

DRAMATIC AND SOCIAL EVENTS

SOCIETY.

STOCK COMPANY HERE ALL NEXT WEEK

"THE HOLY CITY" AT THE GRAND TONIGHT

Lang-Savage. The bride is a well known and popular lady of Portland where she has taken an active part in musical circles, possessing a beautiful soprano voice. Mr. McCully is well known here, where he spent his boyhood days. He is the youngest son of the late David and Mary A. McCully of this city. Mr. and Mrs. McCully will reside at Joseph, Oregon, where he has large business interests.

Henry-Sellwood. An unusually pretty church wedding was that of Miss Lillian Winnifred Sellwood, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Sellwood of this city, and Mr. Paige W. Henry of Canada, which took place Wednesday at high noon, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Barr G. Lee officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives. The church decorations consisted of ferns, ivy and chrysanthemums.

Oliver J. Eckhardt's Ideals are coming to town. Mr. Eckhardt's popular organization will open a week's engagement in the Grand opera house commencing next Monday, November 22. The company this season numbers six in all and includes some well known eastern players—engaged by Mr. Eckhardt to come direct from New York to the Pacific coast for this season's tour, and he unhesitatingly announces this the most complete and talented company ever presented by this management at popular prices.

The presentation of Clarence Bennett's great Scriptural play, "The Holy City," with Miss Latelia Morey as the Siren-like Salome, supported by a powerful caste of excellent actors and presented with the aid of the most complete and beautiful scenery and gorgeous costumes, is an epoch in theatrical entertainments in this city. Miss Morey is one of the most charming and graceful actresses on the stage, full of life, brightness, grace and refinement, and bringing to her work taste, intelligence and dramatic ability of the highest order, she finds in this great emotional character, full scope for her powers and a vehicle for her genius as rare as it is beautiful. The role of Salome runs the entire gamut of human emotions and gives a great actress full opportunity for her best work.

The presentation of Clarence Bennett's great Scriptural play, "The Holy City," with Miss Latelia Morey as the Siren-like Salome, supported by a powerful caste of excellent actors and presented with the aid of the most complete and beautiful scenery and gorgeous costumes, is an epoch in theatrical entertainments in this city. Miss Morey is one of the most charming and graceful actresses on the stage, full of life, brightness, grace and refinement, and bringing to her work taste, intelligence and dramatic ability of the highest order, she finds in this great emotional character, full scope for her powers and a vehicle for her genius as rare as it is beautiful. The role of Salome runs the entire gamut of human emotions and gives a great actress full opportunity for her best work.

Decorations consisted principally of chrysanthemums. In the parlor a bower was arranged of large window of ivy, and laven-chrysanthemums. In the back were white chrysanthemums. The dining room was in yellow, chrysanthemums, grape and ferns being used. Lights were also shaded with yellow Oregon grape and roses in the completed decorations.

With the increased success of each passing season, Mr. Eckhardt has striven to present something new, something better, something that will meet and carry out the idea he had in mind when he took for his company the name "Ideals." Constantly aiming to improve and with the determination of ultimately offering bright, wholesome, satisfying dramatic and comedy productions interpreted in an intelligent manner by players of recognized ability he has brought this season's company to a point of excellence not removed from the perfect and Mr. Eckhardt has reason to feel proud in the coupling of the name Eckhardt to the title of "Ideals," for, with such sterling players as Virginia Duncan, John R. Hazlett and Frederick Sullivan who has been brought direct from Eastern stock companies, and William V. Mong, until this season a syndicate star, the company takes rank with first class organizations and this season presents some of the biggest successes and highest priced royalty plays usually seen in the first class theaters.

With the increased success of each passing season, Mr. Eckhardt has striven to present something new, something better, something that will meet and carry out the idea he had in mind when he took for his company the name "Ideals." Constantly aiming to improve and with the determination of ultimately offering bright, wholesome, satisfying dramatic and comedy productions interpreted in an intelligent manner by players of recognized ability he has brought this season's company to a point of excellence not removed from the perfect and Mr. Eckhardt has reason to feel proud in the coupling of the name Eckhardt to the title of "Ideals," for, with such sterling players as Virginia Duncan, John R. Hazlett and Frederick Sullivan who has been brought direct from Eastern stock companies, and William V. Mong, until this season a syndicate star, the company takes rank with first class organizations and this season presents some of the biggest successes and highest priced royalty plays usually seen in the first class theaters.

SCENE IN "THE HOLY CITY" SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21.

Decorations consisted principally of chrysanthemums. In the parlor a bower was arranged of large window of ivy, and laven-chrysanthemums. In the back were white chrysanthemums. The dining room was in yellow, chrysanthemums, grape and ferns being used. Lights were also shaded with yellow Oregon grape and roses in the completed decorations.

MISS GEORGIA NICHLAS.

Decorations consisted principally of chrysanthemums. In the parlor a bower was arranged of large window of ivy, and laven-chrysanthemums. In the back were white chrysanthemums. The dining room was in yellow, chrysanthemums, grape and ferns being used. Lights were also shaded with yellow Oregon grape and roses in the completed decorations.

The bride wore a dainty gown of cream silk, and carried white carnations. Her veil was held by orange blossoms, worn by her mother, on her wedding day. The bride's maid wore cream colored batiste and carried pink carnations.

Lieutenant Commander Jewell, of the Louisiana, and Lieutenant Bowers, of the Rhode Island, are before a court-martial on charge of misconduct while the fleet was in Japan.

Elite Hotel and Cafe Sunday Dinner. Soup—Cream of Chicken, Parisian; Fried Salmon, Barre Noir; Fried Halibut Steak. Boil—Beef Tongue, Sauce Robert; Chicken Pique; with Dumplings; Fried Cal's Brains, maitre de hotel; Filet of Beef aux Champignons.

Decorations consisted principally of chrysanthemums. In the parlor a bower was arranged of large window of ivy, and laven-chrysanthemums. In the back were white chrysanthemums. The dining room was in yellow, chrysanthemums, grape and ferns being used. Lights were also shaded with yellow Oregon grape and roses in the completed decorations.

The ushers were Messrs. George Skiff and Basil Wagner. Following the ceremony a reception was given at the bride's parents home on North Front street, which was prettily decorated with ferns, ivy, and white chrysanthemums.

Wanted—Any information about a widow who conducted a boarding house in Salem in 1892, one block east of Ladd & Bush's bank, south side of street. Also about a young lady who was a waitress at same place. She was a little lame, and her parents lived on a farm near Salem. Any information please send to Mr. Bobt. Windmiller, 453 South Ohio St., Butte, Montana. 11-20-21

Wanted—Any information about a widow who conducted a boarding house in Salem in 1892, one block east of Ladd & Bush's bank, south side of street. Also about a young lady who was a waitress at same place. She was a little lame, and her parents lived on a farm near Salem. Any information please send to Mr. Bobt. Windmiller, 453 South Ohio St., Butte, Montana. 11-20-21

Decorations consisted principally of chrysanthemums. In the parlor a bower was arranged of large window of ivy, and laven-chrysanthemums. In the back were white chrysanthemums. The dining room was in yellow, chrysanthemums, grape and ferns being used. Lights were also shaded with yellow Oregon grape and roses in the completed decorations.

The following relatives and friends attended the reception: Rev. and Mrs. Barr G. Lee of Salem; Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Sellwood and daughter, of Wood and daughter, of Long Beach, D. Sellwood, of Newberg; T. R. A.

Advertisement for 'INSOMNIA' featuring 'CASCARETS'. The ad includes the text 'Best for The Bowels' and 'THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP'. It also mentions 'Annual Sale, Ten Million Boxes' and provides contact information for the manufacturer, Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or N.Y.

Advertisement for 'CASTORIA'. The ad states 'The Kind You Run Always Bought' and 'Beware the Imitations'. It features the signature 'Castoria' and 'J. C. Ayer & Co.' and mentions 'Annual Sale, Ten Million Boxes'.

CHURCH SERVICES. meetings will continue during the week. There will be no services tonight. D. Erret, minister.

First Methodist Episcopal. Willamette day. President Homan will assist in the services presenting the growth and interests of the University at 7:30 p. m. The pastor will preach on "A Very Peculiar Sinner." Special musical numbers both morning and evening. The public cordially invited.

St. Paul's. Chemeketa and Church street, Rev. Barr G. Lee rector. Usual services at 7:30 a. m., 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 10 a. m. All welcome at all services.

Unitarian. Corner Cottage and Chemeketa streets. Services at 10:30 a. m. Preaching by the minister, Rev. Paul S. Bundy. Subject, "A Call to the Higher Life." Meeting on Thursday evening as usual. No services Sunday evening.

First Presbyterian. Church street near Chemeketa street, Rev. Henry T. Babcock, pastor. Preaching services 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Themes, respectively, "Thankful for the Working of Good in Us," and "How to Become a Christian." Preaching by the pastor both morning and evening. Sunday school at 12 m., Junior Christian Endeavor at 3:30 p. m. Senior Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. No mid-week prayer meeting on account of Union Thanksgiving service. The church orchestra will play as usual at Sunday school and evening service. Public cordially invited to all of these services.

Central Congregational. Nineteenth and Ferry streets. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Rev. O. A. Stillman will have charge of all services tomorrow. Mr. Stillman is working in the interest of the Sunday school, and a full attendance at all the services is desired.

Christian Science. First Church of Christ, Scientist, 440 Chemeketa street. Services Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject of lesson sermon, "Soul and Body." Sunday school at 12:35 p. m. The Wednesday evening meeting is held at 7:30 p. m. Reading room in the church open each afternoon except Sunday. All are cordially invited to attend the services and the reading room.

Lutheran St. John's Church, Missouri Synod. Regular Sunday service at 10:30 a. m. in the German Lutheran St. John's church, corner Center and Fourteenth streets. Geo. H. Engel, pastor.

First Christian Church. Rev. James Small will occupy the pulpit at the First Christian church tomorrow. Morning theme, "The Man Who Sees Good in Suffering"; evening, "The Man Who is Preparing for a Future Life." Bible school 10 a. m., Dr. H. C. Epley, superintendent. Preaching hours, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Professor Shaffer will have charge of the music. Th.

COFFEE. Why doesn't your grocer moneyback everything? Can't get the goods or the money.

EXPLOSION GAS INJURES FOUR IN REDDING HOTEL. (United Press Leased Wire.) Redding, Cal., Nov. 21.—Four persons are in the hospital today suffering from burns received last night in an explosion of gas in a room on the third floor of the Lorenz hotel. John Hale, a bell-boy, who lighted a match to show guests a room ignited the gas which had flowed for several hours from a leaky pipe, was fatally burned. In the explosion which followed, Mrs. H. A. Jones, a chambermaid and Walter Erskine, a porter, were seriously burned and D. A. Lancaster, of San Francisco, was hurled to the floor and badly hurt. The explosion wrecked the room, breaking the windows and blowing the plaster from the walls. No other guests were injured and there was no panic.

Grand Opera House. Jno. F. Cordray, Mgr. ONE WEEK. Starting Monday, Nov. 23. OLIVER J. ECKHARDT. Presents "Eckhardt's Ideals" In a Repertoire of Good Plays Monday: "The Village School Master." PRICES—50c, 35c, 25c, 15c. Seat sale at box office Monday 9 A. M.

Grand Opera House. J. F. CORDRAY, Manager. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21. LE COMTE AND FLESHER Present Luella Morey in "The Holy City" By Clarence Bennett The greatest play ever written founded on Bible history. PRICES—75c, 50c, 25c. Seats on sale Saturday 9 a. m.