NO. 213

PRISON KING C. W. MORSE TO SERVE 15 YEARS DEMAND MADE THAT KAISER CURB HIS POLICIES OR ABDICATE

FINANCIER GETS LONG SENTENCE

CURTIS ESCAPES PENALTY

(United Press Leased Wire)
New York, Nov. 6.—Charles W. Morse, until a few months ago, king and prominent factor in the financial world, must spend 15 years in state prison. Judge Hough this morning passed this sentence on the convicted man.

Sentence was suspended in the case of Alfred H. Curtis, former president of the Bank of North America. The men were found guilty yesterday of misappropriation of the funds of the bank and falsification of records.

A SPECIAL TRAIN FOR SALEMITES

TO GO TO ALBANY'S APPLE FAIR

With a brass band, bells and a jolly crowd aboard, the special train give good references. Apply at leaves Salem for Albany to attend the Albany Apple Fair next Thursday, "Salem Day." A good, jolly crowd of Salemites it is expected will go up on the special train, which leaves in the afternoon. It is hoped Salem will at least make as good a showing at the Albany Apple Fair as Albany does each time at Salem's Cherry Fair.

The excursion to the Albany Apple Fair is a settled fact and will take (Continued on Page 5.)

GOMPERS TO GO BEFORE FEDERATION

AND MUST EXPLAIN HIS STAND

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—Before he left here today to attend the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor at Denver, Samuel E. Gompers, president of the organization, gave out an interview, in which he declared that he is not a candidate for re-election as president of the federation.

"I am not a candidate for re-election as president of the American Federation of Labor in the sense that I seek the office," declared Gompers. "But if I am not active as president, (Continued on page five.)

MISSING GIRL IN BOSTON

SAY DISTRACTED PARENTS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Alameda, Cal., Nov. 6.—Broken hearted by the mysterious disappearance and absence of her daughter, Edna Clark, the fair-haired art student for whom the police of many cities are seeking, Mrs. A. E. Mack is at her home today in a state of mental and physical collapse.

The only cheering news that has been given to the woman, who is hysterical, is that her daughter on the day of her disappearance purchased a ticket for Boston, at the Oakland ticket office of the Santa Fe road. The family faintly hope that a letter from the girl will soon arrive.

The identity of Miss Clark, as the agitated girl who bought a ticket for Boston on October 27, was established by Ticket Agent T. A. Rigdon of the Santa Fe and by the family.

TOO MANY MISTAKES BY KAISER

PEOPLE DEMAND HE KEEP OFF

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Berlin, Nov. 6.—As the culmination of weeks of protests against the diplomatic errors of the German foreign office, Editor Hardin of "Die Zukunft," today came out with the bold declaration that the kaiser must either curb his tendency to engage in controversial politics or abdicate the throne.

The utterance is considered the boldest that has ever appeared in a German newspaper. It has created great excitement here and there is talk that Hardin will be called to task for his editorial.

Berlin, Germany, Nov. 6.—Germans are today demanding the complete re-organization of the foreign office. The press is insistent that the affairs of the foreign office be left to a minister who will have complete charge of foreign affairs without in-

LOVERS OUTWIT FATHER

MARRY WITH AID OF MOTHER

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Nov. 6.—Happy in the thought that their scheming, matched against that of an irate father, who opposed them at every turn, finally resulted in their marriage, Master Signal Electrician Jeffries, stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco, and his bride, formerly Miss Clara Niederhauser, are today sailing the ocean on their honeymoon trip to the Golden Gate city.

The fact that Mrs. Niederhauser, mother of the bride, aided the elopers in every possible way against the wishes of her husband has added greatly to the joys of the pair. After Miss Niederhauser's father had forbidden his daughter's lover to enter his home again the couple arranged for an elopement yesterday.

After eluding the watchful father, Miss Niederhauser waited two hours at the church of the Immaculate Conception for the groom, who thought he was to meet her at the cathedral of St. James.

The bride was in tears when her lover arrived. The latter, with his best man, J. C. Hagerman, a local army recruiting officer, were almost distracted with fears that the father had discovered the plot.

The mother was unable to leave the house because the father failed to go to work that morning and finally, when Jeffries telephoned there for an explanation, set him aright as to directions and he hurried off to the proper church, where the bride and her sister had gone. The mother also finally eluded the father and hurried to the church, where the ceremony was performed by Father Robert Smith, just one-half hour before the sailing of the boat which was to carry them to San Francisco.

SOME IMPORTANT EVENTS

C. W. Morse and Alfred H. Curtis, director and ex-president, respectively, of the National Bank of North America, were yesterday found guilty of misapplication of the bank's funds, and of falsifying the books.

The new $5 gold pieces being turned out by the mints have depressed instead of aided faces.

At the banquet given Taft last night in Cincinnati, he told the business men to go ahead full blast, but to keep within the pale of the law.

Hostilities are threatened between Germany and France, because of trouble at Casa Blanca.

Judge Grosscup is to quit the bench after Taft is inaugurated; it is rumored he is hanging on because of his enmity to Landis.

The Socialists are claiming that the final count will show that their party has doubled since the election of 1904.

Rigdon told the police that he recognized the photograph of Miss Clark to be that of the purchaser of the ticket. He particularly described a pin the girl wore.

Relatives declare that Edna Clark owned and wore such a pin. They say a stone was lost from the pin several weeks ago and that it was repaired by the girl's grandfather, Elijah Clark, who is a retired jeweler. The stone that was replaced was of a darker hue than the others. A few feet away the pin still had the appearance of having a stone missing.

Rigdon says that the girl told him she wished a ticket cancelled that she had purchased in San Francisco. She appeared greatly agitated and hesitated about buying the Boston ticket. The ticket had stop-over privileges for the grand canyon and Chicago.

The family believe that the girl went to Boston, as she had often expressed her desire to study in the Boston Academy of Art.

KILLS HIMSELF BY CHEWING TONGUE AWAY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 6.—One of the strangest cases of suicide ever reported has just been found through the death of Arthur Newman, a pioneer, who actually killed himself by chewing his tongue to a pulp.

After he was found in his cell bleeding from the mouth a hurried examination disclosed the novel means the man had adopted to end his life. He was rushed to a hospital but soon died from heart failure and loss of blood. He was serving the last year of a five years term for burglary.

CALIFORNIA SEEKS TARIFF REVISION

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—The members of the general committee on tariff revision for the state of California, called together by the California Promotion committee, began preparing today a report to be presented to the ways and means committee of the house at the approaching session. According to Judge N. P. Chipman, of Sacramento, the committee will work night and day to prepare the data.

Judge Chipman yesterday declared that the action of Chairman Serrano Payne in suddenly calling the congressional committee together appeared for the purpose of forestalling possible protestors to its suggestion for the revision of the tariff.

The local committee received urgent requests from Congressman Needham, of California, who is a member of the congressional committee, to carry the report and forward it, as the first meeting is set for next Monday.

All of the sub-committees considering the aspects of the tariff on specified industries have endorsed a high protective tariff but have failed to append arguments for its retention. This failure will be remedied before the final report of the local committee is forwarded.
