GIGANTIC PARADE IN NEW YORK FOR TAFT

GIRLS INJURED IN PANIC FOLLOWING CRY OF FIRE IN FACTORY

HOW THE POLITICAL SITUATION STANDS ALL OVER THE U. S.

NON-PARTISAN SUMMARY OF CONDITIONS IN EVERY STATE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 New York, Oct. 31.—The following non-partisan outlook for Tuesday's presidential election prepared by the United Press is the result of boiling down all the figures and data available at the national and congressional headquarters of the two parties. Reports of candidates in the various states by special correspondents; summaries of figures arranged by partisan statisticians; and the estimates of the United Press staff correspondents with the two presidential candidates:

Alabama—Normal Democratic majority certain.
 Arkansas—Usual Democratic majority expected. Clarke (Democrat) nominated at the primaries for senator is certain of election owing to the strong Democratic legislature.
 California—Undoubtedly Republican, as usual. Senator Perkins (Republican) has no avowed opponent for election. There will be no election for governor and a Republican legislature seems assured.

VON BULOW RETIRED BY EMPEROR

GERMAN RADICALS JUBILANT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Berlin, Oct. 31.—Following the trouble with the German parliament over the proposed new taxation scheme, Chancellor Von Bulow resigned today. The announcement of his resignation has caused great excitement here. The radical members of the Reichstag are jubilant.
 "It is understood that Emperor William caused the retirement of Chancellor Von Bulow because of dissatisfaction at Germany's international position. The recent tense situation in Europe that followed

STAMPEDE IN PANTS FACTORY

SCARED WOMEN JAM STAIRWAYS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 31.—Six girls were seriously injured today in a rush of 200 panic-stricken women operators for the stairways and elevator of the Isaac Epstein Pants factory after an alarm of fire had been sounded.
 Two hundred operators were working on the sixth and seventh floors of the building when the cry of fire was raised. In the rush to safety that followed, the stairway became jammed with fighting, became jammed with fighting, struggling, cowering young women. Those who were hurt were foremost in the throng and fell under the feet of their terrified companions.
 Howard Hill, a negro elevator operator, retained his presence of mind and took all the girls to safety.

TRAVELING MAN'S WIFE A SUICIDE

OFFERS HER BODY TO COLLEGE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 31.—After trying to sell her body to Dr. Geo. W. Kress, secretary of the Medical college of the university of Southern California, Mrs. Helen Sutherland Douglas, the beautiful young wife of Jack Douglas, a traveling man for Huffman and Worser, wholesale grocers of San Francisco, committed suicide by shooting herself through the neck with a 32-calibre revolver. Her body was found today in a room in the hotel Acacia, on West 60th street, and it is believed she killed herself sometime in the night.
 Mrs. Douglas was separated from her husband several months ago and had been living at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Browning, at Pasadena. A week ago she came to

HUNDRED THOUSAND MARCHERS

OF ALL TRADES OUT FOR TAFT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 New York, Oct. 31.—Nearly one hundred thousand marching men, representing every branch of business began marching today in the great parade of the business men's Republican association in the final demonstration for Taft and Sherman in this city.
 All day the column passed in review at Fifth avenue and Twenty-fourth street before James Schoolcraft Sherman, the vice-presidential nominee and Elihu S. Root, secretary of state. Other prominent Republican leaders in the state and the country were on the reviewing stand.
 At the head of the army rode Rear-Admiral J. B. Coughland, U. S. N., retired, who had been chosen as grand marshal. With him and his aides were Commander W. B. Franklin and Colonel Robert M. Thompson, chiefs of staff. The only carriage in the line were occupied by members of the league, committees of the business men's Republican association.
 The thousands of organizations began forming in the side streets adjacent to the Battery and Bowling Green, where the start was made early in the day. Marshalled by the division commanders, the units in the column gathered in the thoroughfares for a mile around awaiting their turn to advance along the flag decked, humanity packed lane of Broadway.
 At the head of the column, following the officers and carriages, rode a detachment of the Metropolitan police, and after them came the voters.
 Every conceivable branch of business was represented. The financial and commercial branches of the industrial life of the city, the small tradesmen and the great merchants had their delegations in line.
 Prominent in the column was a solid marching mass of 300 lawyers. Doctors and merchants, tailors and brokers, marched in their divisions carrying Republican insignia or wearing distinctive clothing or hats.
 Hundreds of hands, recruited from the entire state of New York and from the adjoining states of Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New Jersey were in line.
 By 2 o'clock it was estimated that 50,000 men had passed the reviewing stand and that only a little more than half the column had passed.
 Later in the day, wagonloads of torches and transparencies were taken to the point of starting with which to equip the marchers when darkness comes on.
 Annoyed by Tammanyites.
 Along the line of march Tammany banners angered the men in line. Tammany employes badgered the marchers and clashes between the marchers and spectators were frequent.
 MOTORMAN GIVENS HAS SHOULDER DISLOCATED
 In getting off a fast-moving car today Geo Givens had his shoulder bruised and probably dislocated. It seems he slipped and fell, and had to be cared for by Dr. Miles. His injuries are not serious.

SOME IMPORTANT EVENTS

Roosevelt exposed the trickiness of Rockefeller in saying he was a Republican so as to send as many votes over to the other side for Bryan as possible.
 General H. C. Corbin says fool women have caused more trouble among army officers and that nothing can be done with the latter because of the women.
 Duke d'Abuzzi and Catherine Elkins will be married about the first of the year. A million dollar dowry goes with the bride.
 Czar Nicholas has lectured Prince George of Serbia for his tactless utterances.
 Hitchcock, in a final canvass, forecasts 325 electoral votes for Taft, or a majority of 82.
 The body of Fred C. Ammon, a German, 21 years of age, was found near Los Angeles with a bullet hole in the head and half eaten by coyotes.

PAY $500,000 COOS MINE AND STEAMER

Marshfield, Or., Oct. 31.—M. N. Kauppenberg and Cold H. Butta, general manager and president of the Spokane syndicate which has bought the Libby mine here, arrived in the city today. The mine was bought from the Oregon Coal & Navigation company, and the purchase includes 3680 acres of land and the steamer M. F. Plant, which recently met with an accident. It is understood the purchase price was $500,000.
 For some weeks past an option has been held on the property, and it is now given out that the deal is closed. The Spokane syndicate is incorporated as The Spokane-Yakima & West Coast Railway company. It is announced by those of the company who are here that they are highly pleased with the coal property, and will push its development.
 Announcement is also made that they will probably put on another steamer the first of the year between this city and San Francisco.

FIRST ELECTION RIOT REPORTED

Lebanon, Ind., Oct. 31.—A pre-election riot was reported here this afternoon by the craze that Republicans are violating the anti-boodie agreement. Revolvers and knives were drawn and there were a number of fist fights but the police prevented the serious injury of any one.

LOS ANGELES SEEKING EMPLOYMENT.

She was unsuccessful in her search and last Wednesday went to Dr. Kress and offered to sell him her body for use in the medical college after her death. The doctor refused to consider the woman's offer and she departed after telling him that she wished her body to be used in scientific work and promising that she would will it to the medical college.
 When the woman's body was found a piece of paper revealing her identity and giving the address of her mother, was discovered together with a sealed note addressed to Dr. Kress. This note will be sent to Dr. Kress late this afternoon.

ROCKEFELLER INDIVIDUALLY IN FAVOR OF TAFT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Cleveland, O., Oct. 31.—Relatives and close associates of John D. Rockefeller declare today that the announcement of his support of Taft is the logical outcome of his statements early last fall.
 "It is foolish to suppose that Rockefeller made the announcement for the purpose of hurting Taft," said W. C. Rudd, a brother-in-law of the oil king today. "Rockefeller made an announcement early in the campaign approving Taft's candidacy for the presidency, and he has always been a Republican. His support is merely that of a party man and a citizen. The statement that it was given in return for promises of immunity is equally foolish."
