

RATHER THAN FACE INQUIRY REV. PAYSON YOUNG HAS RESIGNED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Nov. 20.—The vestrymen of the church of St. Mary the Virgin, of this city, are awaiting word today from Bishop William Ford Nichols as to whether to continue the church investigation into the charges that have been presented against Father Payson Young, until last night rector of the church, in connection with the disappearance of Edna Clark, who was missing for over two weeks.

Father Young tendered his resignation to the vestrymen last night when they came to question him as to his dealings with Miss Clark, for whose running away from home he was supposed to have been responsible. Miss Clark has since been found in Chicago, but the vestrymen wanted to know about several stories that have been circulated about Father Young since his name was made public in connection with the affair.

The preacher was sick in bed where he had been ill for several days. He was propped up in his pillows when the committee arrived. "I have been charged with a crime of which I am innocent," declared Father Young to the committee. This girl who has brought disgrace upon me is now in Chicago. She has not communicated with me nor has she involved me in any way with her disappearance, which has been fully explained to her mother, I understand. I am broken in health; very ill. I could not serve you now even if you wished me to.

"You have come here to ply me with questions which it is not only futile but physically impossible for me to answer. You will find this unnecessary, too, as I have prepared my resignation.

"Please leave me in peace as I have nothing to say."

Before Bishop Nichols left for the East he announced that the church investigation must go on even if Young resigned. Therefore it is uncertain as to just what will be done in the matter until the bishop is heard from.

ed Wilson because Wilson had not told the whole truth," said Gallagher in answer to a question if he knew why Wilson was indicted.

"Did you know that the immunity contract you signed was illegal?" asked Ach.

"No I did not and I was surprised when Heney had Wilson indicted."

Ach was stopped by the court from going into the exact time of the signing of the immunity contract and he started out to explain at length, that as he understood the views of the court, those questions would be allowed.

"I understand the views of the court better than you do," retorted Judge Lawler, "and this waste of time will not be allowed."

"You are consuming too much time."

"I can't help how much time it takes, your honor," began Ach.

"I can help it," interrupted Judge Lawler, "and I shall help it."

When Ach later attempted to pin down Gallagher to a categorical answer to a question, Judge Lawler said:

"Let the witness answer the question in his own way."

Ach started another lengthy explanation but was cut short by the court with the curt reprimand.

"I don't care to hear further from you, Mr. Ach, proceed with your questions."

Ach attempted to prove by Gallagher that Heney had asked him to go to Ruef after the supervisors had confessed and offered Ruef immunity if Ruef would testify against the "higher-ups."

"I went to Ruef on my own volition and not at the request of anyone," declared Gallagher stoutly.

The entire session was disastrous for Ruef. Gallagher remained until shaken in his story told on direct examination.

Several times Ruef's attorneys attempted to show that Gallagher had differed from his testimony at the former Ruef trials by reading from the record, but the court would not permit him.

FLEET CONTINUES ON VOYAGE DESPITE TROUBLES IN CHINA

(United Press Leased Wire.)
(By H. Lee Clothworthy, Staff Correspondent of the United Press, with the battleship fleet.)
Manila, Nov. 20.—The battleship fleet, which has been held in reserve during the absence of Rear Admiral Giles P. Harber's Philippine squadron in Chinese waters, will leave here for Colombo, Ceylon, on December 1, according to the announcement of Rear Admiral Charles S. Sperry today.

It was believed for a time that the development in China would cause a change in the sailing schedule of the fleet. The Chinese situation, while grave, does not warrant the retention of the ships in the Philippines, and the battleships are expected to arrive at Colombo on December 14, on scheduled time.

During the stay here, the men of the fleet were denied shore liberty because of the prevalence of cholera.

POOR TOOLS AND A GOOD WORKER

That is What Makes Indigestion,
Dyspepsia, Sour Taste, Foul Breath and Catarrh.

The stomach is a good strong vital organ, which is constantly protecting and feeding every other organ of the body.

It is the most abused, neglected and scorned member of man also. Most men abuse their stomach with under-cooked food, high-living, alcohol, tobacco, pastries and scores of other unhealthy practices.

When the stomach at last sickens of all this abuse and cannot do its full duty, most men are not warned but keep up their assaults on the stomach until at last it rebels and begins to strike back and cry for help. Man by his own abuse has taken away from the stomach the tools to work with.

These tools are the gastric juices which go to make up the digestive agents. From 7 to 35 pounds of gastric juice are turned into the stomach every day.

When poor, poisonous food consumes this juice, dilutes it, robs it of its strength and throws it, a fermented mass from the system, of course there is just that much of the gastric fluid which cannot be readily supplied by the blood.

When food comes into a stomach filled with depleted fluids lacking of power to do their part, the good strong stomach is using poor tools and, of course, cannot succeed in its work.

A condition which often prevails is that which takes place when the gastric juice contains too much alkali. If the juice were wholly alkaline it would not only devour and digest the food but would eat and digest the stomach itself. Such gastric fluid does the digestion no good and attacks the walls of the stomach making them raw and sore and setting up inflammation and irritation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will strengthen a stomach filled with poor gastric juice. They will remove any irritation, sweeten the breath, remove catarrhal conditions and digest food no matter how the stomach has acted before.

These little tablets contain an ingredient, one grain of which will digest perfectly 3,000 grains of food. They will digest an entire meal placed in a jar without the aid of any other force except themselves. They have demonstrated this time after time.

Every druggist carries them in stock; price 50c and 40,000 physicians use them in their practice. Send us your name and address and we will mail you at once a trial package free. Address, F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

The U. S. District Attorney at Washington will request that Frederick A. Hyde and Joost H. Schneider, convicted of committing land frauds be given sentences of two years each and fined $10,000.

BIGGY MAY BE DEPOSED BECAUSE OF HAAS SUICIDE

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—District Attorney Langdon and Detective W. J. Burns are trying to ascertain today just who was responsible for an alleged order to the guards of Morris Haas, the would-be assassin of Heney, that Detective Burns should not be allowed to see Haas. Burns last night filed charges against Policemen Charles R. Kelly and John C. Attridge, two of the Haas' guards. The charges were received by the police commission without comment and the hearing of the case was set for a week from tonight.

District Attorney Langdon, who drew up the complaint, is anxious to get at the bottom of the peculiar antagonistic attitude taken by the members of the police department toward the graft prosecution. If it can be proved that Chief Biggy is anyway responsible for this attitude, it is probable that he will be ousted. A committee of the Citizen's League of Justice has been at work quietly for several days gathering data on the police department and it is thought that sensational charges of sympathy with grafters will be brought against Biggy at the hearing.

J. McLaughlin, chauffeur for William J. Burns last night filed a complaint with the police commission against A. Baker, a saloon keeper, alleging that he is an unfit person to have a liquor license. The complaint is based on the alleged fact that when Baker heard that Heney had been shot, he stated that it was a good thing.

GRAFTER'S ATTORNEY IS CENSURED BY JUDGE

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 20.—Repeated rebukes administered by Judge Lawler to Attorney Henry Ach who is appearing for ex-boss Abraham Ruef in the trial of the indicted boss on a charge of bribery, marked the entire morning session of the trial today. Ach repeatedly disobeyed the court's instructions and was repeatedly called to time.

The court's examination of James Gallagher, the prosecution's chief witness was continued by Ach and it was because of Ruef's attorneys' attempt to impeach the witness by trying to pin him down to minute points of the case and surroundings, that Lawler rebuked him.

Ach declared at the outset of the session that he would show that Gal-agher was "an Ach partisan of the graft prosecution" and that under the impression his testimony against Ruef and other indicted men, makes on Assistant District Attorney Heney, depends whether he himself will be indicted or not.

Ach drew from the witness the fact that Andrew Wilson, a member of the hoodling board of supervisors had been indicted after the signing of the immunity contract between Rudolph Spreckles and the members of the hoodling board. The attorney for Ruef declared that Heney had broken the immunity contract with Wilson because the supervisor had not testified to suit the attorney's for the prosecution.

Heney told me that he had indicted

SAVES WIFE-SINGER BUT MAY LOSE LEG

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Nov. 20.—Herbert Bassett, husband of Mme. Blanche Arral, the concert singer, is threatened with the loss of a leg today as the result of his heroic action in smothering a fire that threatened to burn his wife to death last week.

Bassett was shot in the knee in an encounter with a footpad November 10 and did not secure medical attention for the wound. It was getting along well, when his wife overturned a chafing dish while preparing a supper for her husband last Wednesday.

Bassett jumped out of the bed and smothered the flames that had caught fire to his wife's dress. The burning of the wound on his injured leg made it worse and he was removed to a hospital last night. It was discovered that the knee was infected and a consultation is to be held tonight to determine whether the leg shall be amputated or not.
