POLICE THINK THEY HAVE HOLD-UP MEN

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Suspected of being the well dressed thugs who held up Wilsey Edwards, a Los Angeles lawyer, several days ago in the shadow of the Fairmont hotel, two men are being held today at the city prison, according to the police, who believe them to be the guilty pair. The names of the two suspects are not given because the authorities hope to arrest two women who are believed to be confederates of the men in custody.

In addition to taking the suspected men into custody, the police claim to have uncovered the den where they secreted the loot.

How Is Your Digestion.

Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 288, 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market today." This great tonic and alterative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, an dwhen you do, get a medecine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and thatis certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale at Dr. Stone'e drug store.

ATTEMPTED TO LYNCH MOTORMAN

San Francisco Nov. 9.—The body of Miss Maggie Melinn an aged woman lies in the morgue today the latest victim of the streetcars of this city. Miss Melinn was struck last night by a Valencia streetcar, dragged 40 feet under the running gear and literally cut in half by the iron wheels.

The sight of the gray haired woman lying lifeless under the car while a wrecking crew was on its way to the scene, so angered the crowd that gathered, that the motorman, J. H. Lance, was attacked and but for prompt action by the police would have been lynched.

After a rope had been secured from a nearby store, a rush was made for Lance by the mob and the motorman and two policemen were knocked down and trampled. At that instant the wrecking crew and two additional policemen arrived and Lance was rescued

The body of Miss Melinn was mangled beyond recognition. All the limbs were broken, the skull fractured and the legs severed from the body.
