LOTS OF FUN IN HIP! HIP! HOORAY

"Hip Hip Hooray!" in which Rice and Cady, the famous comedians of the East are starring this season will be at the Grand opera house on Monday night with the original New York production from Weber's hall. "Hip Hip Hooray!" is a risqué of the college plays and is a great deal of fun in it. The first scene is in the front of Doolittle College and the celebrated Yale is in the foreground. This is filled with college boys and later girls come on as members of a real comedy company; they have on the fence more or less, too, but what would be the use of such a thing? Finally Mr. Rice and his partner, Cady, come in and sell the college boys a new fast food called "Excited Oats." It begins the plot. The second act is a boat house and the scene changes to a river where a big party boat race is rowing and a chorus appears in rowing clothes. There are a lot of good fun-makers in the company and the audience is laughing most of the time. The Jokes are about as keen as any you can find and there are a score of good songs.

AM A MOTHER

How many American women in lonely homes to-day long for this blessing to come into their lives, and to be able to utter these words, but because of some organic derangement this happiness is denied them. Every woman interested in this subject should know that preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardstown, Ky., writes: "I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?
Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
