WILL WORK FOR COAST MEASURES

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Jose, Cal., Nov. 27.—"I shall return to Washington determined to do all in my power, in co-operation with my colleagues from the coast states, to secure attention for the growing demands of this section."
Congressman E. A. Hayes, representative from the fifth congressional district, made this statement today on the eve of his departure for the capital. Concerning the coming legislative sessions, he said:
"Many measures of vital importance to the entire coast will come up when congress again convenes. Our navy is one question which concerns us deeply. The whole country is aware of the necessity of navy yards on the coast and getting them in shape to handle a battleship fleet. As to Mare Island, the navy department has recommended an appropriation of $1,700,000 for improvements there, and of course, we will make an effort to secure that amount of money for California."
"As to Bremerton navy yard, I am prepared to co-operate with the members from Washington to secure any appropriations that may be needed to bring it, as well as Mare Island, in a condition where it can take its share of any fleet that may be sent to the Pacific, either in war or peace."
"We also intend to secure an appropriation, whenever the next public building bill is framed and passed for a new sub-treasury building in San Francisco, the site having been provided for at the last session."
"Whatever the legislative department recommends to continue the fortification and improvement of Pearl Harbor, we shall strive to get, and I have no doubt we will be successful."
"We hope to get a large appropriation for the improvement of the Sacramento river whenever the next river and harbor bill passes the house. I shall co-operate with the members from Oregon and Washington to secure necessary appropriations for the dredging of the mouth of the Columbia river."

SELLING OUT A PORTLAND ADDITION

The advertisement of Fairport Addition in this paper shows the way property goes at Portland. In two weeks practically a whole addition to that city is cut up, placed on the market and sold. The lots have gone at the rate of 25 to 50 a day, and people are snapping them up as fast as the deeds can be made out. The terms are ten dollars down, and ten dollars a month. See Mr. Clark at the Journal office, where he has a desk, before the whole addition is gone. No one in Salem has made money on Portland real estate and especially on the Peninsula. Additions all around this are sold off at twice the price of Fairport lots, as these are going under the hammer.

During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. ### TRIED TO KIDNAP DIVORCED WIFE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wa., Nov. 27.—Despite repeated attempts of the police to capture him, R. M. Faulkner, a waiter, who his divorced wife says, attempted to kidnap her Wednesday night, is still at large. A man appeared in the vicinity of the home of J. M. Taylor, the young woman's father last night and drew a revolver. Mrs. Faulkner fled to the home of a neighbor. Two detectives and two patrolmen were sent immediately in pursuit, but the man had disappeared when they reached the house.
Policeman Dan Quinn could not find Faulkner near the house but while driving away saw a man he believed might be Faulkner. The man ran into the brush. Quinn fired a shot in the air to stop him, but he escaped.

Eight-Hour Law Void.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tulsa, Okla., Nov. 27.—The Oklahoma "eight hour" law is believed to be invalidated by decision of a local court today, acquitting the New State Paving Company of a violation of the law because the company showed that the men were anxious to work more than eight hours.

Preparations are being made to fight the case on appeal by those interested in the integrity of the statute involved.
