NO STATE PURE FOOD BULLETINS.

The State Food and Dairy Commissioner law of this state has a clause requiring publication of a monthly bulletin showing results of examinations made by this department.

The commissioner is required to make analyses of canned goods, catsups, extracts and all prepared foods and publish results, whether pure or impure.

If no bulletins are published, we ask, has he nothing to publish? Is the food commissioner JUST BY TITLE AND FOR THE SALARY?

The people have a right to know if there are any impure foods sold in the retail stores.

The exposure made in congress, the bulletins printed in the state of Washington, THE NUMEROUS POISONINGS FROM CANNED AND PREPARED FOODS, all go to show that there are many impure articles of food sold.

Proper inspection and enforcement of the law is essential to protection of the people against the greed of conscienceless commercialism.

The purpose of the State Pure Food Bulletin is TO POINT OUT ARTICLES THAT ARE SPURIOUS AND ADULTERATED.

The wholesaler and the retailer are protected as well as the public when the pure food law is honestly enforced.

The bulletin featured of the state law should be enforced, as all kinds of adulterated products WILL BE SHIPPED TO AND SOLD in a state where there is no inspection and no possibility of exposure and punishment.

THE CAUCUS—A RELIC OF THE PAST.

Shall the rule of King Caucus be perpetuated in the Oregon legislature?

SHALL SIXTEEN MEN OUT OF SIXTY NAME THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE? NO.

SHALL NINE MEN OUT OF THIRTY NAME THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE? NO.

Shall Oregon restore close corporation rule or shall new ideas prevail?

These are important questions for members of the legislature to answer. HOW WILL THEY REPLY TO THEIR CONSTITUENTS?

Caucus rule is the rule of the minority, and control of a legislative body should not be given to a minority.

A conference of all members to select employees IS DIFFERENT FROM A STRICT PARTY CAUCUS.

In a strict party caucus the minority party is obliterated, wiped out.

THE MINORITY OF THE DOMINANT PARTY IS ALSO WIPED OUT.

The party caucus is control of a legislature by a minority within a minority.

SHALL NINE SENATORS DICTATE TO TWENTY-ONE SENATORS?

SHALL SIXTEEN REPRESENTATIVES DICTATE TO SIXTY REPRESENTATIVES?

That is the rule of the machine. Under the rule of the Direct Primary the domination of King Caucus is overthrown.

Public officials no longer owe allegiance to party bosses and machines.

THEY OWE ALLEGIANCE TO THE PEOPLE ONLY.

The party boss and machine politician CAN NO LONGER DICTATE TO THE PEOPLE THROUGH THE RULE OF THE MINORITY.

Members of the legislature who fail to see this WILL MAKE AN AWFUL MISTAKE.

The people of Oregon have abolished the ring-ruled convention.

THEY DO NOT WANT A CAUCUS-RIDDEN LEGISLATURE.

That is as much an institution of the past as the iron rack and the thumb-screws.

WHY ARE NOT CLEAN NEWS-PAPERS POSSIBLE?

This question has been asked by thousands, and at last answered by the publication of the Daily Christian Science Journal.

Read the headlines of any ordinary daily paper and CONSIDER THE CHARACTER OF NEWS MADE MOST PROMINANT.

Take the first morning paper at hand and the greatest features this New Year's day are Lillian Russell's love letters, and the confession of the Hains woman of her own misdeeds.

Scan the pages of any ordinary daily paper AND MAKE A LIST of the crimes, scandals, outrages, sensations, and shocking casualties.

In this wholesale exposure and dissemination of the darker side of life are contained THE SEEDS OF DISASTER TO THE INDIVIDUAL AND THE NATION.

It is a fortunate thing for this country that an organization has arisen that will show to the world that a clean newspaper can exist.

We have always wondered whether the prayer "Give us this day our daily bread" meant filling the minds of millions with sewage for food.

PRINCIPLE STRONGER THAN MEN.

One by one the Anti-Statement politicians are forced to admit that the will of the people back of Statement No. One is stronger than any man or combination of men.

A fundamental principle or idea founded on truth cannot be overthrown in a country where there is a FREE SPEECH AND FREE PRESS AND FREE INTERCHANGE OF IDEAS.

Men may be weak and vacillating and human minds may change, but the working of a potential principle, a forceful idea resting on a great basic truth, goes on forever.

STATEMENT NO. ONE WORKS WHILE POLITICIANS SLEEP.

The men who take that statement are resting their case upon a strong, safe, substantial foundation of reform principle which is aimed at the overthrow of political corruption.

The men who as candidates sign Statement No. One ARE THEMSELVES SAFEGUARDED AGAINST DEMORALIZING INFLUENCES.

They do not fall into the pits dug by machine politics, nor fall victims to the undermining influences of corruption.

Their minds are held firmly and guided safely along the line of principle and they are held to their sense of duty to the people by their devotion to A PRINCIPLE WHICH THEY KNOW TO BE FUNDAMENTALLY RIGHT.

There must be a tremendous satisfaction to any man who adheres firmly to a statement that he has publicly made known that he will do the right thing, and whose mind rings clear as a bell on a proposition.

The adherents of Statement No. One will achieve a great triumph for good government if they go right through the coming session of the legislature WITHOUT COMPROMISING THEIR PRINCIPLES.

Men who want to walk to the speakership or president of the senate across a pathway strewn with broken pledges and violated trusts are not numerous in American politics.

The man who thinks he can overthrow as strongly established a principle as that the public shall rule is almost a fool.

Read the following editorial in the

Washington (D. C.) Daily Tribune of December 19:

"Oregon gave Taft a plurality of 24,000, and elected four Republicans to the legislature for every Democrat. At the same time it nominated Governor George E. Chamberlain, a Democrat, for the senate by a majority of 15,000. Of the ninety new jurors of 1922. Of the ninety were PLEDGED TO VOTE FOR THE MAN WHOM THE PEOPLE SHOULD PREFER. Ex-Senator Fulton, who wants the seat for himself, insists that the Republican legislators owe a superior duty to their party not to send a man to the senate to fight Taft. His view is not shared by most of the other Republican leaders, who say that every member voluntarily signed the agreement to vote for the choice of the people, and that no quibbles of pettifoggery will relieve them from the moral duty of abiding by their pledges. THIS IS THE WAY THAT IT WILL LOOK TO ALL HONORABLE MEN, and the talk about it being unconstitutional to divest the legislature of its option in selecting a senator is repudiated, as it ought to be. The same argument would apply to the members of the electoral college, but what elector would think of taking advantage of his constitutional prerogative and voting for any other than the man he was chosen to vote for?"

The development of the Marion county coal fields at Scotts Mills, 24 miles east of Salem is a matter of great interest to all the people of this section. It will make it possible to manufacture cheaper gas for light, fuel and power, and will stimulate railroad building in this county.

The men who are backing this enterprise are among the best business men of Portland, this city and county, and they are putting in their own money freely and have perfect faith in their undertaking. When they strike that big six-foot vein of coal there will be time for a celebration.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oregon Diamond Coal Mining and Developing company was held in the city of Portland Saturday, December 26, and was attended by between forty and fifty staunch and enthusiastic stockholders, who together with their own holdings and the proxies they held, represented $10,220 shares of stock out of a total of 436,000 shares outstanding.

The report of the treasurer showed that $36,427.54 had been received from the sale of stock and other sources, and that this amount had been disbursed in the purchase of machinery, buildings, timber for the slope, land upon which the buildings stand, wages and necessary expenses. Engineer A. S. Wells, in a recent report referring to the expenditure of money for work, says: "The money expended on the plant has been used in the most economical manner, good judgment being used in securing machinery best adapted for the perma-

THE POPULAR SCIENCE MONTHLY.

As a factor in the development of the individual and the making of a stronger nation this publication is entitled to recognition.

For three generations it has furnished material for steadying the national thought and scattering SOLID INFORMATION AMONG THE PEOPLE.

The writer can look back to the days of his young manhood when he was a regular reader of this magazine with splendid effect.

There was never an issue that did not contain some important, serious article that MADE A DEEP IMPRESSION ON OUR MIND.

We can now look back over our life and realize what an influence Popular Science Monthly exerted upon at least one editor.

The introduction of this monthly into a family means sober thought and solid attention to matters OUT OF THE REALM OF THE TRIVIAL.

The Monthly of today is beautifully printed and illustrated and has features of the most fascinating interest.

Don't Neglect It

It is a serious mistake to neglect a weak heart. It is such a short step to chronic heart disease. When you notice irregularity of action, occasional short breath, palpitation, fluttering, pain in chest or difficulty in lying on left side, your heart needs help—a strengthening tonic. There is no better remedy than Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. Its strengthening influence is felt almost at once.

"I have used 16 bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and can truthfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever used, and I have tried nearly everything that I know of. The doctor who attended me asked me what I was taking, and I told him Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, he said it was not going to do me any good, but it did. I have not taken any for a year now, and while there is occasionally a slight symptom of the old trouble, it is not enough for me to continue the use of the medicine. If I should get worse I would know what to do. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure as I did before my heart cured of it. S. A. DUNNAN, Livingston, Texas.

HAPPY NEW YEAR FOR OREGON COAL COMPANY

The Company Operating At Scotts Mills Takes An Optimistic View of the Future, and Makes a Strong Showing for Early Results.

The development of the Marion county coal fields at Scotts Mills, 24 miles east of Salem is a matter of great interest to all the people of this section. It will make it possible to manufacture cheaper gas for light, fuel and power, and will stimulate railroad building in this county.

The men who are backing this enterprise are among the best business men of Portland, this city and county, and they are putting in their own money freely and have perfect faith in their undertaking. When they strike that big six-foot vein of coal there will be time for a celebration.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oregon Diamond Coal Mining and Developing company was held in the city of Portland Saturday, December 26, and was attended by between forty and fifty staunch and enthusiastic stockholders, who together with their own holdings and the proxies they held, represented $10,220 shares of stock out of a total of 436,000 shares outstanding.

The report of the treasurer showed that $36,427.54 had been received from the sale of stock and other sources, and that this amount had been disbursed in the purchase of machinery, buildings, timber for the slope, land upon which the buildings stand, wages and necessary expenses. Engineer A. S. Wells, in a recent report referring to the expenditure of money for work, says: "The money expended on the plant has been used in the most economical manner, good judgment being used in securing machinery best adapted for the perma-ment use in the actual operation of the mine after the coal seam is opened." Fred Behrman, mine foreman, explained the difficulties met and overcome, and gave a clear and comprehensive statement of the work now being done, and gave as his opinion that they should reach the large vein in a very short time. A. S. Wells' report was given as a mining engineer and a geologist, he having analyzed coal and shale at different times as the work progressed. He said in conclusion: "From the nature of the bedrock now exposed, the indications for uncovering the coal are better than ever before."

There was deep interest and enthusiasm manifested during the meeting which was substantially shown by subscriptions for stock to the amount of $1000 cash. As the company has met all indebtedness, and considering the valuable property, water right, land and leases to 3200 acres of land, it is a most opportune time, and it is the desire of the management, that the present stockholders who have stood by the company from the beginning receive as large a benefit as possible by securing additional stock before the price advances to $1 or $1.50 per share, which will be as soon as development work is finished. The following directors who have served the company during the past year were unanimously re-elected: F. J. Rice, L. C. Tobias, C. A. Hoy, Martin Mattson, E. W. Reder, C. R. Lewthwaite and Chas. J. Barnard.

FOUL BREATH

Made Pure and Sweet by the Use of Stuart's Lozenges.

Do not go among your friends with a breath so odious as to make your presence distasteful. Foul breath is capable of easy removal if you will take a little time to overcome it. Generally foul breath comes from one of two causes, impure gases or foul digestive fluids.

Charcoal is the strongest absorbent of foul gases known. It positively attracts poisons and neutralizes their evil effects.

A noted French physician swallowed strychnine enough to kill three men and with a teaspoonful of charcoal removed the bad effects of this terribly swift poison.

A little charcoal in a bedroom or cellar will make foul air pure. Pure willow charcoal mixed with honey are the component parts of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges and pure breath is the result of their use after meals.

Simply dissolve two or three after meals and at bed time and foul breath flees at once. No matter how you cause these gases, whether by bad food, alcohol or abuse of the stomach, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will stop gas making and sweeten the breath.

They are perfectly harmless and the eating of a box would cause you no inconvenience whatever.

Charcoal is hard to prepare for the stomach because it must be strong and pure and most people will not take it unless made palatable. Stuart's Inimitable process presents charcoal to the taste and system in all the nicest desired.

Choice virgin willow is burned in to desirable charcoal; this is mixed with pure honey and the combination is compressed under tremendous power into a lozenge of great pleasantness and efficiency.

Don't let your bad breath make people cross the street to avoid you; go to the nearest drug store and buy a box of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges today and eat what you wish. Two or three after the meal will sweeten your breath at once. If you want proof of this fact send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 208 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
