OUR PRUNE CROP LABELED "SALEM"

Douglas County Prunes Are Shipped As Product of Willamette Valley by Local Houses.

Douglas county certainly comes in for its regular share of "knocks." What do you think of shipping prunes from the banner prune county in the state and labeling them as coming from Salem?

That is the exact condition of affairs with the two local packing houses operating in this city, the H. S. Gile Co., and the Tillson packing house, both concerns using a Salem label on all boxes containing prunes shipped from this county to local and foreign markets.

That this is a rank injustice to the farmers and the people of the county goes without saying, and the matter should receive immediate attention from the local Commercial club. The idea of giving the Willamette valley credit for something they are not entitled to in the least! It is an outrage, and the head office of the above two institutions, located at Salem, should be appealed to in a convincing manner to alter their present manner of labeling the fruit.

A News representative called on Secretary Zuercher yesterday and asked him if he was cognizant of the foregoing facts. He stated he was and the managers of the two local packing houses had been asked to use a Douglas county label. The expense offered was that the labels were already printed and furnished from headquarters at Salem. They did not wish to go to any unnecessary expense in getting a separate supply. Mr. Zuercher also stated that the export trade of the H. S. Gile Co. was made up in this city—bearing the Salem label, of course—and instead of Douglas county getting its rightful share of advertising in the prune markets of the world, it falls to Salem and the Willamette valley.

It is now up to the people of Roseburg and Douglas county to get busy and demand a proper credit of their produce.

having to submit to injustices of this nature? If it is impossible to get our fruit properly labeled by the two local packing houses we would suggest the installation of a packing house of our own.

It pays to advertise, but substituting the label of another town for our own is nothing short of the rankest misrepresentation and unprincipled business methods.—Roseburg News
