

CHRISTMAS BULLETIN

Your Christmas Present has arrived. Our carload force was very busy yesterday unloading a car of the choicest holiday gift pieces ever gathered together in Salem. You will agree with us when we say: "What you want is here." Extensive preparations for any important event is the rule with this store, but we are emphatic in stating that present stocks represent by far our greatest effort. For months we have been planning and buying—selecting from America's choicest lines—in order to bring together a showing of merit and individuality for the Christmas season, that will be remembered all through the year. Share in the good things offered. Make our store your headquarters, using our service and conveniences to the fullest extent.

OFFER REWARD FOR ESCAPE

Superintendent C. W. James, of the state penitentiary here, is now offering a reward of $50 for the arrest and detention of John Hilton, who escaped from the guards while making ground improvements at the fair grounds last year. Hilton was serving a two-year sentence on the charge of larceny from a dwelling, being convicted of the crime in Douglas county.

Hoked to Death
is commonly said of babies who have died of the croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had the croup without having a cold or cough at the start. If you will stop the first symptom of the cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup. Sold by all dealers.

SMILES.

H. S. Radcliff should have been a newspaper man.

That assessment of Marion county at $8,569,754 is pretty low. Two men and The Capital Journal are worth nearly that much.

By all means elect some neutral nondescript politician speaker if you want a rotten legislature.

Milk punch will be served at the Salem dairy convention by handsome dairymaids in full costume.

Alderman Eldridge's proposition that the people of South Salem pay for the special election before they get a bridge ought to be amended to include the people of the ward the bridge is in.

DAIRY

cheeses, made at the Salem Cheese Factory.

There will be a grand reception this evening at the Illibee club, where the visitors will be made welcome and royally entertained by a large reception committee of the business men of the city. The local committees have done splendid work to make the convention a great success, and one man who deserves a great deal of credit for the success of this convention is Carl Abrams, of the Pacific Homestead. Hon. E. T. Judd and Frank F. Toews, of the Hazelwood Creamery Co., are in attendance, and have done a great deal to make the convention a success. There will be another program tomorrow.

BOARD OF TRADE ACTS ON SEVERAL MATTERS

Mf. F. J. Lafke suggested a plan to have the first experiments made by the general government in free parcels post originate at Salem. The matter will also be presented to the Business Men's League.

The construction of a boulevard from the state capitol to the state fair grounds, which was referred to Judge Scott some time ago, has now been referred to the State Board of Agriculture, to secure their co-operation.

Resolutions were adopted asking the city council to build sidewalks all over the city.

This Is Worth Reading.
Leo F. Zelnasky, of 88 Gibson street, Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I cured the most annoying cold sore I ever had, with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I applied this salve once a day for two days, when every trace of the sore was gone." Heals all sores. Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store. 25c.

POPULAR PHYSICIAN RETURNS TO SALEM

Dr. D. F. Lane, who has been practicing medicine at Portland for the past year, has returned to this city, where his family resides, and will resume practice in his old offices in the Holman block. His old friends are invited to call and see the Dr. who is very happy to be back in his old quarters. He says Salem is the best town in Oregon.

POITICAL LEADER DEFEATED AT JEFFERSON

After a spirited contest County Chairman Jones of Jefferson was defeated for mayor of that town by Dr.

Allen, a popular politician, vote of nearly two to one.
