THE SATURDAY BOOSTER EDITOR.

It is admitted by all that this city has the greatest future of any city in Western Oregon.

The Capital Journal Saturday will be a 12-page paper with every page devoted to BOOSTING SALEM AND THE WILLAMETTE VALLEY.

Send in any good thing that will help advertise the city as a desirable place to locate in, and help circulate these papers.

Give us any item of improvement or any good words you hear for the city, and such things AS YOU WOULD WANT YOUR FRIENDS IN THE EAST TO READ.

We want your co-operation in making Salem the best city in Oregon, and we will more than do our part. This paper stands for the progress of the city, FOR GOOD SCHOOLS, GOOD ORDER AND GOOD GOVERNMENT.

Let us all pull together to make Salem the model home city, and the best city in the world to live in.

THE NEW CONCEPTION OF FATHER TIME.

The old idea has been to represent Father Time as aged and bent with years, stepping into his grave with a scythe in his hand.

Then there was the hour glass and the long whiskers and decrepit, bony figure THAT GAVE A PERSON THE SHUDDERS.

Last Sunday's Portland Journal had a full page picture and poem that was calculated to destroy the ancient conceit of Father Time.

Cupid, as the new year, was there as usual, with the hour glass, and the dial of the clock, AND WAS KISSING THE OLD YEAR GOOD-BYE.

The old year, instead of a skeleton with whiskers a yard long, going on a buying expedition for death, was a beautiful matron woman.

This pictured the year in perfect maturity, instead of decrepitude and decay and the other ETCETERAS OF SUPERANNATION AND DEATH.

Under this pleasant picture was a poem by P. H. Doyle, which we reprint for its merit in dispelling the old illusion and chasing Father Time into the limbo of oblivion, where he belongs:

Why speak of the scythe and the hour-glass
 As the bards so long have sung?
 Why should we notice how time may pass
 So long as the soul is young?
 Let wrinkles come and the head grow gray—
 It's never a cause for tears,
 For Methuselah hoped and laughed
 No doubt
 When he had nine hundred years.

So, when it happens in the run of days
 That we turn the New Year Page
 Why point to Time, with his dented scythe,
 Or other signs of age?
 What is it, in truth, that has been brought
 By the seasons in their whirl!

Where a boy, a light-winged promising lad
 Gives a good-bye kiss to a girl?

They fail to learn their lesson right
 And take the dress for gold.
 Who think gray hair, a wrinkle or two

Are marks of growing old.
 Joys songs may be as gladly sung,
 And e'en in better turns

If the heart keeps time with the proper beat—
 In December than in June.

No talk of tombstones on Life's road:
 No milestones of the past,
 But dreams of Hope and songs of Joy

Each merrier than the last.
 And whether we're eighty, or twenty or ten,

Let this New Year's praise be sung;
 Not Nineteen Hundred and Nine years old,
 But that many years still young.

The Pure Food Law.

Secretary Wilson says: "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine, and other habit forming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs, and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not only one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proven beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.
