

Closing Out Our Portieres

J. L. STOCKTON

THE WHITE CORNER

Sale of Rainproof Dress Goods

At all times our prices can be found lower and our qualities dependable. Several customers have told us during the past week that our regular prices were lower than the other store's sale prices. This is no surprise to us, as we know full well that our economical methods of conducting business and our system of buying for cash direct from the manufacturer enables us to undersell the ordinary merchant.

Ladies' Neckwear

Another lot came Saturday. Our 25c specials are equal to ordinary 50c values and our 15c specials are equal to 25c values.

NECK RUFFS,

AIR CURRENTS DELAY BALLOON

(United Press Lensed Wire.) Los Angeles, Nov. 17.—Drifting silently through a cloudless sky, the balloon United States, second to start in Dick Ferris' transcontinental race, is hovering over Etiwanda, 45 miles east of here, today awaiting a favorable air current to carry it through Cajon Pass, between the San Bernardino and Sierra Madre mountain ranges, into the Mojave desert and thence eastward toward the Atlantic seaboard.

Aeronauts' Message. The following message, written by the aeronauts at 9 o'clock this morning, was picked up at Bloomington: "We have passed around the valley in a circle of about 120 miles, four times during the night. We have been 10,000 feet high and can get nothing but a wind blowing us north. "We cooked breakfast at 7:30 o'clock and feel fine. "We are keeping low to get an easterly drift. "We have 12 sacks of sand left. "Our present altitude is 1000 feet. "Signed.) WILD & LEROYXEZ."

CATHOLIC PRIEST ATTACKS SOCIALISM

(United Press Lensed Wire.) Chicago, Nov. 17.—In a sensational address before the Catholic Missionary congress today, Rev. James Curry made an attack on Socialism and declared that the "settlement worker" is largely responsible for the social unrest of the present age because of his teaching of the poor. "One of the causes of the spread of Socialism today is the teachings of the social settlements," declared Rev. Curry. "The modern Pharisee is exemplified in the social settlement of the present day. The first message sent to Heaven by the Pharisee was a libel on his countrymen. This is the platform of the settlement worker.

"Isn't it wonderful that these settlements are always established in the neighborhood of tenements, omitting entirely the rich districts? "Our settlements shelter a dangerous type. He is a natural product of the socialism of the settlement which is a religion of socialistic science, fellowship and naturalism into which God is taken only as a side issue. It is from his brotherhood that the shaggy headed anarchist and plattitudinous socialist is evolved, bundles of incarnate, misguided theories and energies as directly harmful as the bombs they manufacture.

HERMAN BILLIK AGAIN SENTENCED TO HANG

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Herman Billik, convicted of murder for the alleged poisoning of the Vrzal family, made a final appeal for his life when presented before Judge Barnes to be sentenced today. The court asked the prisoner if he desired to make a statement and the famous necromancer and Voodoo doctor rose, and almost screamed: "I swear before God that I am innocent! I have the right to a new trial because I have been perjured against! "May God have mercy on your soul if you sentence me, an innocent man, to die on the gallows!" The judge's face turned white as Billik shouted at him. He made no display of feeling, however, and pronounced the sentence fixing December 11 as the day for Billik's execution. The prisoner was overcome when he heard the sentence and was helped from the room, being unable to walk. Billik will be hanged at the same time that a negro murderer is executed.
