CITY NEWS.

Weather— Occasional rain tonight and Wednesday.

Save Your Apples—

We buy all kinds of apples, suitable for cider and vinegar. Sacks furnished. Gideon Stolz Company, corner So. Summer and Mill streets. Phone Main 26. 10-23-15t.

A Quiet Election—

Under the corrupt practices act there is no more hauling voters to the polls. So both county committees decided to hire no cabs, a strict enforcement of the laws permitted no great interest taken in the presidential election today. The voting is very quiet and the day has had almost the appearance of Sunday.

Mrs. E. H. Harris—

Gave a dinner party last evening. The guests were delighted with the coffee. Mrs. Harris always uses Folders' Golden Gate whole roast and grinds it herself, not too fine, pulverized coffee is better.

Now Is the Time

To get that new set of single or double harness. Give F. E. Shafer a trial.

Of Course—

You want the best. Why look further? Call up 311. J. M. Lawrence can fill the bill.

If You Want—

Appreciate Hospitality—

The Young Women's Christian Association of Willamette University wish to express their appreciation and gratitude for the generous hospitality extended by the citizens of Salem to the delegates at the recent conference. Entertainment committee.

Aid Society Meeting—

The ladies Aid Society of the First Methodist church will hold its first monthly meeting in the Sunday school assembly room at 2:30 Wednesday. At 3 p. m. Mrs. Prof. Tausch will lecture on "Gustavus Adolphus."

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 3.—

Fine weather gave the voters great encouragement today and a heavy vote

MORE BALLOTS

Butte, Mont., Nov. 2.—There was an early heavy vote in Butte. The result in the county will be close, but outside reports indicate that the state will go for Taft by about 7000.

Pendleton, Or., Nov. 3.—With perfect weather prevailing a heavy vote is being cast in Umatilla county. This is considered favorable for a Republican majority. Indications are that the normal Republican majority of about 600 will be cut to less than 100.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 3.—Fine weather gave the voters great encouragement today and a heavy vote was cast. The Republicans claim Spokane and the county by about 4000, while the Democrats claim a victory for Bryan.

POLLING NOT SO HEAVY

IN NEW ENGLAND

Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—Reports throughout New England today show that good weather prevails. Despite this, early balloting indicates the vote will be below normal.

Higen, the Independence party candidate, and his supporters are making a hard fight to carry Massachusetts and their workers are at all the polling places.

Rhode Island, New Hampshire, torn by hot state fights which are attracting interest from the presidential campaign, will bring out the full vote in both commonwealths.

Vermont and Maine, both of which held state elections recently, are polling and unusually large vote.

SAN FRANCISCO LABOR

POLLING FOR BRYAN

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—A dense fog that was not dispelled by the sun until after 10 o'clock held back the early morning vote in the residence sections of San Francisco. The fog did not seem to effect the Mission, however, where the laboring men have a fight on in an effort to elect George Tracey, president of the State Federation of Labor, to congress in opposition to E. A. Hayes of San Jose.

The laboring men were at the polls early in this district, and it seems to mean in San Francisco, a large vote will be cast for Bryan.

Roseburg, Or., Nov. 3.—The warm sunshine brought out the voters here in full force today. The indications are that the heaviest vote in the history of the city will be cast.

GOVERNOR HUGHES WAS AN EARLY VOTER

New York, Nov. 3.—Governor Charles E. Hughes was one of the first voters in line at the polling places near the Hotel Astor, which is his legal residence.

He cast his vote quickly and as he left the polls was greeted by a group of newspaper men, who asked him for an expression. He predicted the election of Taft and his own re-election as governor.

The governor went immediately to Grand Central station and returned to Albany. He will receive the returns tonight at the executive mansion.

BRYAN IS AS

CONFIDENT AS EVER

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—"Our fight is won. I await the verdict with confidence. Reports indicate that we will carry New York, Indiana, Nebraska and other doubtful states."

This is the election day message of William J. Bryan to the Democrats of the country.

He voted early and it required just 20 seconds for him to cast his ballot. There are only a few voters in the Fairview precinct.

Now for mountain water.

There is nothing else "just as good" as Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure, and the other kinds cost just as much as this famous remedy.

ROOSEVELT AND SON CAST BALLOT

Oyster Bay, L. I., Nov. 1.—President Roosevelt cast his ballot at 10 o'clock this afternoon in the polling place of his precinct which are located in a room over a barber shop.

A group of newspaper photographers had arranged to get a snapshot of the President voting. The powder failed to go off, as arranged, and the picture failed.

The President laughed heartily at the predicament of the photographers, and said:

"I beat you that time boys!"

Mrs. Roosevelt and Congressman Cocks, who represents this district accompanied the President and his son to the polls.

When the President completed his vote, he entered the booth and cast his first vote. He used the same ballot as he had used in his father. He evidently had trouble in marking his ballot.
