Thanksgiving Special for Men

What Have We to Be Thankful For?

Perhaps for a successful business year—Perhaps for some domestic success or happiness which has fallen to your lot—but whatever the reason, be Thankful for something.

Buyers of Lots in Fairport Will Be Thankful Next Year

Thankful that their judgment led them to purchase property in this blue ribbon addition. This property is already on the rise, and in one year will double and triple in value.

Fairport

Is located on the Peninsula, directly next to Kenton, which is the site chosen by the Swifts for their people. The Swifts are today spending nearly a million dollars to improve their site, to build homes for their people, stores, offices, banks, etc. Fairport will have Bull Run water, a magnificent view of rivers, harbors, lakes and mountains, and will be convenient to public schools and churches—25 minutes ride to the heart of Portland. Lots at

$250---$10 Down, $10 Monthly

Call and let us tell you about Fairport and show you a map of it. Yesterday's sales in Portland were 23 lots, so hurry up and make your selection. Office will be open evenings until 9 P. M.

See Local Agent

In Capital Journal Building Opposite Willamette Hotel Phone 82.

He will be in Salem until every resident has had an opportunity to either procure one or more lots, or let you know just what you will miss if you do not buy.

Human Likeness Contest

Suggested to this paper by the coming to the Grand Opera House next Tuesday evening of the romantic play "We Are King," we have decided to run for the next six days a "HUMAN LIKENESS" competition in which all of our readers will be interested and can take part, with a chance of winning a valuable prize.

The play "We Are King" has for its keynote the fact that the throne of Hector, King of Kahnburg, is usurped by another owing to his likeness to the reigning monarch.

This resemblance has suggested this interesting competition. We have selected four of our most prominent citizens and we would like our readers to decide who are the other four people in this city that most resemble them.

MR. GEO. F. RODGERS, Mayor.
MR. HAL D. PATTON, Representative.
MR. J. W. WILLSON, Real Estate Agent.
MR. LARRY MURPHY, Policeman.
MR. EDMUND CARROLL.

The first four are well known to all our readers and the latter only to a few. Mr. Carroll is the star of "We Are King" and plays not only the role of the real king but also of the usurper. We print his picture today and will continue to do so every day until this competition closes.

Competitors should fill out the coupon which is printed in this paper, writing opposite the name of each person the person you deem most like the other. Mail your coupons as you wish, and as many as you wish. The prize winners will be decided by the competition itself. That person who secures the most votes will be decided as being the nearest Human Likeness to Mr. Rodgers and so on through the list. The winning coupons will be those that name the most "HUMAN LIKENESS."

There will 10 prizes offered by this paper. First prize a box seating 5 for the performance of "We Are King" valued at $5. Second prize, four orchestra seats for the same performance valued at $3. And 8 additional prizes of 2 seats each, valued at $1.50.

This paper through its editor will decide the winning coupons. The competition will close at noon, December 1st. All coupons must be at this office before that time. The winners will be announced in Tuesday evening Journal and the prizes will be ready for the winners at the box office of the opera house at 7:30 P. M., December 1st.

Here is a good chance for all our readers. Get busy. The HUMAN LIKENESS competition is not only interesting to you but to all your friends. Talk to them about it. This is absolutely free to all.
