

RESOLUTIONS FROM MORNING STAR GRANGE

Morning Star grange met at regular session December 12 with 75 members present. A class of nine candidates were given the third and fourth degrees. After enjoying a fine banquet the grange was again called to order and a good literary program was rendered.

Whereas, As we believe it has been and is the desire of a certain class of politicians to set aside the will of the people by bribery and trading federal patronage to defeat the people's choice for United States senator, therefore be it

Resolved, By Morning Star Grange, No. 311, in session this 12th day of December, that we condemn the action of these politicians and ask the legislature to do the only thing that is honorable, and elect Geo. E. Chamberlain for United States senator.

A. C. LIBBY, Master. MRS. N. D. FISHER, Sec.

Medicine That Is Medicine.

I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions.

Foley's Orino Laxative cures chronic constipation and stimulates the liver. Orino regulates the bowels so they will act naturally, and you do not have to take purgatives continuously. J. C. Perry.

DESERTS NAVY TO GO BACK TO SWEETHEART

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Dec. 15.—William McDonough, pay clerk of the battleship Missouri, is today on the prison ship Manila at Mare Island awaiting trial on a charge of having deserted his ship at Amoy in order to return to this city to visit his sweetheart. The young officer had the forethought to write out his resignation before he disappeared from his ship, but he did not wait until the resignation was formally accepted. This, according to the rules of the navy, is desertion.

McDonough is well called in the East. He comes from a prominent family, and he made a host of friends in this city through his eastern relations when he was here during the fleet's visit. One of these friends, a mysterious young woman whose name he refuses to divulge, proved so attractive that the latter faced court martial and disgrace to return to her.

When McDonough dropped out of sight in Amoy several weeks ago, the first thought of his superiors was to examine his accounts. No irregularities were found, and McDonough's desertion lacked that scandalous feature. Nevertheless, the authorities in this and other ports were warned to keep a lookout for him. When the transport Thomas steamed into port, McDonough was on board, eagerly awaiting the moment when he would join the girl he loved. But United States authorities were ready for him and, before he was able to step down the gang plank to the wharf, he was placed under arrest.

His removal to Mare Island has been quietly accomplished, and his sweetheart and he have had no opportunity to communicate with each other.

It is understood, however, that powerful influences will be set at work immediately at Washington to bring about his pardon.

The Best Cough Cure

A half-ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine, two ounces of Glycerine and a half-pint of Wiskey, mixed, will cure any cough that is curable and break a cold in 24 hours. Takes a teaspoonful every four hours. Ask your druggist for the genuine Leach's Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, prepared and guaranteed by the Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, Or.

Nearly Hopeless.

A doctor came up to a patient in an insane asylum, slapped him on the back, and said: "Well, old man, you're all right. You can run along and write your folks that you'll be back in two weeks as good as new."

The patient went off gaily to write his letter. He had it finished and sealed, but when he was licking the stamp it slipped through his fingers to the floor, lighted on the back of a cockroach—that he did see was his escaped postage stamp zig-zagging aimlessly across the floor to the base-board, and following a crooked track up the wall and across the ceiling. In depressed silence he tore up the letter he had just written and dropped the pieces on the floor.

Marked for Death

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bac Ky. The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 55 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored. This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
