

DRUG AND ROB MAN IN AUTO

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Dec. 2.—The police today are investigating the peculiar incidents surrounding the kidnaping of R. B. Elder, western representative of the Allis-Chalmers Pumping Company, who was taken insensible in an automobile to San Jose yesterday by four men, one of whom called himself "Frank Martin," and insisted that he was the son of former Police Captain John Martin, of this city.

The quartet were arrested at Santa Clara on complaint of William A. Hansen, the chauffeur, who says he drove the party, with Elder, down the peninsula yesterday morning, and saw Elder robbed of a draft of $375, a diamond pin, a fountain pen and a jeweled match box. Hansen says that Elder was drugged in the Cutter saloon on Market street, and was in a stupefied and helpless condition on the ride from San Francisco to Santa Clara.

Hansen says that, when he was summoned from the Pioneer garage at 6 o'clock in the morning, he found four "rough looking" men apparently trying to take care of a drunken man. He received his orders to drive to San Jose, and set out for that city. He says that he soon guessed that something was wrong, as he found the four men industriously going through Elder's pockets. Martin, he says, explained that Elder had a check on his person which he had promised to endorse, so that they could reach Watsonville. Hansen says that he saw

Elder's other valuables removed, and this, he says, prompted Martin to say to him:

"Keep quiet and stand in with us, and we will give you a rake-off on the money. Don't stop at San Jose or any big place."

It was their desire to avoid being noticed, says Hansen, that caused them to eat their meal at Santa Clara and give him his opportunity, under the disguise of seeking for gasoline, to summon the police to arrest Elder's "friends."

All four prisoners were arraigned in Judge Glendenning's court in Santa Clara on a grand larceny charge, and their preliminary hearing was set for December 15. In default of $2000 bail they were kept in the town jail.

Elder, when brought back to this city, had recovered enough to give his account of the peculiar affair. He says that he met the four men in the saloon early in the morning, and he is confident that a powerful drug was administered to him in that place at that time, as he has no recollection of what transpired after that. He is very grateful to Hansen, who, he says, took a serious risk in calling the police and rescuing him from his kidnapers.

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Some one told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

The Correct Time to stop a cough or cold is just as soon as it starts—then there will be no danger of pneumonia or consumption. Just a few doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup taken at the start will stop the cough. If it has been running on for some time the treatment will be longer, but the cure is sure. Sold by all dealers.

Judge Root, of Washington, it is said, allowed the Great Northern attorney to write a decision for him in a case in which the railroad was a defendant, and the result is a prosecution is expected.
