SALEM SOCIETY NEWS OF THE WEEK

By MISS MOLLIE RUNCORN, Phone 1534

Reception at Y. M. C. A.

The open house reception given yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, in celebration of the completion of the association's new rooms, was an artistic success. Many prominent society matrons interested themselves in its behalf, and it is to them that much credit is given. About 1500 people called during the afternoon and evening, and all were enthusiastic about the different departments and the new rooms and their fittings, which have been made possible through the diligent work of the boys and the board of directors. The rooms are finished in Oregon fir, stained a light oak. The floors being also of this material. The wall coverings are of red and green burlap. The rooms will be used for club purposes. For the occasion they were decorated with ivy, ferns and palms.

Five autos, furnished by business men, carried guests to and from the building. The Presbyterian orchestra, assisted by Prof. Stulenmeyer, Miss Stege, Delbert Burton and Lee Walton, furnished the music.

The reception committee was composed of Mrs. A. H. Dodd, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. P. H. Raymond, Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Mrs. F. W. Benson, Mrs. Robert Eakin, Mrs. R. S. Bean. In the evening Hon. T. B. Kay, Prof. W. I. Staley, Mr. Clarence Bishop and Mrs. A. H. Dodd received. During the afternoon tea and wafers were served. Mrs. Chauncey Bishop and Mrs. Clifford Brown were at one table and Mrs. Harry Albert and Mrs. C. L. McNary at another, and at a third Mrs. George F. Rodgers and Mrs. Robert McKinnis Hofer. During the evening a program was given in the gymnasium. Toasts were responded to by Secretary Stone, of the Portland Y. M. C. A.; Mayor Rodgers and Prof. W. I. Staley. C. L. McNary was unable to take a place on the program on account of ill health. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith and the Stalwart quartet delighted the guests with vocal numbers. The grand promenade was a pleasant feature. Punch was served at two tables in the evening by Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Miss Loucen Moreland, Miss Althea Moores, Mrs. R. K. Page, Miss Veda Cross and Robert McKinnis Hofer.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodall Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodall are home from a two-weeks' honeymoon trip. They will be at home to friends after December 1, at their new residence on Court street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets.

Closing of Cannery.

The closing of a very successful season of the Salem Mutual cannery Thursday was marked by a "jolly-up" given in the evening, which was attended by about 100 of present and former employes. The building had been cleaned for the occasion and was decorated and lighted with Japanese lanterns. General merrymaking was enjoyed, and a light lunch served. Manager Fisher was presented with a handsome gold watch fob by the employees.

U. of O. Students Here.

A special from Eugene came down this morning bringing over 150 students to witness the big game between Salem and Eugene high schools this afternoon. A number of Salem boys, attending the U. of O. also came down to witness the game and spend Sunday with parents and friends. Among them are: Carl Gabrielson, Will Mott, Alonzo Perkins, Bill Perkins, Ormond and Hal Bean, Ralph Cronise and Harvey Slater.

Whist Party.

An informal whist party was held in St. Joseph's hall last Thursday evening. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour passed.

Dinner Party.

Miss Luella Goode entertained with an informal dinner of eleven covers at her home on North Commercial street last night. The table centerpiece was of pink carnations and the place cards were done in water colors. During the evening card games were also enjoyed. Guests were: Mr. McChelson, Mr. J. F. Goode, Mrs. Nettie Goode-Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phillips, Claude Lucas, Frank Spiltstone, Joe Welsh, Ruby Wilson, Carrie Knowland.

Rev. N. Shupp, a well-known minister of the Evangelical association and pastor of the Evangelical church of Milwaukie, Or., returned last week from Ohio, bringing with him a bride. Rev. Mr. Shupp slipped away saying that he was called East on a pressing business engagement, and then surprised his friends on his return by presenting his bride. Mrs. Shupp was the widow of the late Rev. S. Alberts, a prominent minister of the United Evangelical church of the Ohio conference. Mr. Shupp is one of the best-known ministers of the Evangelical association in Oregon. The couple have made their home in Milwaukie.

PRESS COMMENT ON #### THE HANFORD TOUR

The opening of Charles B. Hanford's tour gives promise of a continuation of last season's enthusiastic approval. The following newspaper comments are like the proverbial straw and show the current and popular feeling towards his productions this season.

"Mr. Charles B. Hanford, accompanied by Miss Marie Drofna and a good company, presented Shakespeare's great pastoral comedy of 'The Winter's Tale' at the Academy of Music last night, and it may be said that no better presentation of the same play has ever been given in that play house, or any other, for the production was perfect. Mr. Hanford has played many parts in his time, but nothing in which he has appeared has he so clearly proven himself the great artist that he really is as in the dual role of Leontes, King of Sicilia, and Autolycus, a rogue, which character he impersonated last night in a most finished manner.

"The same is true of Miss Drofna, whose portrayal of the characters Hermione, Queen to Leontes, and Perdita, a daughter of the King. In the trial scene, this gifted actress reached the highest point of greatness, and if anything were needed to establish her as a great artist, it was found in the manner of her impersonation of these two difficult roles. Every scene was rich and elegant, and everybody enjoyed the performance."—The Norfolk (Va.) Landmark.

STAR THEATER A #### CREDIT TO SALEM

The little Star amusement place in this city deserves great credit for the manager's sincere efforts to place an attraction before the Salem pleasure seeking people, and he is succeeding in doing so evidently, as the patronage accorded the Star by the theater-goers is flattering. The latest addition to the Star's performance of illustrated singing and the several thousand feet of moving characters which he changes three times a week, is Ed Berg, a singing comedian and character impersonator. Mr. Berg has just left the Orpheum vaudeville circuit, where he has made various successful tours, and his acting is that of a well-versed and experienced man at the business. He keeps continually posted and read up on all the latest amusements and characters and has the ability to carry out his work pleasing to the public.

LITTLE JOHNNY JONES

COMING TO SALEM

The announcement already made that "Little Johnny Jones" will shortly be presented in this city, has enthused every theater-goer in town with a desire to see this phenomenal success which last season was presented in only the very largest cities and scored a degree of success seldom if ever attained by any other musical production. It will be seen here with all the original scenery and will be presented by a company of 75 people, including a large and efficient chorus. The date is Saturday, November 14.

CORBETT MORE OF AN ACTOR THAN FIGHTER

JAS. J. CORBETT IN "FACING THE MUSIC"

Contrary to general belief James J. Corbett is a good farce-comedy actor and not merely a pugilist who is being shoved on to the public on the assumption that he will be a drawing card because of the fame he secured in the ring. "Facing the Music," the farce-comedy in which Corbett appears here at the Grand opera house next Monday night, Mr. Meredith, manager of the opera house, assures us is a good, legitimate comedy, which he guarantees will keep the audience in an uproar a greater part of the time. In addition to the comedy being good, the players will be the best of their kind in the country. Mr. Corbett, having achieved a remarkable success for the short time he has been on the stage, is now at the head of his own company. It will be well worth the while of those believing Corbett to be merely a prize-fighter, to attend the comedy next Monday night and have this misconception corrected.

DEDICATION

to the beautiful new building. The new Wells-Fargo building, which will be ready for occupancy next Wednesday, is 40x26x14, and is a splendid building, situated just north of the depot. It is hoped that a large crowd will come from Salem and elsewhere on

"Salem Day," which is Thursday, November 12. Big preparations are being made to entertain the people from the "Cherry City," as they certainly did show strangers a time never to be forgotten at the Cherry Fair last June.

Salem Special for Albany.

A special train carrying probably 500 Salemites will leave next Thursday for the Albany apple fair. A brass band, hilarity and good feeling will accompany the local people. The train will probably leave about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and return early in the evening.

At a meeting of the Portland Board of Trade yesterday great enthusiasm was shown. One man made a 20-minute canvass and secured 25 names. A round trip rate of $1 will be given, and it is believed every farmer, business man and everyone else who can possibly take a few hours on that day should help make Salem day the biggest ever at the apple fair, and reciprocate the good feeling always extended by Albany towards the Cherry City fair.

The following committee has been selected to make arrangements for the excursion and boost it: F. W. Steusloff, Joe Albert, C. M. Bishop, D. A. Dinsmore, D. J. Fry, I. Greenbaum, D. H. James, J. J. Roberts, Theo. Roth, Seymour Skiff and Harley White.

On Thursday evening, November 5, at the home of Mr. P. J. Baltimore, Mr. Melvin Baltimore and Miss Bessie Garlick were united in marriage by Rev. S. A. Douglas. The groom is a prosperous young man of splendid character, who is in the gun and bicycle business with his father, and the bride is a bright young lady of Yamhill county.

Mr. D. D. Olmstead, of Salem, is in the city, the guest of A. L. Simpson, of the Magnolia laundry, and tomorrow they will both leave for Eugene to attend the convention of Northwest laundrymen.

Miss Helene Robinson, of Portland, formerly of Albany, passed through this noon for Eugene to attend a society meeting Saturday night.

Consul-General Harry B. Miller of Yokohama Japan, one of the greatest and most efficient men in the foreign service, is visiting at the home of his brother, Hon. F. A. Miller, in this city. Mr. Miller is very pleased to be back to the railroad center, and is delighted at the progress it is making. He says that the relationship between Japan and the United States is of the most friendly nature, and not nearly as bad as it has been. He will remain in the United States until March.

The official vote for Linn county was completed this afternoon, and gave Taft a plurality of 359 electors. Bryan received 1808 electors and Taft 2195, Chaffin 149, Debs 211, Hisgen 2. The vote for the county high school was 1782 and against 1720, the majority for being 62.

Governor Chamberlain, upon invitation to attend the opening of the depot and the Albany apple fair, wrote to Manager Daseant, of the Commercial club, that he would be here, and he is taking great interest in the event.

Albany and vicinity has been in a heavy fog all day, making it rather dreary, but, nevertheless, Albany's many outside workers keep busy all the while.

Among the many exhibits one week will be a chrysanthemum show, and, as there are many chrysanthemum lovers in Linn county, it is hoped to be an exhibit of interest to many.

The demonstration train will arrive tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 8:45, and leaving at 10:30 a large number of Linn county farmers will be at the station, and learn how up-to-date farming is done scientifically.

The sandwich merchants at the depot have been ordered to stop selling when the new depot is opened.
