

Now for Cold Weatherings,

the good goods store at this time offers seasonable wearings to ward off the cold at prices to suit each individual purse. Selling merchandise of trustworthy quality and originating and maintaining of lowest possible prices has placed this store beyond competition. Aiming at a perfect store service and all claims adjusted willingly and satisfactorily, has made this the popular shopping center of the city and Willamette Valley.

LADIES' TAILORED SUITS

This Fall's Styles. In this large assortment are the long coated jackets, 26 to 48 inches in length. They are plain and fancy tailored, best of materials used in the linings and each garment is beautifully finished. In this showing are suits that will fit the young ladies.

$50.00 values, now$30.85
 $45.00 values, now$38.50
 $57.00 values, now$45.00
 $35.00 values, now$28.50
 And many others.

Wednesday Surprise Sale No. 402

We offer more and limitation Heatherbloom Petticoats, large and generously full, with extra wide flounce, usually sold for $1.25. On sale Wednesday only at 8:30 for—

95c

No Telephone Orders Received.

YOU

Notice How Dressy, Stylish, Distinguished

In clothes, some men always look? Do you know how they do it? We'll tell you. They buy here the

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

Clothes, that means all-wool, perfect tailoring, correct styles to begin with. They buy in addition to a fancy weave suit, a black cheviot, or a blue serge; and occasionally change off for a week, get the suit they're wearing pressed, give it a little rest in the closet; and then put it on fresh, new looking.

You can do that and you ought to; its Clothes-economy.

We'll see that you're dressed right all the time if you say so. This store is the home of HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES.

We have a limited number of Men's Suits for this week's selling at Special Prices.

Copyright 1908 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

New Furs

Fashion's Favorites

This grandest showing of fashionable furs ever brought to this city. All grades are here in a great variety so you may rest assured of getting just what you want at what you want to pay.

$1.25 to $95

Tomorrow

We will have on sale 2000 yards of Plaid and Mixed Wool Suitings, in a very large assortment of styles and colorings, for women's and children's apparel of all kinds, best values up to $1.50 a yard, on sale this week at

50c Yard

Bedding

Piles and piles of soft fluffy Blankets and Comforts, makes one sleepy to even look at them. The cold snap, of early winter, calls for more covers and for every one to be comfortable. This winter we have provided a large assortment of comforters and blankets; the coverings, the fillings, the workmanship is so superior to other makes. These are in a class by themselves.

SECOND FLOOR

Joe Meyers & Sons
 INCORPORATED
GOOD-GOODS

Umbrellas

New this fall, tape edge, bulb runner, extra select handles. Our price—

$2.85

Looks like the $5.00 kind sold elsewhere.

UMBRELLA COUNTER

Men's

High Grade Wool Hose—Regular 50c kind, for three days only—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—

39c

OR THREE PAIR.

$1.00

City News

Weather Forecast—Rain tonight and Tuesday. Warmer tonight.

Patronize—The silent auction. The House Furnishing Co.

When in Portland—Visit Hall's restaurant, 330 Washington street. e-o-d

Gilson's Place—Eleven barber chairs. e-o-d

More Than $25.00—Worth at silent auction this week. The House Furnishing Co.

TROVER'S getting busy. eod-1f

Bidders—At the silent auction will secure more than $25.00 worth of furniture at their own price this week. The House Furnishing Co.

If You Wish—A heating stove, we have them and you will find our prices right. L. U. Josse, Court street.

Republican Meeting—A meeting of the Fourth ward Republican voters is to be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Yew Park engine house.

Council Tonight—At the regular meeting of the city council this evening, the following matters will be taken up by the honorable body in connection with other business: The North ditch, which is condemned by the council as being a nuisance; the lowering of the grade on High street between State and Trade. A notice will be issued to the property holders that the assessment is due for the improvement of North Cottage street.

You Need Not—Over bid at the silent auction

The retail price of each piece is plainly marked. The House Furnishing Co.

There Are—No hidden strings about the silent auction. Everything fair and above board. The House Furnishing Co.

Now—Is the time to buy your new carpet when fall house cleaning is coming on. We have the largest line of carpets in Salem. Do not believe us but come in and see for yourself and you will agree with us. And our price are right. L. U. Josse, Court street.

Bicycle Found—A Hartford bicycle was picked up by Night Officer Pholand last evening in the alley near the Price shoe store which had been standing there for one week. Officer Pholand's attention was attracted by the wheel the fore part of last week, and as no one seemed to claim it, he took it up and placed it in the city hall.

When You Buy—Furniture and carpets from us you are buying from the best house in Salem. What we mean by the best, is a house that will give you the best goods at the lowest possible price and will guarantee to save you money. L. U. Josse, Court street.

Patronize—Home industry. A nice new silk floss mattress made under the most sanitary conditions and best workmanship. L. U. Josse, Court street.

Police Court—James Ford was picked up yesterday evening by the police for begging and is now waiting Judge Moore's opinion of such actions. Joe Randall and Dan McCready are also in jail for imbibing in spirits and late hours.

Buy—Your linoleums from us. We carry the best brands in the market. We carry Wiles brand, Potter's, Nart's and Cook's, and we can save you ten cents on every yard you purchase. L. U. Josse, Court street.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

A complain was filed in the circuit court by the City of Salem against the Salem Dray and Hack company, in which it asks the court to restrain defendants from claiming any portion whatever of certain lands being the property of L. S. Scott and Mrs. E. J. Scott. The property in question is situated in North Salem, and the complaint alleges the defendants claim an estate or interest in said land and premises adverse to that of the plaintiff. City Attorney Walter Keyes appears as counsel for the plaintiffs.

G. B. Cellars has filed a complaint in the circuit court against Emil Schindler, and the allegations for the cause of action are that defendant delivered to his brother John Schindler a promissory note for the sum of $248, and that John Schindler assigned and transferred the note to the plaintiff who is unable to collect same. Two other occasions where the defendant has delivered a promissory note is cited by the complaint, one for $125 and one for $56.16 both of which were transferred to the plaintiff who is unable to collect on same and asks judgment against the defendant for the different sums with interest thereon and $50 as attorney's fees. Attorney Jas. G. Heltzel appears for the plaintiff.

In the case of Claggett vs. Yauke Attorney Kaiser appeared this morning and asked that the case be set aside on the grounds that the jury misconstrued the evidence in case and handed to the verdict Saturday in favor of the defendants. Judge Burnett overruled this motion, and another motion was presented asking for a new trial which the judge took under consideration.

The Board of Equalization is now in session, having met this morning at 9 o'clock to remain in session during the remainder of the week. No complaints have been presented thus far.

Complaint was filed in the county clerk's office this morning by Grace Bennett asking a divorce from Frank Bennett on the grounds of desertion. The couple were married in Portland. Walter Window appears as attorney for the plaintiff.

E. E. Jackson, who was found guilty of assault and battery in the circuit court last week, was fined $100 this morning by Judge Burnett, which he paid.

At a meeting of the County Grange Puma last Saturday at Gervais, a resolution was passed endorsing the county levy plan for high schools. The Puma Grange will also take steps to obtain the cooperation of the other granges in the county to this end and will push the subject along as much as possible.

THREE LARGE ELECTRIC SIGNS FOR THIS CITY—Three electric sign boards nearly 20 feet long apiece arrived this morning for the Portland Railway, Light & Power company. One reads "Take Cars Here" and is for the waiting room on corner Twelfth and Oak streets, and the other two are for the office building corner Commercial and State streets. They will light up the city at a great rate.

We Are Closing—Out our fruit jars at cost. L. U. Josse, Court street.

TRAINMAN KILLED IN COLLISION (United Press Leased Wire.) Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 19.—One trainman was killed and 22 passengers were injured in a collision between a passenger train bound for the southwest and a freight train on the Santa Fe railroad at Braddock, Kan., today. The crash came with such terrific force that the passengers were hurled against the sides of the coaches, windows were broken and several were badly cut by glass. The responsibility for the wreck has not been fixed.

Insurance rates on Portland residences reduced—Oregon legislature is to meet.

Willamette defeated Albany college at Salem, 6 to 5 Saturday.

The railroad commission is investigating potato rates.

SATURDAY SALE WAS GREAT BIG SUCCESS

About $1000 worth of personal property was sold at the first Salem Saturday public auction sale conducted by Cooper & Clearwater at the old Willamette livery barns. Mr. Cooper certainly held the crowds, and knocked off 22 horses out of 28 put up, at from $40 to $140 each; 10 cows at from $15 to $35, and a number of vehicles and farm implements. Next Saturday ten head of fine dairy cows will be put up from the W. M. Shute herd from near Eola. The sale will be at the same place and time. These sales are a great thing for the town, bringing in large crowds of people. Watch for the announcements.

Los Angeles had a heavy rainfall Saturday and people had to be carried to and from streetcars by the life saving crews.

PERSONAL MENTION

And Movements of People.

Dr. T. C. Smith is in Portland looking after business matters. Martin Smith, of Shaw, was acting business here Saturday. Edwin Lansing spent Sunday in Portland taking in the horse show. Dr. Carver Gibson has returned to Portland after a short business here.

Miss Elizabeth Keaton spent the day at Portland, the guest of friends.

Chas. A. Jones has returned to Hillsboro where he attended a teachers' institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Steelhammer were in Silverton Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Homer Smith has returned from Portland where she spent a few days with friends.

G. E. Kolloger went to Newberg yesterday to visit with friends and relatives for a short time.

Mrs. D. F. Wagner left for Portland Saturday and spent Sunday with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Wm. Terry has returned to Newport where she has been visiting with friends for a week.

Miss Alice Hayes returned yesterday from a three weeks' visit to relatives in Spokane.

Albert J. Hurlbert went to Walla Walla yesterday morning to see the week transacting business.

Mrs. Amy Hunt, of Silverside, Penn., is in the city visiting at the home of Prof. G. Patterson.

L. J. Johnson and wife have returned to their home in Portland after visiting with friends here a week.

Bruce Brown, of Turner, was here after business matters and visiting friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Winnie Rotherford has returned from Portland where she spent two weeks visiting with friends and relatives.

Jerry Croom has returned from ten days' hunting trip in the mountains near Roseburg. He reports a game in that region to be abundant.

Mrs. C. P. Lusher went to Portland last evening to be gone a week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Carl Lusher, formerly of this city.

Rev. Davis H. Errett, pastor of the Christian church here, was in Newburg yesterday assisting in the dedication of the new cathedral of the Christian denomination there.

Elk are being victimized by grafters with bogus badges.

STARR PIANO
 HIGH CLASS GOODS
 GEO. C. WILL

MONEY TO LOAN
 THOS. E. POOL
 Over Ladd & Bush's Bank Bldg.

Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society
 Frank Meredith, Resident Agent.
 Office with Wm. Brown & Co., 29 Commercial street.

NEW TODAY

Lost—Five young goats. Return or notify R. F. Schutte, Box 73, Salem. 16-13-08

Wanted—To borrow $200 for 30 days on good security. Call the care Journal. 16-13-08

For Rent—A small dairy farm on Lincoln in Polk county. Call the cash. Phone Farmers 74. 16-13-08

For Sale—$24 violin and case. Want to buy second-hand piano. pinoce hobbies. Roy Campbell, Box 76 R. F. D. 5, Turner. 16-13-08

Wanted—A young man going to school wishes to work for wages. Box 311, Salem. 16-13-08

Lost—A fine straw telescope between Salem and Astoria. Finder please leave at Journal. 16-13-08

Today's Specials

E. O. Moll's Country Meats, Loin Sausage, Spare Ribs

Banana Special, per doz, 15c

OUR VEGETABLES—Cauliflower, Celery, Sweet's, Cabbage, Lettuce, Radishes, Young Onions, Turnips, Carrots, Pumpkins, Squashes and Tomatoes.

FRUITS—Peaches, Bananas, Oranges, Lemons, Huckleberries, Grapes, Apples and those famous Comice Pears.

Remember our goods speak for themselves. Give them a trial.

MOIR GROCERY COMPANY
 456 STATE
 PHONE 182