SMILES.
 E. T. Allen, Portland, is the new Oregon forest supervisor.
 Thanks, aldermen from the seventh ward for pushing for a full width bridge on South Commercial street.
 Oh, yes; let us have mountain
 water.
 Our perfect Indian summer continues.
 A full width boulevard to the fair grounds is the least to be considered.
 Politics are a trifle warmer, but haven't reached a campmeeting boil.
 But say, isn't macadam a little
 new for paving Court street?
 Great plays these days at the Frank opera house; thanks to your effort, Mr. Meredith.
 Salem has seven of the best picnics shown in Oregon.
 The silent vote is still very silent,
 and a few primary school orators don't arouse it.
 Gentlemen, you can't all be mayor
 of Salem.
 Great many newspapers edited
 from Washington these days.
 Salem real estate continues to be paid pay dirt, including fruit tracts
 and general farms.
 Fat is an Offense.
 The female form being capable of expressing a supreme degree of grace, should be an inspiration in her daily lives and lead up to higher ideals of beauty," said the art lecturer. "Therefore the fat woman is an enemy to the artistic uplift, for she is neither too heavy for any wings of fancy to raise."
 "I can't understand how any woman will remain fat when it is so easy to reduce one's flesh. In the latter part of Paris one never sees a stout figure. Although the art models take things easy, sit around a great deal and eat just whatever they please, yet they keep their flesh firm and their figures beautiful. They have a simple fat reducer that takes the place of starving and gymnastics.
 It consists of a teaspoonful of the medicine and at bedtime of this simple remedy: 34 ounce Mermola, 34 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatized and 34 ounce Syrup Simplex.
 "This all, why don't fat, pudgy American women try that? It is simple—may very good for them—and will, I understand, take off as much as a pound a day. Any one with a little small change and a few more lady can have a decent figure."

THE STOMACH DOES NOT CAUSE DYSPEPSIA

Neither Will It Cure It Because the Lack of Gastric Juices Prohibit Relief.
 The stomach is a strong, powerful organ, which is composed of muscles of great strength. It is filled during digestion with gastric juices which, when the stomach, extending and compressing the food, dissolve it and separate the nourishment from the waste matter. If, however, these gastric juices are lacking, the stomach is not capable of digesting its food because it has not the tools with which to work successfully.
 The gastric juices when in a perfect state do away with all foul odors, fermentation and decay, reduce the food to a disintegrated mass and the stomach then presses it into the intestines where another form of digestion takes place. Then the intestines take from this mass of food all that is nourishing and give it to the blood. The waste matter is thrown from the system.
 If, instead of nourishment, the intestines receive impure deposits combined with a poisonous and imperfect gastric juice, it can be readily seen that they must turn such imperfect nourishment into the blood. The blood then, being unable to give each part of the body that which it requires, becomes impoverished, and disease is spread broadcast.
 Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets corrects such a condition at once. If the gastric juices are lacking and imperfect these tablets do their work just the same. They build up the elements in the juice which are lacking and remove those elements which cause disturbance.
 Meat, grains, fluids, vegetables and delicacies, in fact each portion of a large meal have been placed in a glass vial and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have digested them to a perfect fluid, just as a healthy stomach would do.
 A large, complex, hearty meal holds no terror for a dyspeptic. If Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used, abnormal eating, late dinners, rich foods cause ill effects to the stomach, but when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used one may eat when and what one will without danger of dyspepsia or discomfort.
 Forty thousand physicians endorse and prescribe Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and every druggist carries them in stock, price 50c. Send us your name and address, and we will send you at once by mail a sample package free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
