BOARD OF TRADE WORK FOR 1900.

With an aggressive force of officers selected for the coming year the Board of Trade will carry on greater work.

The expenditure the past year of about ten thousand dollars for PROMOTION AND PUBLICITY WORK WAS A GOOD INVESTMENT.

The expenditure could be doubled and the work of the Board of Trade extended along other lines.

At least three men could be employed to promote matter OF THE GREATEST IMPORTANCE IN THIS CITY.

One man should be engaged to organize and promote the apple and fruit industry alone.

All Marion county should be a great apple producing region, and WHAT WE PRODUCE SHOULD BE SHOWN TO THE WORLD.

This city should expend its last resources in securing mountain water for a population of at least fifty thousand.

One man's time is needed in the Board of Trade to handle conventions and cherry and apple fairs. THAT IS VALUABLE PUBLICITY.

Salem people will make a great mistake not to enlarge their Board of Trade work and make Salem the best city in the Northwest.

There is more wealth created by publicity these days of AGGRESSIVE DEVELOPMENT THAN IN ANY OTHER WAY.

Mountain water, fruit industry, expansion of Salem, these are measures that should enlist the best effort of our people.

Salem people should all double their subscriptions to the Board of Trade work DOUBLE THEIR EFFORTS AND EFFICIENCY.

Along these lines our city will win and double its wealth and population. Twenty thousand dollars will create five millions of wealth with judicious organization and expenditure.

SYLVESTER FARRELL CROSSES THE DIVIDE

Many old residents of the Willamette valley will be grieved to learn that Sylvester Farrell, of Portland, is dead, for he was widely known and greatly loved by nearly all the old-timers.

emerald robes above the beautiful river by which the measure of your life was filled. "Green be the grass above thee; green as the memory of your good deeds and kindly presence will always be to those whose lives ran close to yours.
