BISHOP O'CONNELL CO-ADUTOR BISHOP
Washington, Dec. 28.—After two years vacancy the post of coadjutor bishop of San Francisco is filled today by Bishop Dennis J. O'Connell, pastor of the Catholic University at Washington. A cablegram from the Vatican announcing the appointment was received yesterday, and the apostolic documents affirming it will arrive soon.

Bishop O'Connell will become the assistant of Archbishop Riordan, and will fill the place made vacant by the death of Coadjutor Bishop Montgomery. He will continue as acting rector of the university until certain policies that he has inaugurated are well under way.

One reason so many men get married is they don't intend to, but the girl does.

OF FORTY ARGONAUTS THREE STILL ALIVE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Belfast, Me., Dec. 28.—There was no reunion this year of the survivors of the party which on December 5, 1849, left this city in the bark William O. O. Alden, for the gold fields of California. But three men of the band which made the trip are now living, and they have decided to do away with the celebrations which heretofore have marked each anniversary of the date of departure. The survivors are William W. West of Boston; Henry J. Woods, of Newton, Massachusetts, and Lorenzo G. Coombs, of Globe, Arizona.

Forty men sailed on the Alden in 1849, each advancing $500 to buy and equip the vessel.

It makes a girl awful ashamed to sit in a man's lap without saying she won't.

The Pope Has a Relapse.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Rome, Italy, Dec. 28.—Pope Pius X suffered a slight relapse today, but his physician asserts that it is not alarming. He is afflicted with gout complicated with chronic nephritis and arterio sclerosis.

It seems to be the custom, although not required by law that an alderman in the Salem city council wear socks. So this editor had to buy two pair of his colleague Col. J. L. Stockton. A young lady let him have two safety pins to fasten them up, as it is a fine point of etiquette with members of the council not to put their feet on the table unless their shins are properly covered. We do not propose that our ward shall suffer in prestige for any little thing like proper articles of dress.
