FOR BUILDING UP OREGON

MANY ABLE ADDRESSES AT THE DEVELOPMENT CONGRESS IN ROSEBURG—BANQUET TO THE VISITORS

(Roseburg Review.)

The passing of resolutions asking for state and federal aid toward the construction of good roads and for the exemption of newly built railroads from taxation for the first five years was the principal feature of this morning's session of the Oregon and Idaho Development congress. The session was also marked by a very able address by Attorney General A. M. Crawford, who spoke on the legal status of the O. & C. R. R. land grant and on proposed new laws affecting waterways, irrigation and projected railroad building. A lengthy discussion on the wishes of the people in the land grant matter was ushered in by United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, and when this ended without result Attorney Louis E. Beane, of Eugene, told of the urgent necessity for deep water harbor at the mouth of the Siuslaw river, in Lane county.

No meeting of the congress is being held this afternoon, an adjournment having been taken until 7:30 o'clock this evening, when there will be a session conducted mainly by the state board of health, consisting of Dr. Andrew C. Smith, Dr. R. C. Yonney and Dr. Pierce, all of Portland. These gentlemen will address their hearers on the subject of sanitation. In connection, there will be entertaining vocal music by some of Roseburg's best talent.

Appropriations Asked.
 The resolution on good roads was prepared by a committee consisting of Dr. Smith, Frank B. Waite and G. A. Hurley, the latter of Vale, Malheur county. It passed without a dissenting voice. Its full text follows:

Resolutions.
 Resolved, That we hereby reiterate, reaffirm and approve the resolutions of the last Oregon-Idaho Development congress, held at Marshfield, Oregon, and

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the time has arrived for the development of the state of Oregon, when the needs of business in all productive and distributive lines require the improvement of the wagon roads throughout the state, and that the legislature of Oregon at its 1909 session be and hereby is urged to enact laws and make ample appropriations in aid of such roads, and

Resolved, That the aid of the federal congress should be invoked in the cause of good roads, and the delegations in congress from the state of Oregon are hereby urged to further in every possible way and enactment which may be desired to procure appropriations for the improvement of such roads, and

Resolved, That the legislation needed for the peculiar conditions of the state of Oregon includes a proper disposition of convict labor so as to withdraw the same from all competition with free labor and place the labor so withdrawn to the work of constructing good roads, and further that the appropriations for roads should amount to not less than one-half million dollars annually, to be used in all parts of the state, and

Resolved, That the great need of better facilities for rail transportation in Oregon has become oppressive and that the failure of great transportation companies which have profited to the extent of many millions through the business loyalty of our people, to extend their lines to meet the demands of our growing trade, and to give central and southern Oregon a short and convenient outlet to the ocean and cheap water transportation, presents a condition which can only be met by providing state aid for local roads where possible, and state construction and operation of lines which are necessary for the relief of our people, and

Resolved, That the need of the 140,000 people who inhabit Coos, Curry, Lane, Douglas, Josephine and Jackson counties of a railroad outlet to the ocean by way of Coos Bay, and the very evident profit which such a road would produce in handling the business of the people, as well as saving the shippers and producers hundreds of thousands of dollars annually through cheap water rates, and the refusal of the Southern Pacific railway company to build such line, presents an emergency which should be met by the construction of such road by the state, to the end that southern and central Oregon may be developed and their great resources released from isolation and restraint, and we favor invoking the initiative to that end, and

Resolved, That we again urge upon our delegation in congress the importance of obtaining sufficient appropriations for the improvement of our rivers and harbors, and of all parts of the neglected coast of Oregon, and particularly those recommended by the government engineers for the improvement of the bar and harbor of Coos Bay.

For State's General Good.
 Of vital importance to the state in general are the following resolutions, which also passed unanimously:

Resolved, By this congress, in behalf of the development of western Oregon harbors, and to enable the people of the respective harbor districts to tax themselves for the improvement of their harbors and ship channels; that we favor the enactment of a general harbor commission act by the next legislature.

We recommend that the constitution be amended so that the legislature can be authorized to exempt from taxation any new line or railroad for a period not to exceed five years, to encourage construction of new lines; also we demanded legislation to protect the people against fetid occupation of sites for railroads as where one corporation secures a pass through the mountains or along a river, where there is room for only one railroad, and does not build within two years, that such right-of-way be forfeited.

Resolved, That the thanks of this congress, representing the commercial organizations of western Oregon, are due to the Roseburg Commercial club for their generous assistance in providing for the entertainment of this convention; and also to the ladies' auxiliary of the same for their delightful hospitality in preparing a banquet at Masonic hall.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine causes out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Why Colds Are Dangerous.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold, but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

The new school law aimed to compel children to attend school more regularly is working out admirably. The appointment of truancy officers and the work of keeping track of absent pupils is bringing about a more steady attendance.

More Than Enough Is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again.
