty, and was promptly sentenced to life imprisonment.

JAPANESE CHILDREN ARE TAUGHT TO FIGHT

General Kuropatkin writes entertainingly in the October McClure's of Japan's methods of preparing for war. He says:

"In their military school, where I saw a Spartan system of education, the exercises of the cadets with pikes, rifles and broadswords were not approached by anything of the kind that I had witnessed in Europe—it was fighting of the fiercest character. At the end of the struggle there was a hand-to-hand combat, which lasted until the victors stood triumphant over the bodies of the vanquished and tore off their masks. In these exercises, which were very severe, the cadets struck one another fiercely and with wild cries; but the moment a pre-arranged signal was given, or the fight came to an end, the combatants drew themselves up in a line and their faces assumed an expression of wooden composure."

"In all the public schools prominence was given to military exercises, and the scholar took part in them with enthusiasm. Even in their walks they practiced running, flanking and sudden, unexpected attacks of one party on another. The history of Japan was everywhere made a means of strengthening the pupils' patriotism and their belief in Japan's invincibility. Particular stress was laid upon the country's successful wars, the heroes of them were extolled, and the children were taught that none of Japan's military enterprises had ever failed."

Forest fires are burning on all sides of Gold Beach.

ATTEMPT TO MOB NEGRO

(United Press Licensed Wire)

Los Angeles, Oct. 5.—Bent on lynching Edward Martin, a negro, sentenced to life imprisonment at San Quentin today, for assaulting beautiful Edith Ralston, a mob of 100 men, led by W. S. Debell, the girl's sweetheart, attacked a cordon of police guarding the prisoner in Judge Austin's court room today.

P. R. Sawgert, one of the men in the mob was struck on the head by a policeman's club, and it was necessary to remove him to the Receiving hospital.

Throughout the preliminary examination Martin sat in the court room

MORAL STRENGTH NECESSARY TO WIN VICTORY IN WAR

According to Napoleon three-fourths of an army's success in war is due to the moral character of its soldiers. Now more than ever, says General Kuropatkin in the October McClure's, must a successful war be a popular war. Continuing he says:

"The recent contest in Manchuria was a popular war for the Japanese, but not for us. The Korean question, and the question of naval supremacy on the waters of the Pacific, involved vital Japanese interests, and the immense importance of these interests was so clearly understood and so fully appreciated by the Japanese people that the war for their protection was a national war. Japanese soldiers, deeply conscious of the bearing that their exploits might have on the future of the country, fought with a self-sacrificing devotion and a stubbornness that we had never seen in any war in which we had previously been engaged. Sometimes, in villages that we had taken by assault, a handful of Japanese soldiers would barricade themselves in native houses and die there rather than retreat or surrender. Japanese officers who fell into our hands—even wounded officers—generally committed suicide. * * * In some cases Japanese mothers even killed themselves, when their sons, on account of weakness or ill-health, were denied admission to the army. Hundreds of men volunteered to undertake the most desperate enterprises, in the face of certain death; and many officers and soldiers, before going to the front, had funeral ceremonies performed over their bodies, in order to show that they intended to die for their native land. * * * Military history shows that, in all wars, the antagonist who is strongest morally wins the victory. The only exceptions are such contests as that between the English and the Boers in South Africa and that between the north and the south in America. The English were weaker than the Boers morally, but they put into the field an overwhelming force, and in spite of many defeats, they finally conquered. In the American war, the army of the south was in the same position that the Boer army was, and the northerners had to put a superior force into the field in order to overcome it."

"The Blood is The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are affected, and any evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Pure, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures and purifies the blood thereby curing pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating sores, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by enclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. E. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrap. The same being acted as a current under the name of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

BRYAN HAS REFUSED TO TALK

(United Press Licensed Wire.)

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 5.—Bryan today refused to make any comment on information received here that President Roosevelt will take the stump for Taft in the coming campaign, and make six set and carefully prepared speeches in a trip across the continent from Washington to San Francisco. The information received here is regarded by the leaders who are with Bryan as authentic, despite denials from the White House that the President will go across the continent.

The leaders say that the information came from sources that leave no doubt as to their authenticity, and that Roosevelt has decided to speak in the cities on his trip in which he thinks he can do the Republican candidate the most good.
