

Hello! Have you stopped to think that Xmas was only eleven days off, and that the longer you delayed making your selections the smaller the assortments would be to choose from. Now the stocks are full, assortments are complete, and you can get as many nice gifts as you want at just what you want to pay. We've doubled our efforts this year in selecting from the best the markets afford, and have now on display the largest "Xmas" showing ever exhibited in Salem. Shop in the morning, the crowds are not so large, selections are made easier, and the clerks are not so tired.
