Never Worry

about a cough—there's no need of worry if you will treat it at its first appearance with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It will stop the cough at once and put your lungs and throat back into perfectly healthy condition. Sold by all dealers.

After this campaign is over, Bryan may discover that there is an art of well-timed reticence.

A Healthy Family

"Our whole family has enjoyed good health since we began using Dr. King's New Life Pills, three years ago," says L. A. Bartlett, of Rural Route 1, Gullford, Maine. They cleanse and tone the system in a gentle way that does you good. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

It is to remember that the batteries of the White House are fired for the welfare of all the country.

For Chronic Diarrhoea

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miller, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

How many played-out paramount issues can a candidate carry before he begins to feel played out himself?

Whose Bullets Flew

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me worth more than $500 to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

"Farming is no longer drudgery," is one of the stockiest of stock phrases these days. Wonder how many who print it would trade the editorial desk for a gang plow, or before-daylight milking in winter?

The Albany Congregational church is being used to relieve the crowded condition of the schools.

"The prejudices of ignorance are more easily removed than the prejudices of interest; the first are blindly adopted, the second willfully preferred."—Bancroft.

Why Colds Are Dangerous

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold, but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

What a mechanical people we are! Machinery to do almost everything, even to talking and voting! We have reason to expect that marriages, funerals, prayers and sermons will be conducted mechanically. Stamp specking-making machines are already in operation. Computing the value of a given quantity of our groceries is done by a machine, and a typewriter looking thing computes interest in a jiffy.

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good, but I have found the right thing. Look at my face and you will see the difference. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am gratified to see the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine when I take a Cascarets. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets."

"CHECKERS" A THOROUGHLY GOOD PLAY

Playgoers with whom good plays do not grow stale with age, so long as the quality of the actors is kept up and the scenery maintained in fresh repair, will be glad to hear that "Checkers" is to pay another visit to this city.

In is contracted to be presented at:

BRABHAM AS "PUSH MILLER" IN "CHECKERS".

The Grand opera house tomorrow night. But remembering the tremendous audience which packed the theater on the occasion of the play's last visit and the large number of inquirers at the box office since then, as to when "Checkers" is coming back, its engagement here could safely be lengthened to the profit of both local and visiting managers and the detection of a generous playgoer public not only willing but eager to pay liberally when something good comes along.

It is the promise of the company's management which is the same that has guided "Checkers" through its five full years of life, so satisfactorily to the public, that the organization this season contains many of the old timers who will be seen again in their same parts, while the new actors and actresses are, in several instances, improvements.

Hans Robert and Dave Brabham still head the company. Though this is the sixth year of "Checkers" life, the unfolding of its ever fresh and interesting story will be reheard for the first time with a surprised delight. The story is natural. The dialogue is sparkling and clean, its love scenes are brief and full of charm. It has a trilling but not overdrawn race track scene, and the end of the play is as a happy world would that life might be.
