DEMOCRATS HOLD BIG MEETING

The Democratic rally at the Grand opera house Thursday night was a great success. Hon. John H. Albert presided and gave a very happy introduction to the Bryan leaders. Judge O'Day made one of his brief and inimitable addresses, and was followed by Hon. John M. Gearin, who held the audience for over an hour. The Salem military band played and the house was packed. The local Democracy are very much pleased over the outcome of their principal rally at the Capital City. Hon. John M. Gearin is a Marion county man and always gets a warm welcome. He has led the Bryan campaign in Oregon and has spoken from one end of the state to the other.

Hillsboro is now connected by six daily trains on the Oregon electric with Portland.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done for me more than $500 to me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

A burly burglar last night tied Mrs. Sarah Dickele in her New York home to a bed post, fractured her skull with a revolver and then ransacked the house, getting about $2,000 in money and jewelry.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Would Mortgage the Farm. A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw, one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

The assistant Oregon postmasters organized at Albany yesterday and selected Salem for the 1909 meeting.

$100.00 Reward. would gladly be paid for a cure by many people who are crippled with rheumatism, yet if they only knew it they can be cured by a few bottles of Ballard's Snow Liniment, and the price is only 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all dealers.

ROYCROFT PHILOSOPHY

(By Fra Elbertus.)

Let's keep the windows open to the east, be worthy, and sometime we shall know.

All success consists in doing this; you are doing something for some body—benefiting humanity; and the feeling of success comes from the consciousness of this.

The life of every man is a seamless garment—its woof his thoughts, its warp his deeds. When for him the roaring loom of time stops and the thread is broken, foolish people sometimes point to certain spots in the robe and say: "O why did he not leave that out!" not knowing that every action of man is a sequence from off fate's spindle.

Great men are not so great as we think them, and dull people are not quite so dense as they seem. It is really a question in my mind whether the great man ever existed. Seen at an angle across the distance, so the light strikes on a certain facet of his being, we say the man is brilliant. In his own household he is probably considered something else. He is great to us only because we do not know him. He does a few things well, but special talent in any direction is purchased with a price. If you have much skill in certain lines, you are lacking in other directions. Like a chain, a man's real strength is in his weakest part.

You had better learn to accept all the small misfits and trivial annoyances of life as a matter of course. To allow them to receive attention beyond their deserts is to wear the web of your life to the warp. Be on the lookout for the great joys and never let mosquitoes worry you into a passion.

Concealment is friction. A secret gnawed.

All there is of life is to do our work (which is only play) as well as we can and be kind.

Gossip is only a lack of a worthy theme.

The average man is a victim of arrested development—the passing years bring an increase of knowledge only in very exceptional cases. Health and prosperity are not pure blessings—usually a certain element of discontent is usually necessary to spur men on to a higher life.

Had a Close Call.

Mrs. Ada L. Croom, the widely known proprietor of the Croom hotel, Vaughn, Miss., says: "For several months I suffered with a severe cough, and consumption seemed to have its grip on me, when a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. I began taking it, and three bottles affected a complete cure." The fame of this life saving cough and cold remedy, and lung and throat healer is world wide. Sold at J. C. Perry's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
