PRACTICE AND THEORY.

One of the horticulturists experts on state salary made a long talk on spraying apples at Hood River.

Then some of the unfeeling fruitmen of Hood River who practice apple growing for a living TOOK A FALL OUT OF THE PROFESSORS.

The man who grows the finest apples in the world is apt to know how to do the spraying act.

He IS SPRAYING BECAUSE IT PAYS TO DO IT.

Oregon needs a whole lot more practical business and less theorizing in horticulture.

Oregon needs to spend more money putting fine fruit on exhibition and LESS MONEY FOR EXHIBITIONS OF MORE SALARY-DRAWING HORTICULTURAL THEORIZING.

The whole State Board of Horticuture should be abolished and one Horticultural Commissioner appointed.

Some man who has the nerve and ability of Lownsdale or that Hood River manager, with the power to name a deputy in each county WOULD GET RESULTS.

The world today wants practical results and less theorizing and the apple growers, like the prune growers are able to manage their own business without state appropriations

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO OUR READERS.

This paper wishes all its readers and the community a happy and prosperous Christmas time.

May good will and genuine good fellowship prevail at every fireside and IN EVERY HUMAN CONSCIOUSNESS.

We have reason to be merry and happy. In spite of many drawbacks our city has prospered and we have all done business.

Let us go forward and forget our disappointments and look AND HOPE FOR BETTER CONDITIONS IN THE FUTURE.

The individual owes it to himself to sweep before his own door before paying too much attention to the defects of others.

The community can agree to progress along lines that will make this fine city—the finest and MOST BEAUTIFUL CAPITAL ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

All who see our streets compliment us on the paved portion—it is the finest piece of street work in North America in the opinion of persons who have seen many cities.

For this progress credit is due the mayor and common council, and the street car company FOR DOING ITS PART.

With finer streets, with more new buildings, with railroads extending in several directions, our city has a great future.

Why should we not be merry and rejoice over our good fortune? We have a new school house planned, A COLLEGE BUILDING GOING UP.

We have in prospect hundreds of new residences in all parts of the city, and fine brick blocks.

Salem should celebrate this Christmas season with the brightest prospects that were ever set before a city.

WE ALMOST FEEL LIKE SAYING, "LET'S ALL TAKE A DRINK TOGETHER."

MOSSBACK POLICY FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

It is to be regretted that our city has not seen fit to enter upon a policy of building permanent bridges.

It is due to our magnificent Capital City that it begun to build bridges AS IT HAS BEGUN TO BUILD STREETS AND SIDEWALKS.

We would no longer build wooden public buildings, and a permanent concrete bridge was due the city on the south end of Comemrcial street.

The concrete bridge on the north end may not be wide enough, but, as MR. STOLZ SAYS, IT IS THERE FOR A CENTURY.

It was built without bonding the city. There was money left in the city treasury towards building a better bridge on South Commercial street.

If the school districts can erect new buildings without issuing bonds, WHAT IS TO PREVENT THE CITY, WITH MORE REVENUES, FROM DOING THAT?

The council was very ready to increase appropriations for the park and city library.

But it looked with horror on the proposition of anything better than plank FOR OUR MAGNIFICENT COMMERCIAL STREET.

The smaller cities of California are building beautiful permanent bridges and this city should get out of the country-lane style.

We do not say these things to criticise anyone, but to get the minds of our readers INTO A BETTER WAY OF THINKING OF THEIR CITY.

As fast as possible our bridges should be taken out of the unsanitary rotting condition, and put in the class of permanent structures.

No serious effort has been made to get figures on a permanent bridge across South Commercial street.

Before the proposed wooden bridge to cost $6000 is done, with the fills and other expenses, it may cost twice that sum.

Then there is no place to put water or gas mains, when two ten-foot concrete arches might have carried the whole thing, and have left A REAL STREET THAT CAN BE PAVED ABOVE THEM.

It is to be regretted that the city council has solved the problem in the way it has, for it is not in line with the building of a beautiful and progressive city.
