Ice Cream to Pay for Drinks—
The young people of West Salem will have a basket social at their school house last Saturday night. Nearly 100 people were present, and $17.90 was realized from the sale of boxes, which will be used as a payment on the new pump that has recently been purchased for the school. George Fraser auctioned off the boxes, before which a short program was given.

Merchandise Orders—
If you are undecided what to give for an Xmas present, get an order of us. It saves time and annoyance to you. The Toggery.

Remember—
Our big sale on chinaware. This is not a fake sale, but a true, honest one. We will close them out at cost. Come and carry them away, for we wish to make room for our stove department, and we must close them out. L. U. Josse, Court street.

Full Dress Affairs—
Gentlemen who are in need of anything in this line should visit our Toggery. We can please the most exacting. See us. The Toggery.

Suit for Hops—
The hop firm of B. O. Shucking Co., has filed a complaint in the circuit court alleging that Fred Kaser, a grower, is under contract to deliver 15,000 pounds of hops which have not been delivered in accordance with the contract. The complaint states that the firm forwarded $932.50 for development of the crop and that it has received only $451.50 of the amount back, and no hops at all. The suit is for $480.50.

Bath—
Robes. If you haven't seen our line, you have missed it. Without doubt we are showing the largest and most complete assortment of robes shown in Salem. $5 to $15. The Toggery.

Don't Overlook—
Our big sale on dishes. We are closing out our entire large stock of chinaware at cost, in order to make room for our stove department, which we will install after the first of the year. You can never buy a present for your friend or anyone with less money than you can now. L. U. Josse, Court street.

Freight Train Ditched—
A special freight, which left this city early this morning in charge of Engineer Gray and Conductor Moorehead, went in the ditch near Brooks. A hot box on one of the cars causing a wheel to fly to pieces, derailing the cars and the caboose. The train was moving at a good rate of speed when the cars began jumping the track, and, but for the good work of the engineer, the entire train would probably have gone into the ditch. No one was injured, and only one car was smashed up badly. The wrecking crew were notified of the accident at once, but it took considerable time to put the road in traveling order again. The morning overland, in two sections, was held up here for six hours, and also the morning local. The Portland bound passengers ate breakfast in this city, and a good many took the Oregon Electric trains to Portland.

Rockers—
We have a fine line of rockers, the best in the city at prices ranging from $1.25 to $65. We can give you a splendid hardwood arm rocker for $1.65. This is not a Cheap John rocker, but a nicely finished hardwood rocker. Call in and see them. L. U. Josse, Court street.

Horse Thief at Lebanon—
Sheriff D. S. Smith, of Lebanon, has notified the sheriff's office here that a team of horses was stolen at Lebanon yesterday by some unknown party. The thief is supposed to have come toward Salem.

Grand Jury to Convene—
Next Monday the grand jury will convene here for the purpose of making a general cleanup in the county jail. C. Y. Timmons, the wife murderer, will receive attention at the hands of the jurymen, as will Homer Black, the man who is alleged to have shot Dr. Robertson. C. Yashita, the foxy little Jap, who was found with a bottle of nitro-glycerine and three sticks of dynamite on his person by Deputy Sheriff Esch some time ago, will also have the consideration of the grand jury. Yashita is held charged with being a menace to the public.

Wreck in Siskiyous—
Fred G. Haas, the Salem druggist, who has been studying medicine at Philadelphia the past year, returned this morning on the overland train that stuck six hours in a tunnel in the mountains south of here. He says the engines in front and behind pushed against each other and smashed the vestibules and couplings of the cars. No one was hurt. Mr. Haas did not bring his family, and will return in a week.

Get a Tater Set—
A salad set, a nice cake plate, cups and saucers, berry set, tea set, chocolate set and some of our nice hand-painted china, which are going at a song at our closing out sale on chinaware. L. U. Josse, Court street. We are including our 1847 silverware. 1847 Roger Bros., silver knives and forks are going at $4.25 a set.

French Harps—
At Geo. C. Will's.

Suicide at Aurora—
Coroner Clough received a telephone message this morning from Aurora to the effect that the body of a man had been found hanging by the neck in an old hop house two miles south of Aurora.

The local undertaker at Aurora talked to Coroner Clough, and told him two men had accidentally discovered the man hanging in an old deserted hop house, which had not been in use for a good many years. The unfortunate man had been hanging there for some time, as was evident from the condition of the body, and the undertaker at Aurora believes that it is a plain case of suicide. Coroner Clough instructed the undertaker to remove the body, which he did, and, upon searching the garments of the dead man, found a watch and two dollars in money, but no other articles could be found by which to identify him. The body was found suspended from one of the rafters by a rope tied securely around the neck, and as the body was in a very bad condition, Undertaker Snyder is of the belief it had been hanging there for a month, or perhaps more.

Sheet Music—
Is a very convenient Xmas present to send by mail. Geo. C. Will is the place to get the latest.

Those Deer and Dog Rugs—
Not only make a pleasing but serviceable Christmas present; on sale by Dennis at 538 State street.

Low Water Causes Shut Down—
The Spaulding Logging Company has been compelled to suspend all its work on account of the low condition of the Willamette, their logs all being at the Luckiamute. The company employs a force of 72 men, part of whom were laid off December 12, on account of the scarcity of logs, and the balance were laid off Saturday night. It is expected that the river will reach a favorable enough height by the end of the holidays to enable work to be resumed.

Edison and Victor Records—
At Geo. C. Will music store.

Leather Novelty Work—
Lovers of Burnt Leather work will be greatly interested in the Pillow Tops and Cushions, the work of Mrs. Aruthur Welch of this city which is displayed in Patton Bros.' east window. Popular prices prevail.

land, but who is an American, and resides at Pasadena, Cal. The news was also confirmed by Teja Sing, the leader of the East Indians in British Columbia, whose organization scheme in British Columbia has become so complex that it has been necessary to send to India for an assistant leader.

In conversation with a United Press correspondent Crawford stated that, in taking the Sikhs to Louisiana, the promoters would take every precaution against an infringement of the labor act. The Sikhs, he believed, were absolutely necessary in Louisiana, as the negroes, he said, were deteriorating rapidly. He was much enamored of the Sikhs, and thought no better agriculturists could be secured.

T. C. Crawford is one of those white men, continually increasing in number, who have been converted to the Sikh doctrine, and who have thrown their influence and ability in the organizing of Sikhs and other East Indians on the Pacific coast. Crawford states that his aim, in conjunction with Teja Sing, and numerous others, is merely to assist the East Indians, and not foster sedition. He scouts the idea of a revolution in India, and is well posted on Indian affairs, though he has never visited that country. He refuses to state the object of his visit to Vancouver, but while here has held numerous conferences with Jeja Sing.

fore action by the legislature and whatever action is necessary by the city council in time for the coming session of the legislature.

The plan is to bring in the mountain water before the next state fair, and bring in enough for all the state institutions and city. It is believed the committee will recommend two mains direct from the supply source in the Cascade mountains, one for the city, and one for the state.

GIRL IDENTIFIES WOULD BE ASSASSIN

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Ely, Nev., Dec. 21.—Peter Gigosisich was identified today by Amelia Bogan, a 15-year-old girl, as the man who shot her and her companion, George Bretano, Saturday evening near here. Bretano is near death, two bullets having pierced his lungs. The girl was wounded in the thigh.

The young girl said that Gigosisich begged her to marry him, and that when she refused, he became infuriated. It is alleged that he lay in wait at a point on the road where he knew the girl and Bretano would pass, and fired on them from ambush. When arrested Saturday night he admitted the shooting, the police say, but today he denies it.

AMBASSADOR REID TO LOSE HIS JOB

(United Press Leased Wire.)

London, Dec. 21.—Rumors were revived today that Ambassador Whitelaw Reid will lose his place when the next administration steps into power, and the statement was made in diplomatic circles that the American statesman had displeased President-elect Taft, as well as President Roosevelt, in the extravagance with which he ha dmaintained his station at the court of St. James.

Reid, it is understood, would be quite willing to keep his post, but the home authorities are reported to have made up their mind to recall him, and replace him with some diplomat who will live in a style simpler and more becoming the traditions of the United States.

None of the attaches of the American embassy would discuss the rumor or make any comment on the situation today.

PROSPECTOR MURDERED

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Butte, Mont., Dec. 21.—William T. Clark, a pioneer prospector and a familiar character of the Montana mining camps, was found murdered in the mountains south of here today.

Clark recently discovered a rich gold vein and it is believed that this may furnish the motive for his death.

BARR'S GIFT SHOP

CHRISTMAS BUYING AT ITS ZENITH

Evidently the Barr idea is understood and appreciated. It has never been our expectation to revolutionize the jewelry business, but to regenerate the word quality, to instill into the human conception a fuller understanding of things that ARE instead of seem to be.

In obedience to the laws of perfect justice, BARR'S GIFT SHOP is enjoying a vote of confidence that is indeed gratifying to the owners of the business, and in this solicitation for your continued favors, we simply renew our promises of adherence to the boundless and immutable principle of conducting a jewelry business entirely open and above board, a perfect devotion to the idea of giving Salem a jewelry store that will command recognition as a formidable competitor of the metropolitan shops.

We offer the experience of many years, and a personad service which is intended to make Christmas shopping a real pleasure.

If you find the store crowded when you come, be patient; we'll do "our best."
