OBITUARY.

Ashley M. Aspinwall was born April 29, 1857, at Farmington, Wis., and died at St. Vincent hospital, Portland, Oregon, November 30, 1908.

The deceased was a well-known and highly honored and beloved citizen of Brooks and vicinity. While he had been ailing for some time his sudden and untimely death came as a shock to his devoted family and many friends. He was reared in Farmington, Wis. At the early age of 21 he was married to Ellen E. Ormsby, they remained at Farmington until the spring of 1884 when they removed to South Dakota where they lived for 18 years. Becoming interested in the possibilities of the Willamette valley he, together with his family, came West and located at Brooks, Oregon. Genial spirit, generous heart and clear business methods soon placed him among the first in social and business circles, ever ready to give a helping hand to the needy and alleviate suffering humanity wherever self-sacrifice and tender sympathy could soothe the aching heart. He won a fond remembrance from those friends who will ever cherish his memory. His cheerful smile and hearty laugh accompanied with rare wit and pleasant stories constantly surrounded him with happy hearts of all ages and sexes. In business matters he was deep and broad and he sought to build up the community in which he lived. He was one of the principal organizers of the Brooks Fruit Growers association, was a highly esteemed member of the Patrons of Husbandry, an honored member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and a member in good standing in the A. O. U. W. and D. of H.

He left to mourn his loss a loving wife and 11 children, whose standing in social circles is a credit to his memory. They are: Ray, Britt, Phil, Pierre, Carl, Hugh, Mark, Harold, Kenneth, Ruth and Helen; he is also survived by four brothers and five sisters, all in Eastern states except Mrs. Blas, of Forest Grove, Ore. His funeral services were held at Brooks and he was laid to rest at Salem in the Odd Fellows cemetery, his burial being conducted by that order.

"Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in thy grave so low; Thou no more wilt join our number, Thou no more our sorrows know."

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled; And in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tears are shed." Wm. H. EAGAN.

President Roosevelt will not go on record as opposing the popular will when expressed according to law, as it has been done in Oregon on the senatorship. He hailed Governor Chamberlain as the next senator from Oregon and it does not appear that Taft takes any different view of the matter, as Chamberlain did not stump for Bryan.
