THE FIRST TO WEAR OUT AND MANY SUFFER

ELDERLY FOLKS WHO SUFFER WITH BAD KIDNEYS OR BLADDER SHOULD MAKE THIS UP.

The great majority of men and women at the age of 50 years begin to feel the first signs of advancing age in some form of kidney trouble and bladder weakness. Few are entirely free from that torturous disease, rheumatism, which is not a disease in itself, but a symptom of a deranged function of the kidneys, which have become clogged and sluggish, failing in their duty of sitting and straining the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, permitting it to remain and decompose, settling about the joints and muscles, causing intense pain and suffering.

The bladder, however, causes the old folk the most annoyance, especially at night and early morning. Hundreds of readers who suffer will find the following, which is known as the Dandelion mixture, the most harmless and effective treatment to clean the system of rheumatic poisons, remove irritation of the bladder and relieve urinary difficulties of the old people. It is a true vitalizing tonic to the entire kidney and urinary structure, reinvigorating the entire system. The Dandelion mixture consists of the following simple prescription, the ingredients of which can be obtained from any good pharmacy at small cost: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and upon going to bed, also drink plenty of water.

This prescription, though simple, is always effective in the diseases and affections of the kidneys and bladder and rheumatism.

TOO MUCH D'ING

would have a bad effect politically. The Kaiser, it is generally realized, is rapidly approaching a tremendous clash with his people. Not much doubt is felt that the country is ripe for a revolt against autocracy or that the first exhibition of the imperial determination to defy the people will precipitate the crisis.

The diplomatic theory is that the transition will not be as difficult as it looks, inasmuch as Wilhelm's power on paper is not so very much greater than King Edward's. As a matter of fact, aided by precedent and through personal force of character, he has been, so far as foreign policy at least are concerned, practically absolute. If the country insists that he confine himself strictly within constitutional limitations, it is figured that he will be robbed of practically all his authority without the necessity for a new law or even an observable political upheaval.

It has been learned that the emperor was kept for a long time in ignorance of the real violence of the storm which was raised over his recent Anglo-German interview in the London Telegraph. The Kaiser really had only the faintest idea of the extent of the popular dissatisfaction with him. Household took pains to keep all but the mildest news commenting on his interview from reaching him. None of the remarks, made either by his own people or by those abroad, were repeated to him. Even the reichstag debate was submitted to him only in a modified form.

Finally, either an intentional or accidental hint was given him by the crown prince, and his suspicion was instantly aroused. He promptly demanded voluminous reports of the reichstag and called for whole reams of newspaper files and other comment. These quickly put him in possession of all the facts. Not much is known concerning the things he said, but his anger is reported to have been terrific, and he was enraged, not only at his critics, but at those who had concealed the truth of the situation from him.

SMILES.

No drunks on the streets of Salem. Riding on the river under the new steamboat rates is cheaper than walking.

By all means, let us ask the S. P. Co. for a few improvements this coming year.

This is not Oregon weather. It is eastern importation—the east wind brings it.

After you gobbled that turkey last night did the turkey gobble during the night?

A writer in January Craftsman calls New York "the great whimsical metropolis." The Board of Trade will steer people around that South Commercial street bridge.

There are a few men in the city council who are like a horse—cannot entertain more than one idea at a time.

POISONED HUSBAND

who is said to have died in her apartments.

Mme. Steinhell is confined alone in a cell and spent the entire day moaning in great anguish. She apparently is overcome by the nervous strain through which she has passed.

The woman prisoner absolutely refused to make any statement or to discuss the death of her husband in any way. She maintained the same stolid silence as when first accused of poisoning President Faure.

The statement that the president died in her apartments and that his body was removed secretly to the palace has not been denied.

Dreyfus Case Involved. A new sensational turn was given the extraordinary case today when the allegation was made that she poisoned Faure as the result of his failure to take up the Dreyfus case sooner. This has caused the greatest public commotion and threatens to bring back the bitterness of the Dreyfus case.

Minister of Justice Briand cleared today that the phase of the case affecting President Faure's death and the condition of the Dreyfus case with the scandal must be probed thoroughly and he is preparing to make the most searching inquiry.

Mme. Steinhell Hysterical. Mme. Steinhell was taken before Magistrate Bouchard this morning for a brief time but she was suffering so much from nervousness that it was impossible to question her and she was sent back to her cell. This evening she is crying for her sister Martha, who has not been allowed to see her.

The authorities are severely enforcing the rule that she be kept in solitary confinement.

Had Accomplishes. M. Hamard, chief of the detective bureau today declared that he had no doubt that Mme. Steinhell was guilty of murder but said that the manner in which the victims died indicated that she had accomplices, whom the detectives are seeking. He refused to say whom he suspected.

Alexander Wolff, the cook, accused by Mme. Steinhell with poisoning her husband was taken before Magistrate Bouchard today but what developed at the hearing was kept secret.

Paris has seldom been stirred as it is by this case. The rival of the Dreyfus incident and the possibility of more prominent person in government and society circles being involved keeps the interest keyed up to the highest pitch.

QUARANTINE AGAINST UNCLE SAM'S MEATS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 27.—Railway officials this afternoon received notice of a quarantine declared by the Canadian government against meats from certain parts of the United States because of foot and mouth diseases.

The packing house officials say that their companies have not been notified of the quarantine.

BIG GAIN IN ATTENDANCE OF SCHOOLS

Superintendent Powers has now prepared the November enrollment for the city schools for the year of 1908, and in comparison with the attendance of last year, the total gain is 83 for the same month.

The present enrollment for November is as follows with the November, 1907, enrollment adjoining to show the loss and gain:

East school	527	495
Grant school	342	316
Park school	326	321
Lincoln school	215	227
Central school	147	142
High school	354	319

The census-taker for schools in the city will complete his work within the next month, and at which time, all the children who are not attending school in compliance with the law, will be located and the truant officer sent on an investigation.

PLYERS WIELDER GETS LIGHT FINE

Elwood Logan, the man who was arrested a few days ago for assaulting two boys on the streets and striking Walter Johnson on the head with a pair of plyers, was fined $15 in the Justice Court this morning. Notwithstanding the seriousness of the charges brought against Logan, the Judge took lenient measures in punishing the man after testimony had shown that he was guilty of the crime of assault and battery. Logan is no ordinary bad man, nor does he apparently desire to be. He will probably serve out the fine in jail, having no funds with which to pay the court. Attorney Frank Holmes defended Logan, and Walter Winslow appeared for the state.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

The county commissioners' court, is now in session at the court house, and a good many bills and other business is being looked after. Several of the taxpayers near Silverton and Macleay appeared before the commissioners this morning with a petition to form a new road district in that vicinity. The proposed road, as asked for by the petitioners will be situated on the lines of Sublimity, South Silverton and Macleay. The present session of the county officials is a hold over session from last month.

Judge Galloway granted a divorce to H. V. Schaum from his wife, G. C. Schaum, on the grounds of inhuman treatment. The husband was also given the custody and care of the one child between them. S. T. Richardson appeared as attorney for the plaintiff.

The jury in the Casto vs. Mott case handed in a verdict granting Dr. Mott $50 for medical aid given Casto several months ago. The plaintiff asked for $154 as a satisfactory settlement, but after testimony had been taken, it was found that there were several counterclaims against Mott thus offsetting Mott's claim of $154. Walter Winslow appeared as counsel for Casto, and Carey F. Martin for Mott.

EDNA CLARK IS IN MUCH DEMAND

Toledo, O., Nov. 27.—Edna Clark is in this city today seeking the protection of relatives from reporters, stage managers and magazine writers, who have practically driven her out of Chicago. The girl ate Thanksgiving dinner here yesterday with the family of her cousin F. H. Clark.

She expressed herself as greatly relieved at the attentions of inquisitive and persistent people in the Windy City. How long she will remain in Toledo she does not know. "I couldn't stand it longer in Chicago," she said today. "People kept writing letters to me, begging me to go on the stage or to write for the magazines. They pestered me so that I finally consented to come here with my cousin and get away from all the fuss."

"The story that I left home because of a love affair with a minister is ridiculous. I never had a love affair in my life. My only love is for my art, and I hope to be able to go to Boston, now that I am so near that city, where I expect to finish my education."

PERSONAL MENTION

Larry Keen is home from O. A. C. spending Thanksgiving week with his parents.

Mr. Medford Woodford, of Portland, visited Salem friends over Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Rachel Dove has returned from Portland, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Buford.

Geo. W. Johnson, Jr., and wife left for Cascadia last evening, where they will remain all winter hunting and fishing.

KILLED IN WRECK ON KANSAS RAILWAY

(United Press Leased Wire.) Parsons, Kas., Nov. 27.—In the explosion of an engine on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway at this place today, Engineer Melville and Fireman Wulff were killed and Brakeman Rog was fatally injured. The engine was coming from the shop after a supposedly thorough overhauling. The accident has set on foot a rigid investigation into the methods in vogue in the car shops of the system.
