CITY NEWS

A Difference of Opinion—
A second amended answer has been filed in the Claggett vs. Yanke case, in which the defendant admits that Claggett is the rightful owner and is entitled to the possession of the single set of harness at issue in the matter, but denies that the harness is worth $10, and not more than $7.50, and the defendant denies each and every other allegation in the complaint. The amended answer asks that the defendant be given the mare in question and the case dismissed. This is a case where Mrs. Claggett delivered over to Charles Yanke a mare and set of harness for keeping in his livery stable, and has been left so long a time that the mare has "eaten her head off."

Governor Will Be Busy—
Governor Chamberlain has received an invitation from the National Canvassers Association to attend the annual convention to be held in Louisville, Ky., on the 1st of February, and deliver an address. Owing to the legislature being in session at that time, the governor will be unable to accept the invitation.
