HOLLAND DECLARES WAR ON VENEZUELA

TAFT GETS TREMENDOUS OVATIONS AT CLOSING SPEECHES

LOCKADE OF PORTS ORDERED

TAFT IGNORED TIME LIMIT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
The Hague, No. 2.—War was virtually declared on Venezuela today
by the Dutch government ordered blockade of all Venezuelan ports.
Orders were sent to the commanders of the Dutch battleships at Willemstad last Saturday and it is believed these orders directed that a blockade be enforced beginning today. The government is preparing to send more war ships to the scene of the blockade of all Venezuelan ports was ordered by Holland after

RUSSIA TO STAND BY PROVINCES

RUSSIA WITHDRAWS FROM CONFERENCE

St. Petersburg, Nov. 2.—Although the officials of the foreign office decline to discuss the matter, it is intimated in diplomatic circles today that Russia will withdraw from participation in the proposed Balkan conference, and will refuse to recognize Austria-Hungary's annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina.
That this move is contemplated by Russia is positively asserted by the parliamentary leaders of the Douma, but is not verified by members of the diplomatic corps of the government.

VICTORY OF TAFT IN DOUBT

THREE BIG STATES UNCERTAIN

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—Walter
Wellman, in writing in the Record-
Herald today, says:
Election week dawns with the Republican managers are hopeful, as usual. Signs point to Taft's triumph, but some unsettled conditions may reverse this prediction.
"The result of the Rockefeller incident is uncertain.
"It is not known how powerful
the labor vote is in Indiana, Ohio
and New York. Are the Republicans
in the labor unions joining Gomp-

SACRIFICES FORTUNE BY MARRIAGE

BY AGT GIRL LOSES $2,000,000

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Nov. 2.—Believing that Edwin P. Short, son of the Wisconsin and Michigan millionaire
lumber magnate, and Miss Barly Hedrick, a 19-year-old Pittsburg girl of prominent family are living in this city following an elopement, the police are seeking the couple. The chief of police today receive a request from the Pittsburg authorities to detain them, although no charge has been brought against them in Pittsburg.
The request from Pittsburg has revealed that Miss Hedrick, if she has married, Short, has forfeited $2,000,000.
The property which consisted of bonds of the Borough of Bronx, N. Y., city, was left to her by an aunt, with the provision that Miss Hedrick should marry with the approval of her parents.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE IS ASSURED

BY REMARKABLE ENTHUSIASM

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Youngstown, O., Nov. 2.—Immense crowds are arriving here all day to indicate that the closing of the Republican campaign tonight will eclipse the enthusiasm that marked the opening of the campaign
here last September, when Governor Hughes spoke.
Taft is scheduled to speak here tonight and Secretary Garfield and Senator LaFollette are speaking at meetings this afternoon.
An industrial parade, reviewed by Taft, this afternoon is a feature of the day's campaigning.

BIG GAIN IS CLAIMED BY SOCIALISTS

EXPECT TO POLL 1,200,000

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—A. M. Simons, of the Socialist national committee today declared that the Socialist party would poll 1,000,000 or 1,200,000 votes tomorrow. He estimates that the vote in Illinois will be 100,000 and 54,000 of these will be cast in Cook county. This will be a gain of 25,000 in Illinois, and a gain of 600,000 in the entire United States.
SOCIALISTS EXUBERANT OVER CONDITIONS
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—Eugene V.
Debs, Socialist candidate for president, started for a tour of the state in the final dash of the campaign today. He will close his canvass tonight at Terra Haute, where a big meeting will be held. Debs declared that the indications show an enormous increase in the support of the Socialist party throughout the middle west. The leaders here are particularly pleased with the showing in the last few days.
At the party headquarters it was announced today that the Socialist vote in Chicago will be 60,000 and that the vote in the state will be 100,000.
The leaders of the other parties
today estimate the Socialist vote in this city at 40,000. The Debs' men are well pleased with the results of the campaign and say that the vote
tomorrow will mark a new era in Socialism in the United States.

SOME IMPORTANT EVENTS

Odds against Bryan are 8 to 1, as against 5 to 1 on two previous campaigns.

The Republican forecast today is 301 for Taft, 147 for Bryan and 34 doubtful.

Poses and dogs are tracing two desperadoes, supposed to have committed recent robberies in Manly, Neb., and of having killed a nightwatchman.

The Democrats claim Bryan will get 333 votes.

Four husky chauffeurs attended a wedding ceremony on Halloween of another chauffeur, and, six hours after the ceremony, whisked off the bridegroom and held him captive in a dungeon until noon the following day.

A revolt is on among the students of the Washington State University, and President Kane was burned in effigy early Sunday morning. The trouble is caused because of social restrictions.

The registration in Oregon shows 133,178 voters, of which 86,396 are Republicans.

The University of Oregon football team defeated the Idaho players by a score of 27 to 21.

A burglar, dressed in a dress suit, worked among the guests at a fashionable reception in Chicago yesterday, and secured $1500 worth of jewelry.

It is claimed that the Oregon railroads have been assessed for only about one-third of their value.

Albany's apple fair begins November 10; one of the principal features will be the opening of the union depot.

Five thousand clerks in Washington have left the national capital to go home to vote.

John H. Colvin, who died recently in Portland, was born in Indiana in 1825, and came to Oregon in 1865.

Archbishop Christie has dedicated the new academy at Albany.

It is estimated that far less than $10,000 has been bet upon the election in Portland—less than at any previous election.

It is believed that the parents of the young woman do not approve of Shore and that the money will be forfeited.

Mrs. Hedrick, the girl's mother, has written to the police here to spare no expense in endeavoring to find her daughter.

Heved to have robbed the women's apartment shop of Wolf & Hawley of several thousand dollars in goods. The robbery was discovered today when employees of the firm entered the store.

While the actual burglary was done by a woman, as the story of the police, say a woman entered the store Saturday afternoon with a young man and indicated to him the particular articles to be taken. Only the most valuable walsts, mirebeaux handbags and pieces of jewelry are missing. The intruder showed a nice discrimination and it is believed he acted under the woman's directions. No attempt apparently had been made to open the safe.

Entrance was gained by boring a hole in the flooring at the rear of the building. No clew was left by the couple.

CHINESE ENTERTAIN AMERICANS AT TEA

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Amoy, China, Nov. 2.—The feature of today's entertainment to the officers and men of the American battleship fleet is the reception given them by the foreign colony on the island of Kulangsu.

During the day reception teas were given to the officers of the fleet by wealthy Chinese merchant and officials. Social entertainments are planned for the evening.

MAN AND WOMAN COMMIT BURGLARY

(United Press Leased Wire.)

BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSE IN CLEVELAND

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cleveland, O., Nov. 2.—Taft was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm when he spoke here this afternoon. He was greeted at the depot by the Republican marching clubs, while bands blared forth their welcome to the Republican candidate.

Many business houses closed their doors, and a general holiday was declared. The clerks for mail the stores and many factory men were on hand to listen to Taft speak.

He was escorted from the train to the Central Armory, where he spoke to a crowd that overflowed into the street.

Taft and his party left at 2 o'clock for Youngstown.
