Due to the rapid growth of Salem, a suggestion of a night police sergeant for the station will probably be favorably acted upon by the council. In all large cities a man on duty at night, or "booking officer" is necessary.

GROWTH OF THIS CITY DEMANDS NEW MARKET

The Willamette Valley Meat company today opened their new market on Court street, at No. 379, where a neatly fitted up room is filled with a complete stock of fresh and cured meats, fish and poultry. The new firm say they are in Salem to stay and supply the trade with the best sanitary dressed meats that can be bought in the valley. The managers are men of long experience in the trade and will employ the most modern methods of catering to the public.

MEMBER OF STOCKTON SCANDAL LIVED HERE

It is reported that Earnest Wagner, the well known proprietor of the Hotel Willamette eleven years ago, but of late a prominent resident in Stockton, Cal., has been implicated in a scandal which involves several other prominent citizens of that city. It appears as though Wagner was seen in the company of several pretty chorus girls in a fashionable restaurant in Stockton making things merry by "popping" champagne and other joy-producing liquids, resulting in his actions becoming a little queer for those of a city official. Wagner has resigned his position as a member of the fire and police board of Stockton to which he is said to have devoted himself loyally, especially in the reforming of the city.

NEW HARDWARE HOUSE THROWS OPEN DOORS

The Salem Hardware Company announces open house in this paper and are splendid addition to this line of trade in our city. The president of the corporation is W. P. Fowle, a prominent British Columbia sawmill man, who came to Salem and bought the Damon residence for the purpose of making his home here and sending his children to school. He came to Salem because this is a good school city. Frank Flint, the manager, has been 35 years on the coast and 30 years in the hardware trade. He conducted a retail business successfully in California, and at Bellingham, and was five years in the wholesale trade at Portland and on the road for several years. That kind of an equipment makes him an authority in his line. The new firm are located in the old Buren & Hamilton store on Commercial street.
