Then I did not notice anything until we ran into the waves of a ferry boat, and I called to him to come out and help me

"When he did not answer I investigated, and found that he was gone." Murphy told how he hurried ashore and reported the loss of the chief.

Other statements were made by Captain J .J. O'Mera, who testified that he saw Biggy yesterday at his office at 4:30 o'clock, and later at 6 o'clock, at a restaurant near the ferry building. Captain James Kelly, head of the detective bureau, also anw him at his office, but did not speak to him. James M. Wood, of the St. Francis, saw him in the police automobile shortly before o'elock

Patrolman R. L. Martien testified that he saw the chief at the launch just before the trip to Belvedere. While waiting for Engineer Murphy, he says, he and Biggy smoked a clgar together, and the chief seemed cheerful.

Captain Michael J. Conboy, of the Harbor station, described the search which he had made for the chief's body after the drowning.

ACTING CHIEF IS APPOINTED

San Francisco, Dec. 1 .-- After an early morning mession, the police commissioners appointed the president of the board, A. D. Cutler, acting chief of police to replace Chief J. Biggy, who disappeared late w last night from the police patrol boat while in the vicinity of Alcatraz Island

At 8 o'clock this marning no trace of the missing chief's body had been found. Cuptain of Detectives James Kelly, who took charge after the loss of Biggy was reported to headquarters, announced that boats would be kept patrolling the banks of the bay until the body was recovered. At the time of his disappearance

Tacitus, the Roman historian, writing of the Batavians, said: "Others go to battle; these people go to war."

With this persistent people, a battle was merely a part of the war, of the campaign, no matter whether it were won or lost.

In modern business life the same idea prevails. With the merchant who is destined to win, advertising is a CAMPAIGN-not a mere "splurge." A big ad is merely a PART of that campaign-not a thing upon which success or failure wholly rests. In a war, a great many big battles are apt to be fought-some of them costly, some disastrousbut all inevitable, as a part of a winning campaign.

In advertising a good many big ads must be used. Some of them may seem too expensivesome also a loss of money

But all are a part of any winning campaign in business-all are incidental to the success of the campaign. And when a business campaign succeeds-as every persistent and wise one will-the COST will seem very small, indeed!
