now the searchers for the wicked men are not trying to them in prisons, but if only a portion of what's printed may be believed, they are finding them the same.

Where Bullets Flew. David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a hero of the civil war, who lost a leg at Gettysburg, says: "The good electric Bitters have done is worth more than $500 to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I tried Electric Bitters, and they did me. I now take them as a preventive, and they keep me strong and healthy." For sale at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Science has unquestionably made great progress during recent years, but humbuggery is always at its elbow, and it is frequently difficult to tell "tother from which."

Had a Close Call. Mrs. Ada L. Croom, the widely known proprietor of the Croom hotel, says: "For several years I suffered with a severe cough and consumption seemed to be my grip on me, when a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. I began taking it, and three weeks later I was completely cured. The name of this life saving cough remedy, and lung and throat trouble is world wide. Sold at J. C. Perry's drug store. 50c and $1.00 per bottle free.

The man who always has his own without dispute must find life very monotonous. One of the best of existence is overcoming opposition.

$100.00 Reward. Gladly paid for a cure by any people who are crippled with rheumatism, yet if they only know they can be cured by a few bottles of Chamberlain's Snow Liniment, and the name is only 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all dealers.
